Light from Afar Sidwell Mokgothu, Joel Bengbeng, Cláudio Carvalhaes, Nadiyka Gerbish, 2023-10-01 Advent is celebrated differently throughout the world. Some cultures barely observe the waiting and focus on the Christmas celebration. Others feel deeply the contrast between present circumstances and God's promise of a better future, making for a season of fasting and prayer. All of them focus on Christ as the Light of the world. Light from Afar is a daily Advent devotional that illuminates the season through the unforgettable stories and reflections of four writers from around the world. Authors Nadiyka Gerbish (Ukraine), Joel Bengbeng (Philippines), Cláudio Carvalhaes (Brazil), and Sidwell Mokgothu (South Africa) share cultural and religious traditions of the Advent season in their daily reflections. Each day's meditation includes a scripture reading, a prayer, an opportunity for reflection, and a link to a song from the author's home country. The light of the star of Bethlehem has spread around the world. The people who have heard the good news have stories to tell and traditions to share. By joining with Christians from different cultures and countries in prayer, we can experience the hope, love, joy, and peace of Advent, leading ultimately to Immanuel, God with us, on Christmas day.

Daughter from Afar Sarah Lynn Woodard, 2002 An adoptive mother shares her true story about the sadness and joys of the long process to adopt an abandoned Chinese baby girl. Sarah Woodard reveals with humor, sensitivity, and honesty the adoption process, the journey to bring home her daughter, and the ultimate adventure of becoming a mother. It is an absorbing story beautifully written in which two different cultures combine and illuminate each other, culminating in a heart-warming ending. But as this new family is being born, it is really only the beginning.

Making Space in the Works of James Joyce Valerie Benejam, John Bishop, 2012-05-23 James Joyce s preoccupation with space be it urban geographic stellar geometrical or optical is a central and idiosyncratic feature of his work In Making Space in the Works of James Joyce some of the most esteemed scholars in Joyce studies have come together to evaluate the perception and mental construction of space as it is evoked through Joyce s writing The aim is to bring together several recent trends of literary research and criticism to bear on the notion of space in its most concrete sense The essays move dialectically out of an immediate focus on the phenomenological and intra psychic into broader and wider meditations on the social urban and collective As Joyce s formal experiments appear the response to the difficulty of enunciating truly the experience of lived space this eventually leads us to textual and linguistic space The final contribution evokes the space with which Joyce worked daily that of his manuscripts or what he called paperspace With essays addressing all of Joyce s major works this volume is a critical contribution to our understanding of modernism as well as of the relationship between space language and literature
