From Farm and Kampong returns you to a Singapore that is gone forever. It depicts scenes of an idyllic farm existence where life is serene and leisurely. But turnoil and tragedy also run through its pages as the horrors of war-time attocities. nots and kampong fires punctuate the peace of this sheltered corner. Against this changing backdrop, a boy journeys into adulthood and realises his dreams and those of his parents. Dr. Wee received his degree in Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery from the University of Singapore in 1963. He takes great pleasure in reading and walking, swims occa-He is married with three children. sionally, considers himself a reasonable amateur astronomer (he has written several articles on Halley's comet), contributes articles on Biblical subjects for an international magazine, does video filming (he has done video tapes on Israel and Turkey) and is currently studying Hebrew and Japanese. 172-9

Report on the Iban Derek Freedman, 2021-01-07 The Iban or the Sea Dayaks of Sarawak have probably been the best known of the indigenous peoples of Borneo for well over a century Much has been written about them but until the results of Dr Freeman's field research were published by the Government of Sarawak and by Her Majesty's Stationery Office in 1955 there was little information on their methods of agriculture and their social system. The book has become a landmark in the studies of shifting cultivation and of cognatic kinship organization and the ideas around which it is written have proved over the years to be a continuing and powerful stimulus in the development of kinship theory. The field work on which the account is based was undertaken from 1949 to 1951 Although fundamental changes have taken place in the life of the Iban since the book was first published it has been decided to republish it substantially unaltered The Japanese Occupation of Malaya Paul H. Kratoska, 1997-01-01 Japan attacked British ruled Malaya on 8 December 1941 as part of a wave of military actions that toppled the British Dutch and American colonial regimes in Southeast Asia Within seventy days the conquest of Malaya was complete and British forces in Singapore surrendered on 15 February 1942 The three and a half years of Japanese rule are generally considered to mark a profound transition in the history of the Malay peninsula but little is known about this period This book uses the limited administrative papers that survived in Malaya oral sources and accounts written by Japanese officers involved in the Malayan campaign to flesh out the story A General History Of The Chinese In Singapore Chong Guan Kwa, Bak Lim Kua, 2019-06-21 A General History of the Chinese in Singapore documents over 700 years of Chinese history in Singapore from Chinese presence in the region through the millennium old Hokkien trading world to the waves of mass migration that came after the establishment of a British settlement and through to the development and birth of the nation Across 38 chapters and parts readers are taken through the complex historical mosaic of Overseas Chinese social economic and political activity in Singapore and the region such as the development of maritime junk trade plantation industries and coolie labour the role of different bangs clan associations and secret societies as well as Chinese leaders the diverging political allegiances including Sun Yat sen's revolutionary activities and the National Salvation Movement leading up to the Second World War the transplanting of traditional Chinese religions the changing identity of the Overseas Chinese and the developments in language and education policies publishing arts and more With Pride in our Past Legacy for our Future as its key objective this volume aims to preserve the Singapore Chinese story history and heritage for future generations as well as keep our cultures and traditions alive Therefore the book aims to serve as a comprehensive
