From Autarchy To Market Polish Economics And Politics 1945 1995:

From Autarchy to Market Richard J. Hunter, Leo Ryan, 1998-10-30 This study examines Poland's recent economic and political development. It explores the creation and collapse of the system of central planning, the pre-Solidarity Movement and the Polish August of 1980 leading to the imposition of martial law in December 1981.

Barbarism and Civilization Bernard Wasserstein, 2009-02-12 The twentieth century in Europe witnessed some of the most brutish episodes in history. Yet it also saw incontestable improvements in the conditions of existence for most inhabitants of the continent: from rising living standards and dramatically increased life expectancy to the virtual elimination of illiteracy and the advance of women, ethnic minorities and homosexuals to greater equality of respect and opportunity. It was a century of barbarism and civilization, of cruelty and tenderness, of technological achievement and environmental spoliation, of imperial expansion and withdrawal, of authoritarian repression and of individualism resurgent. Covering everything from war and politics to social, cultural and economic change, Barbarism and Civilization is by turns grim, humorous, surprising and enlightening: a window on the century we have left behind and the earliest years of its troubled successor.

Praxiology and Pragmatism F. Nahser, 2018-05-11 Volume 10 in this distinguished series addresses two distinct but interrelated philosophical movements which exemplify different approaches to the study of ethics. Praxiology, a unique Central European philosophical movement, embraces the study of purposeful and conscious action and the elements essential to each action: act and causative act. Pragmatism, a uniquely American philosophical movement, was founded by Charles S. Peirce and William James and is based on the meaning of conceptions defined in their practical bearings that guides actions and measures them by practical consequences of belief. The chapters in this volume are grouped in a section on Praxiology and one on Pragmatism. Each section defines the historical origins of their respective philosophical movements, describes their methodology and interrelates their impact on human conduct and contemporary society. The section on Praxiology presents for the first time in English a seminal study, The ABC of Practicality, written in 1972 by Tadeusz Kotarbinski, the father of modern Polish praxiology. Wojciech W. Gasparski offers an interpretative analysis of Praxiology. Daryl Koehn explores the nature of practical judgment and Timo Airaksinen applies praxiological efficiency in professional ethics. The section devoted directly to Pragmatism includes scholarly contributions by eight academics on the relevance of pragmatism to management. Juan Fontrodona, business ethics; Sandra Rosenthal, law; Fred Kellogg, and pragmatic inquiry; F. Byron Nahser, The contribution of Max Scheler to pragmatism; Manfred Frings, and the influence of William James on business ethics; Dennis McCann, are groundbreaking contributions to the study of pragmatism. The volume also includes a teaching model for a classroom application of pragmatism. Jack Ruhe, and concludes with an evaluation of the renaissance of interest in pragmatism in Europe. Jacek Sojka, Leo V. Ryan, C. S. V. professor of management, DePaul University, is past president of the Society for Business Ethics. He is co-editor of Human Action in Business, Vol. 5 and Business Students Focus on Ethics, Vol. 8 of the Praxiology series. F. Byron Nahser is chairman and CEO.

Redeemer Nation Orrin Schwab, 2004 In this book Dr Orrin Schwab develops the concept of the modern technocratic state as part of a global technocratic culture and civilization The author argues that technocratic cultural and institutional forms were and are part of a collective script for Western culture The American script combined the scientific commercial and technological aspects of the Enlightenment with the radical 17th century Protestant belief in America as a new Zion In the twentieth century the synthesis of mission along with global technocratic knowledge and institutions created the Wilsonian liberal technocratic order As the principal agent and protector of the modern capitalist international system America the self defined Redeemer Nation has moved through the controlled anarchy of international relations from one war and crisis to the next confirmed in its self defined role and mission

Constructing the Limits of Europe Rumena Filipova, 2022-04-30 This comparative study harks back to the revolutionary year of 1989 and asks two critical questions about the resulting reconfiguration of Europe in the aftermath of the collapse of communism Why did Central and East European states display such divergent outcomes of their socio political transitions Why did three of those states Poland Bulgaria and Russia differ so starkly in terms of the pace and extent of their integration into Europe Rumena Filipova argues that Poland s Bulgaria s and Russia s dominating conceptions of national identity have principally shaped these countries foreign policy behavior after 1989 Such an explanation of these three nations diverging degrees of Europeanization stands in contrast to institutionalist rationalist interest based accounts of democratic transition and international integration in post communist Europe She thereby makes a case for the need to include ideational factors into the study of International Relations and demonstrates that identities are not easily malleable and may not be as fluid as often assumed She proposes a theoretical middle ground argument that calls for qualified post positivism as an integrated perspective that combines positivist and post positivist orientations in the study of IR
