From Forgiven to Forgiving Jay E. Adams, 2020-06-30 From Forgiven to Forgiving Jay Edward Adams, 1989 What do the following statements about forgiveness have in common Forgiveness is obtained through apologizing The best thing you can do is forgive and forget You aren't forgiven until you feel forgiven In this book Dr Jay Adams carefully explores all dimensions of the process of forgiveness A He can help you understand biblical forgiveness from beginning to end and apply that understanding to everyday situations ranging from forgiving your straying spouse or prodigal child and being forgiven by them as well Forgiving My Father, Forgiving Myself Ruth Graham, 2019-10-01 When we live with unresolved anger or hurt the result is nearly always bitterness broken relationships and unhealthy behaviors Unforgiveness not only sabotages our interactions with those around us it impedes our own spiritual growth and inner peace And it can happen to anyone In her most vulnerable writing yet Ruth Graham reveals how a visit to Angola Prison inspired her to release the unforgiveness lurking in her own heart toward others herself and even her heavenly Father and her earthly father evangelist Billy Graham In this encouraging book she weaves her own personal experiences with biblical examples to explore what holds us back from forgiving others and ourselves and what we gain when we finally discover the power to forgive Along the way she guides us into our own deeply personal experiences of forgiveness that will penetrate our protective walls and unleash true transformation in our lives Forgiven and Forgiving L. William Countryman, 1998-03 Combining excellent theology theory and practical pastoral suggestions the author explores the concept that forgiveness is not a step by step process but one of conversion and of seeing God's way Biblically based with sound academic research yet written in a conversational style

Angelo Corlett, 2006-07-10 Responsibility and Punishment Third Edition presents a clear headed defense of retributivism against several long standing criticisms In the end a viable version of retributivism emerges as one which withstands more criticism than competing theories of responsibility and punishment Extending the problem of wrong doing to collectives and compensation Corlett explores the matter of reparations for past wrongs in the case of the crimes committed against Native Americans by the United States Government No other philosophical work on responsibility and punishment exhibits this breadth of scope as it delves deeply into particular concerns with retributivism responsibility and certain areas of compensation Academicians and professionals in ethics moral social political and legal philosophy are likely to benefit from this analytical treatment of responsibility and punishment

Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt, 2020-09-25 Love's Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard's discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness Throughout the book the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives including Helen Prejean's Dead Man Walking Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger's South of Forgiveness and Ian McEwan's Atonement
