By a Lady. [Poems and Letters by Mrs. E. Hamilton.] LADY., 1839 Selfish Gifts Alison V. Scott, 2006 Selfish Gifts examines how early modern clients moved quickly and strategically to assimilate the language of competition and equality characteristic of an emerging market economy within their existing discourses of gift exchange in order to maximize the rewards they might induce from an increasingly diverse group of patrons Jacket Forced gifts: The burden of being a friend Bulte, Erwin, Wang, Ruixin, Zhang, Xiaobo, 2017-03-09 In many developing countries gift expenses account for a substantial share of total household expenditures As incomes rise gift expenses are escalating in several developing countries We develop a theoretical model to demonstrate how unequal income growth may trigger gift competition and drive up the financial burden associated with gift exchange We use unique census type panel data from rural China to test our model predictions and demonstrate that 1 the value of gifts responds to the average gift in the community 2 the escalation of gift giving may have adverse welfare implications especially for the poor and 3 escalating gift expenses crowd out expenditures on other consumption items The Unmanageable Consumer Yiannis Gabriel, Tim Lang, 2006-04-07 This book was radically challenging when it was first published and is only more so today as the concept of consumer collapses under the weight of its many meanings Madeleine Bunting Columnist The Guardian Western style consumerism appears unstoppable Yet it is has failed to deliver greater happiness and is now facing major environmental population and political challenges This book examines the key Western traditions of thinking about and being a consumer Each chapter posits a consumer model with examples from the international community Readers are invited to enter an exciting and radical analysis of contemporary consumerism which suggests that consumerism is fragile and consumers unpredictable Updated with new material this Second Edition looks at the impact of new technologies on consumerism and the consolidation of consumerism and consumer language in spheres like education and health The authors discuss the spread of consumerism to developing countries like India and the effect of demographic change and migration The fallout from 9 11 and United States military hegemony is examined as is the influence on consumerism of Islamic fundamentalism the anti globalization movement environmental concerns and depleting natural resources This book is of interest to advanced undergraduate postgraduate and MBA students taking courses on in 1967 this book gives some of the fruits of the author's study of Tikopia ways of thought as the result of three field expeditions. Most Polynesians became Christians more than a century ago but Tikopia had a substantial pagan population until quite recent years. This book of essays describes rites and beliefs of a people who still maintained their traditional institutions remote from civilization. Studies of totemism of magic and of beliefs in the fate of the soul in the afterworld not only throw new light on Polynesian attitudes but also contribute some novel ideas to the interpretation of standard theoretical problems in social anthropology. Studies of rumour, suicide and a new essay on spirit mediumship also provide links between social anthropology and psychology. A general review based on the author's visit in 1966 describes the modern position after the adoption of Christianity. In Divine Friendship Swami Kriyananda, 2008-04-14. This extraordinary book of letters written by Swami Kriyananda in response to questions and inquiries from his friends, students and critics over a thirty year period responds to practically any concern a spiritual seeker might have: how to meditate deeply, strengthening one's faith, developing divine attunement, accelerating spiritual progress, overcoming negative self-judgments, responding to illness, the right attitude toward money and profit, becoming a good leader, attracting a mate, sexuality, raising children, any many many other subjects. Friendship, Descent and Alliance in Africa Martine Guichard, Tilo Grätz, Youssouf Diallo, 2014-05-01. Friendship, descent and alliance are basic forms of relatedness that have received unequal attention in social anthropology. Offering new insights into the ways in which friendship is conceptualized and realized in various sub-Saharan African settings, the contributions to this volume depart from the recent tendency to study friendship in isolation from kinship. In drawing attention to the complexity of the interactions between these two kinds of social relationships, the book suggests that analyses of friendship in Western societies would also benefit from research that explores more systematically friendship in conjunction with kinship. Message of the Day Jeane Pothier, 2008-05-28. Energetic channeled messages of love, inspiration and reassurance shared with you from angels on the other side of the veil. First Annual Report of the Board of Directors of the Chicago Public Library Anonymous, 2025-08-28. We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage. Sidetracked Francesca Gino, 2013-02-26.
