From Madina To Metropolis:

From Madina to metropolis ,1970 From Madina to Metropolis Leon Carl Brown,1973 This now classic study of Near Eastern cities provides insight and guidance for anyone interested in this important area of the world Architects demographers urban planners art scholars and other specialists on the Near East discuss specific cities and countries illustrative of different regions and cultural areas The Changing Middle Eastern City G.H. Blake,R.I. Lawless,2016-03-22 The Middle East defined here as extending from Morocco to Iran and Turkey to Sudan lies at the crossroads of three continents Africa Asia and Europe With the largest reserves of petroleum in the world its importance is well beyond its physical size and population Rapid urban growth has radically transformed Middle Eastern society in recent decades but the associated problems are incompletely understood This volume first published in 1980 highlights some of the major issues of Middle Eastern urbanisation and provides a comprehensive statement about the current position of research Urban origins and the nature of urban growth are discussed to provide a background to considerations of migration employment housing and retailing The contributors suggest that planning strategies have hitherto proved inadequate with small towns being largely overlooked historic quarters rapidly disappearing and water in short supply Future research into all these problem areas is considered essential but the research must be coordinated and utilised Concentrating on practical problems achievements and challenges for research the contributions in this book specially commissioned from active researchers in the field will prove a valuable guide to recent ideas and developments in the Middle East The City in the Islamic World, Volume 94/1 & 94/2 Salma K. Jayyusi,Renata Holod,Attilio Petruccioli,Andre Raymond,2008 The purpose of this book is to draw attention to the sites of life politics and culture where current and past generations of the Islamic world have made their mark Unlike many previous volumes dealing with the city in the Islamic world this one has been expanded not only to include snapshots of historical fabric but also to deal with the transformation of this fabric into modern and contemporary urban entities Salma Khadra Jayyusi was awarded Cultural Personality of the Year by the Sheikh Zayed Book Award for her profound contribution to Arabic literature and culture in 2020 The paperback edition of The City in the Islamic World was published to celebrate the occasion Re-imaging the City Somaiyeh Falahat,2013-12-09 Somaiyeh Falahat investigates the spatial and morphological logic of pre modern Middle Eastern and North African cities so called Islamic cities She bases her argument on the fact that the city and consequently its form and structure similar to other human products have deep roots in the thought structure of the people Thus to know such places properly one has to refer to this life world and use it as a structure to observe the city This approach aims at opening new levels of understanding of the city by grasping indigenous concepts and structures it puts forward claims for the possibility of a new method of analysis The author studies the historic city of Isfahan as the case study and suggests that an indigenous term Hezar Too can explain the complexity of the city which has been interpreted as labyrinthine and maze like accounting for the essence of the city and its form in an appropriate way

Looking at the city from this new point of view can help in observing it in its context and subsequently in discovering its real character

The History of Urban Planning in Spain, Portugal and Morocco Carmen Hass-Klau, 2025-09-08 This book includes a historic overview of urban planning in the Iberian Peninsula and Morocco from 700 AD until the 20th century Under Muslim rule there was an urban sophistication which was unfamiliar in the Christian world The conquest of Granada and the discovery of America was seen as the beginning of a new era but this book presents a different view of Spain and Portugal which does not equate with the glamorous picture usually painted Chapters detail the untold story of Muslim refugees who founded towns in Morocco and how the conflicts between Morocco and Spain started not only politically but also in terms of town planning when Spain took over the Moroccan north The history of Islamic city planning shows more consistency compared to the Christian equivalent which became dominant worldwide whereas the Islamic approach is mainly forgotten Despite this the change from Islamic to Christian cities was extremely slow regardless of the power of the church and the wealth which came from abroad In tracing this history this book seeks to highlight the past in order to learn from it and move towards building a future of livable cities This book will be of interest to students and instructors of planning history urban planning and human geography and to people who are generally interested in history and cities

Re-storying Mediterranean Worlds Angela Biancofiore, Clément Barniaudy, 2021-09-09 This book invites readers to think of Mediterranean cultures as interconnected worlds seen in light of how they evolve disappear are reborn and perpetually transform This perspective intends to build bridges between the Northern and Southern coasts of the sea in order to broaden and deepen our understanding of current evolutions in Mediterranean worlds at the cultural literary artistic and geopolitical levels As Paul Valéry suggested we can consider this plural space from the perspective of the intense cultural economic and human exchanges which have always characterized the Mare Nostrum We can also consider Mediterranean worlds within an open enactive process deeply exploring their evolution between nature and culture examining the natural environment and the transforming relationships between humans and non humans The writers and researchers in Re-storying Mediterranean Worlds call for a dialog between the two coasts in order to connect what has been broken In this volume they highlight an intercultural and creolized conscience traversing the Mediterranean worlds including Italian French and Tunisian cultures but also migrations from to and within the region and transcending any idea of communitarian withdrawal These essays express the urgent need to shift from an understanding of migration as suffering to the notion that mobility is an unalienable right building foundations for a new idea of global citizenship

Women and Public Space in Turkey Selda Tuncer, 2018-06-21 Turkey's process of modernization developed rapidly during the second half of the twentieth century New social and legal reforms were institutionalized and political and economic changes located the country as a more liberated Western style society Women and Public Space in Turkey provides a historical understanding of women's experiences of this modernization between 1950 and 1980 a vital period in which their participation in urban public life expanded through higher education and employment Selda Tuncer examines the precise conditions that enabled women to leave the home and reveals how they perceived and experienced urban public space and social relations Drawing on interviews with two generations of women from Ankara and using personal family photographs the book provides invaluable insights into women in a predominantly Muslim society who are living in a highly secular social context Tuncer specifically focuses on women s everyday experiences and discusses how the relationship between women and public space was actually controlled and regulated by different notions of domestication especially in the micro politics of daily life The book sheds new light on the gendered processes of nation building socio cultural transformations and the crucial connections between gender modernity and the urban experience in a non Western context International Organizations and Global Development
