From Gospel To Sermon:

Let the Gospels Preach the Gospel Christopher J. H. Wright, 2017-01-14 Preaching about the cross of Christ is one of the greatest privileges and responsibilities any preacher can have The four Gospel writers who wrote about the cross of Christ and the events leading up to it did so in their own unique way Each interpreting the events through the lens of different Old Testament Scriptures and each emphasising different themes Based on his own sermons preached over a number of years at All Souls Church in London Christopher Wright explores the rich variety and lets the four Gospels preach the Gospel in their own way This is an excellent resource for preachers which is further enriched by the final chapter that provides a personal commentary on how Wright prepared each of the sermons Preparing Evangelistic Sermons Ramesh Richard, 2005-10 Ministry leader and evangelist provides readers with a proven do it yourself method for effective evangelistic sermons

Gospel Telling Richard J. Coleman, 2002 When was the last time you took a moment to consider the purpose and effectiveness of your children s sermons After all nothing is more important than sowing the seeds of faith early in life In this comprehensive look at all aspects of preaching the gospel to young people Richard Coleman challenges you to examine your approach with a critical eye and gives you plenty of practical guidance for developing simple direct messages that help children form a relationship with Jesus Christ In the first section of Gospel Telling Coleman discusses what constitutes meaningful children s sermons offering a thoughtful rationale for the idea that we must proclaim the gospel so youngsters experience God s love You ll learn how you can mine your own experience for inspiration and proclaim gospel stories that flow from your specific circumstances Then in the second portion of the book you ll see this process at work with over thirty examples illustrating several different types of children s sermons Whether you re a pastor Christian educator or engaged in the teaching ministry you re sure to profit from the practical advice and in depth reflection in these pages With Gospel Telling you ll be equipped to share with young people the good news with creativity and theological integrity Gospel Telling is an enriching book that treats children with the spiritual respect they deserve Richard Coleman understands the transformative language of children play and metaphor and shows how our weekly children s sermons can reach the heart of the child and not simply the mind of the adult This is a must have resource for educators and pastors alike Mickie O Donnell Executive Director Children s Ministries of America Richard Coleman understands the core of the biblical message as well as the learning processes of children and puts them together in theory and practice This is a valuable treatment of a too long neglected topic Rev Ray Kostulias Pastor First Congregational Church Park Ridge New Jersey Author of Character Witness and I Witness Richard J Coleman has served as the teaching minister of a university church the pastor of a small town congregation and the director of an interdenominational inner city Christian center He has published children s sermons leadership training articles and seasonal devotionals as well as books on the dialogue between science and theology and the dialogue between Evangelicals and Liberals Coleman is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University and Princeton Theological Seminary Sermon Outlines on Gospel Passages Charles R. Wood, Expository outlines that can lead to sermons or lessons filled with a deeper understanding of the truth of God's Word The Four Pages of the Sermon, Revised and Updated Paul Scott Wilson, 2018-09-18 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it author Paul Scott Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two This approach is about preaching the gospel in nearly any sermonic form Wilson teaches the what why and how of sermon construction all rooted in a theology of the Word This completely revised edition guides readers through the sermon process step by step with the aim of composing sermons that challenge and provide hope by focusing on God more closely than on humans It has been largely rewritten to include an assessment of where preaching is today in light of propositional preaching the New Homiletic African American preaching the effect of the internet and use of technology A chapter on exegesis has been added plus new focus on the importance of preaching to a felt need the need for proclamation in addition to teaching and developing tools to ensure sermon excellence New sermon examples have been added along with a section that responds to critics and looks to the future Christ-Centered Sermons Bryan Chapell, 2013-10-15 Highly regarded preacher and teacher Bryan Chapell shows readers how he has prepared expository sermons according to the principles he developed in his bestselling Christ Centered Preaching This companion volume provides concrete examples of how a redemptive approach to Scripture is fleshed out in various types of sermons and various genres of the Bible The example sermons not only demonstrate different approaches but also are analyzed for pedagogical purposes helping readers move from theory to practice In essence the book allows students and preachers to look over Chapell's shoulder as he prepares these messages to learn how to construct their own expository sermons that communicate grace and truth from both the Old and New Testaments Evangelistic Preaching Ozora Stearns Davis, 1921 The Gospel Arc Jeff Hatton, 2021-04-13 We need more than ever to be spoken back to life again Our endless forms of self activation in the church and culture today have proven to do little more than exhaust us make us anxious and ultimately disappoint and depress us Despite our impressive effort preaching has not escaped this prison of self entanglement Snoozing in the pew is now the good ol days as more and more people report a pathological aversion to preaching Perhaps there is a common thread leaving Jesus behind Leaving Jesus behind is the broken pattern of every human heart even the preacher's The Gospel Arc preaching model seeks to take Jesus with you in preaching It is preaching that experiences Jesus with the Bible Practically the Gospel Arc helps biblical communicators discover and display the Textual Jesus from Genesis to Revelation thereby unleashing divine energies to wake up the snoozer and finally electrify the self activator Taking Jesus with you in preaching changes everything Even preachers Can these bones live God probes the preacher Suffering from the inability to maintain a ministry the preacher gives a lame non answer Preach to bones God startles the preacher As he does stranger things happen The bones live Ezek 37 1 14

The Glory of Preaching Darrell W. Johnson,2010-01-04 Darrell Johnson s book is for any pastor or student who wants to cultivate a deeper pulpit approach one that participates in the transforming mystery of God working through our less than perfect proclamation Here is a solid foundation for preaching the good news as if God was living Jesus was resurrected and the Holy Spirit was faithfully at work among us The Gospel Preacher Benjamin Franklin,1873 The Four Pages of the Sermon Paul Scott Wilson,1999 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two Preaching Timothy Keller,2015-06-09 Pastor preacher and New York Times bestselling author of The Prodigal Prophet Timothy Keller shares his wisdom on communicating the Christian faith from the pulpit as well as from the coffee shop Most Christians including pastors struggle to talk about their faith in a way that applies the power of the Christian gospel to change people s lives Timothy Keller is known for his insightful down to earth sermons and talks that help people understand themselves encounter Jesus and apply the Bible to their lives In this accessible guide for pastors and laypeople alike Keller helps readers learn to present the Christian message of grace in a more engaging passionate and compassionate way The Purpose of the Gospel G. Campbell Morgan,2012-12-01 About the Contributor s G Campbell Morgan 1863 1945 was a leading Bible expositor in England and the United States Despite a lack of substantial formal training Morgan was a prolific writer and teacher Ordained into the Congregational ministry he was the pastor of Westminster Chapel London 1904 17 and 1933 45 Morgan also conducted two very successful teaching tours in the United States including work with D L Moody s ministry The Preaching of Jesus William Frank Brosend,2010-01-01 Using the findings of historical Jesus studies William Brosend asks what is the rhetoric that characterized the preaching of Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels and how may today s preaching benefit from it This book for preachers and students of preaching helps the reader see four distinct aspects of the rhetoric of Jesus dialogical preaching in response to challenges and questions proclamatory making bold and authoritative statements occasionally self referential though less so than in the Fourth Gospel and persistently figurative illustrating his message through metaphor Brosend spends one chapter on each of these methods closing each chapter with a sermon that models that approach and his analysis of it Sample sermons are by well known preachers including Fred Craddock Michael Curry

Tom Long and Barbara Brown Taylor Brosend concludes with the implications for modern preaching and a sermon of his own

Setting Words on Fire Paul Scott Wilson, 2010-10-01 In the second half of the twentieth century a profound shift took place in how we think about preaching We moved away from a vertical focus on the preacher who hands down the authoritative teaching to more relational narrative and conversational models Yet common to both of these understandings says Paul Scott Wilson is the idea that preaching is primarily about teaching that it mainly conveys information about God Important as this emphasis on preaching as teaching has been Wilson believes that the time for a new approach has arrived That new approach which he names preaching as proclamation has begun to arise from a variety of Euro American and African American sources Its primary aim is not to convey information but to engender an encounter with God s grace in Christ More than guiding people to say Yes now I understand it hopes to lead them to proclaim I am redeemed we are saved More than telling the gospel story it renders the gospel s claim on human lives leading to conviction of sin repentance and transformation Pulling together the disparate strands of this new homiletical school Wilson constructs a comprehensive introduction to preaching focusing on its character as proclamation of the sovereign grace of God That Gospel Sermon on the Blessed Hope Dwight Lyman Moody, 2019-12-09 In That Gospel Sermon on the Blessed Hope Dwight Lyman Moody presents a profound exploration of Christian eschatology emphasizing the hope of eternal life through faith in Christ Moody employs a direct passionate literary style that reflects his deep conviction and charismatic oratory woven with scriptural references to engage his audience The sermon is not merely theological discourse but an impassioned call for spiritual awakening shaped by the revivalist context of the late 19th century a time when America was experiencing significant religious fervor and social change Moody s interpretation of the Blessed Hope serves as both a theological statement and a source of encouragement for believers reinforcing the promise of salvation and eternal life as central tenets of the Christian faith Dwight Lyman Moody an influential evangelist and founder of the Moody Church dedicated his life to spreading the Gospel His experiences working with the urban poor in Chicago and his deep engagement with scripture motivated him to articulate a message of hope during a turbulent era marked by uncertainty and moral crises Moody s direct engagement with audiences made his sermons accessible and transformative encouraging personal reflection and commitment to faith This book is highly recommended for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of Christian hope and eschatology as well as for those interested in the historical context of evangelical preaching Moody s powerful narrative not only conveys theological insights but also inspires readers to embrace the joy and assurance found in the promise of eternal life

University Sermons on Gospel Subjects John Wordsworth, 1878 Not Ashamed of the Gospel Fleming Rutledge, 2007-08-13 In this inspiring collection of fifty one sermons on Romans Fleming Rutledge presents afresh the radical gospel of Paul Countering the widespread suspicion that Paul somehow complicated Jesus simple teachings Rutledge shows how Paul actually makes explicit what is implicit in the Gospel narratives and reveals the full dimensions of God s project to reclaim the cosmos and everything in it for himself With her stirring words and joyful delving into Romans passages Rutledge leads readers to refocus their eyes and ears on Paul s valuable teachings She unpacks major ideas and motifs in the epistle including the cross and resurrection of Christ as the first event of the age to come faith as the human response ignited by the fire of the Word and the Holy Spirit and God s work of salvation as all encompassing and incomparable Her Not Ashamed of the Gospel will be a help to preachers and an encouragement to listeners Gospel Sermons for Children Irene Getz,1995-04-01 Gospel Sermons for Children introduces sixty new children s sermons featuring gospel messages and interactive activities that help children learn as they participate It is a valuable resource for anyone seeking to tell the Good News to young people Select English Works of John Wyclif: Sermons on the gospels for Sundays and festivals John Wycliffe,1869
