From Basketball To The Beatles In Search Of Compelling Early Childhood Curriculum:

From Basketball to the Beatles Ben Mardell, 1999 This entertaining and informative guide provides both the big picture about work in early childhood classrooms the theory of teaching young children and the details of developing and implementing preschool curriculum

Curriculum in Early Childhood Education Jennifer J. Mueller, Nancy File, 2012-01-30 Curriculum in Early Childhood Education Reexamined Rediscovered Renewed provides a critical examination of the sources aims and features of early childhood curricula Providing a theoretical and philosophical foundation for examining teaching and learning this book will provoke discussion and analysis among all readers How has theory been used to understand develop and critique curriculum Whose perspectives are dominant and whose are ignored How is diversity addressed What values are explicit and implicit The book first contextualizes the historical and research base of early childhood curriculum and then turns to discussions of various schools of theory and philosophy that have served to support curriculum development in early childhood education An examination of current curriculum frameworks is offered both from the US and abroad including discussion of the Project Approach Creative Curriculum Te Wh riki and Reggio Emilia Finally the book closes with chapters that enlarge the topic to curriculum being enacted through play and that summarize key issues while pointing out future directions for the field Offering a broad foundation for examining curriculum in early childhood readers will emerge with a stronger understanding of how theories and philosophies intersect with curriculum development

Storytelling in Early Childhood Teresa Cremin, Rosie Flewitt, Ben Mardell, Joan Swann, 2016-12-08 Storytelling in Early Childhood is a captivating book which explores the multiple dimensions of storytelling and story acting and shows how they enrich language and literacy learning in the early years Foregrounding the power of children s own stories in the early and primary years it provides evidence that storytelling and story acting a pedagogic approach first developed by Vivian Gussin Paley affords rich opportunities to foster learning within a play based and language rich curriculum The book explores a number of themes and topics including the role of imaginary play and its dynamic relationship to narrative how socially situated symbolic actions enrich the emotional cognitive and social development of children how the interrelated practices of storytelling and dramatisation enhance language and literacy learning and contribute to an inclusive classroom culture the challenges practitioners face in aligning their understanding of child literacy and learning with a narrow mandated curriculum which focuses on measurable outcomes Driven by an international approach and based on new empirical studies this volume further advances the field offering new theoretical and practical analyses of storytelling and story acting from complementary disciplinary perspectives This book is a potent and engaging read for anyone intrigued by Paley s storytelling and story acting curriculum as well as those practitioners and students with a vested interest in early years literacy and language learning With contributions from Vivian Gussin Paley Patricia Patsy Cooper Dorothy Faulkner Natalia Kucirkova Gillian Dowley McNamee and Ageliki Nicolopoulou
