From a Bend in the River Kalamu ya Salaam, 1998      The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans Susan Larson, 1999 The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans is Susan Larson's delightfully informative response to questions most frequently asked her as book editor of the Times Picayune Tourists and locals alike want to know what to read where authors lived which bookstores to browse and when literary festivals are scheduled Now all the answers can be found in this one convenient volume the only complete directory of New Orleans's write life available Whether you are passing through the Big Easy residing there or longing to visit these pages will heighten your experience of one of the most intoxicating places on the planet taking you into countless nooks and crannies along its storied streets Book jacket      Louisiana Creole Literature Catharine Savage Brosman, 2013-10-17 Louisiana Creole Literature is a broad ranging critical reading of belles lettres in both French and English connected to and generally produced by the distinctive Louisiana Creole peoples chiefly in the southeastern part of the state The book covers primarily the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the flourishing period during which the term Creole had broad and contested cultural reference in Louisiana The study consists in part of literary history and biography When available and appropriate each discussion arranged chronologically provides pertinent personal information on authors as well as publishing facts Readers will find also summaries and evaluation of key texts some virtually unknown others of difficult access Brosman illuminates the biographies and works of Kate Chopin Lafcadio Hearn George Washington Cable Grace King and Adolphe Duhaime among others In addition she challenges views that appear to be skewed regarding canon formation The book places emphasis on poetry and fiction reaching from early nineteenth century writing through the twentieth century to selected works by poets still writing in the early twenty first century A few plays are treated also especially by Victor Séjour Louisiana Creole Literature examines at length the writings of important Francophone figures and certain Anglophone novelists likewise receive extended treatment Since much of nineteenth century Louisiana literature was transnational the book considers Creole based works which appeared in Paris as well as those published locally

Development Drowned and Reborn Clyde Adrian Woods, 2017 Development Drowned and Reborn is a Blues geography of New Orleans one that compels readers to return to the history of the Black freedom struggle there to reckon with its unfinished business Reading contemporary policies of abandonment against the grain Clyde Woods explores how Hurricane Katrina brought long standing structures of domination into view In so doing Woods delineates the roots of neoliberalism in the region and a history of resistance Written in dialogue with social movements this book offers tools for comprehending the racist dynamics of U S culture and economy Following his landmark study Development Arrested Woods turns to organic intellectuals Blues musicians and poor and working people to instruct readers in this future oriented history of struggle Through this unique optic Woods delineates a history methodology and epistemology to grasp alternative visions of development Woods contributes to debates about the history and geography of neoliberalism The book suggests that the prevailing focus on neoliberalism at national and global scales has led to a neglect of the regional scale Specifically it observes that theories of neoliberalism have tended to overlook New Orleans as an epicenter where racial class gender and regional hierarchies have persisted for centuries Through this Blues geography Woods excavates the struggle for a new society

Black on Earth Kimberly N. Ruffin, 2010-12-01 American environmental literature has relied heavily on the perspectives of European Americans often ignoring other groups In Black on Earth Kimberly Ruffin expands the reach of ecocriticism by analyzing the ecological experiences conceptions and desires seen in African American writing Ruffin identifies a theory of ecological burden and beauty in which African American authors underscore the ecological burdens of living within human hierarchies in the social order just as they explore the ecological beauty of being a part of the natural order Blacks were ecological agents before the emergence of American nature writing argues Ruffin and their perspectives are critical to understanding the full scope of ecological thought Ruffin examines African American ecological insights from the antebellum era to the twenty first century considering WPA slave narratives neo slave poetry novels essays and documentary films by such artists as Octavia Butler Alice Walker Henry Dumas Percival Everett Spike Lee and Jayne Cortez Identifying themes of work slavery religion mythology music and citizenship Black on Earth highlights the ways in which African American writers are visionary ecological artists
