new regime Hearts and minds had to be won over and one of the ways the Nazis did that was to create an ideal of German nationhood in which everyone could feel proud This was especially the case with art which came to be used as a powerful tool of propaganda both to disseminate the myth amongst the population and indicate to the Nazi administrators the sort of cultural environment they should create It was not an easy thing to do While the nation was being re created as a dynamic modern and powerful industrial giant all the signals coming from Hitler indicated that his own idyllic view of the German nation was of a traditional rural people deep rooted in a romantic mystical aesthetic Hitler s own experience as an artist in Vienna before the First World War had shown that while technically proficient his work was detached and impersonal Despite being rejected by the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts he continued to see himself as artistically gifted especially in the field of architecture This book looks at how the artistic side of Hitler s personality dominated Nazi aesthetics and the ways in which the Third Reich manipulated public opinion and advanced its political agenda using the power of art Despite his early setbacks Hitler always thought of himself first and foremost an artist He would frequently break off discussions with diplomats and soldiers to veer off on a lecture about his ideas on art and architecture which had been formed during his time in Vienna Nazi Propaganda Through Art and Architecture explores how Hitler s artistic and architectural vision for Germany led to the monumental structures which we now associate with the Third Reich alongside the rural idyl he sought to espouse and how they came to symbolise the re emergent power of a German nation which would dominate Europe

The Films

of Fritz Lang Tom Gunning,2019-07-25 In this volume Tom Gunning examines the films of Fritz Lang not only as a stylistically coherent body of work but as an attempt to portray the modern world through cinema The world of modernity in which systems replace individuals is conveyed by Lang s mastery of cinematic set design composition and editing Lang presents not only a decades long vision of cinematic narrative which can be compared to that of Alfred Hitchcock or Jean Renoir but a view of modernity that relates strongly to the ideas of Adorno Brecht Benjamin and Kracauer From the sweeping allegorical films of the 20s to the chilly and abstract thrillers of the 50s Lang s films Gunning claims are among the most precious records of the twentieth century The Films of Fritz Lang immeasurably enriches our understanding of a great artist and in so doing reimagines what a film artist is an author who fades away even in being recognised and interpreted an enigmatic figure at the junction of aesthetics history biography and theory its kind Aubrey Malone has gone back to the start of the Oscar ceremonies and discovered that mistakes have been made every year in the choice of what has been deemed best in the categories of acting directing producing and the subsidiary awards He has identified all the great stars Garbo Montgomery Clift Peter O Toole Barbara Stanwyck etc who never held Oscars in their hands and also iconic directors like Stanley Kubrick who were never thus honored Why were some people over rewarded by the Academy and why did others fall below the radar The author outlines all of the extraneous factors leading to voting choices and how Oscar pariahs have often been subsequently or even posthumously awarded for the wrong films to make up for omissions in a given year With both wit and wisdom he has written an alternative history of the Oscars that will be required reading for both academics and film buffs alike It tells the story behind the story If there were Oscars for research Aubrey Malone would be right up there with the best of them Film Ireland Fritz Lang's Metropolis Michael Minden, Holger Bachmann, 2002 Providing a broad range of materials and resources for the study of Fritz Lang's classic film Metropolis 1929 this volume includes both standard critical essays and contributions appearing for the first time Otto Preminger Foster Hirsch, 2011-06-22 The first full scale life of the controversial greatly admired yet often underrated director producer who was known as Otto the Terrible Nothing about Otto Preminger was small trivial or self denying from his privileged upbringing in Vienna as the son of an improbably successful Jewish lawyer to his work in film and theater in Europe and later in America His range as a director was remarkable romantic comedies The Moon Is Blue musicals Carmen Jones Porgy and Bess courtroom dramas The Court Martial of Billy Mitchell Anatomy of a Murder adaptations of classic plays Shaw's Saint Joan screenplay by Graham Greene political melodrama Advise and Consent war films In Harm's Way film noir Laura Angel Face Bunny Lake Is Missing He directed sweeping sagas from The Cardinal and Exodus to Hurry Sundown and small scale pictures adapting Françoise Sagan's Bonjour Tristesse with Arthur Laurents and Nelson Algren's The Man with the Golden Arm Foster Hirsch shows us Preminger battling studio head Darryl F Zanuck defying and undermining the Production Code of the Motion Picture Association of America and the Catholic Legion of Decency first in 1953 by refusing to remove the words virgin and pregnant from the dialogue of The Moon Is Blue he released the film without a Production Code Seal of Approval and then two years later when he dared to make The Man with the Golden Arm about the then taboo subject of drug addiction When he made Anatomy of a Murder in 1959 the censors objected to the use of the words rape sperm sexual climax and penetration Preminger made one concession substituting violation for penetration the picture was released with the seal and marked the beginning of the end of the Code Hirsch writes about how Preminger was a master of the invisible studio bred approach to filmmaking the so called classical Hollywood style lengthy takes deep focus long shots of groups of characters rather than close ups and reaction shots He shows us Preminger in the 1950s becoming the industry's leading employer of black performers his all black Carmen Jones and Porgy and Bess remain landmarks in the history of racial representation on the American screen and breaking another barrier by shooting a scene in a gay bar for Advise and
