A History of Christianity in Asia, Africa, and Latin America, 1450-1990 Klaus Koschorke, Frieder Ludwig, Mariano Delgado, Roland Spliesgart, 2007-09-14 Taking the three continents in turn the documents trace chronologically the transfer of Christianity from the beginning of Western colonization through the end of the Cold War Traditional forms of Christianity in Asia and Africa are not covered The emphasis is on the voices of people working in the field both missionaries and Indigenous people rather than those at the imperial centers Africans and Native Americans Jack D. Forbes, 1993-03-01 Jack D Forbes s monumental Africans and Native Americans has become a canonical text in the study of relations between the two groups Forbes explores key issues relating to the evolution of racial terminology and European colonialists perceptions of color analyzing the development of color classification systems and the specific evolution of key terms such as black mulatto and mestizo terms that no longer carry their original meanings Forbes also presents strong evidence that Native American and African contacts began in Europe Africa and the Caribbean Reference Library of Black America Jessie Carney Smith, Joseph M. Palmisano, 2000 Presents information on all aspects of African American life including politics employment and income education religion literature performing arts science and medicine and sports The Muslim Diaspora (Volume 2, 1500-1799) Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2015-05-07 This second volume details the continued spread of Muslim culture and peoples during the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries a period that saw the height of the powerful Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires followed by their precipitous decline The contributions of Muslims to the development of Western civilization continue to be highlighted in this chronology most notably the impact of the Ottoman Empire on Western art and literature and its role in creating an environment in which the Protestant Reformation could take root This volume reveals the interconnectedness of the Muslim Jewish African and European diasporas during this period From Eve to Dawn: A History of Women in the World Volume II Marilyn French, 2008-04-01 Filled with fascinating detail this second volume of French s massive and valuable work is an example of scholarship and clear vision Publishers Weekly This volume of New York Times bestselling author Marilyn French s monumental history analyzes and evaluates the lives of women in societies around the world between feudal times and the French Revolution Drawing upon fifteen years of collaboration with a team of researchers and prominent historians the volume opens with fascinating chapters comparing medieval Europe and Japan disparate cultures which nevertheless shared traditions of male dominated aggression and competitiveness French then shows how in Europe this tradition led to colonialism and imperialism and the horrific subjugation of indigenous societies just as women were subjugated in the conquerors home countries As French makes clear in this impassioned women s history only with the French Revolution did the political force women exerted powerfully change the course of history French gives us grand theory at its best wading through copious amounts of scholarly data on the histories of civilizations and offering up in readable prose an important synthesis Library Journal Stanford Bulletin

,2003 A History of Infanticide in Britain, c. 1600 to the Present A. Kilday,2013-06-14 The killing of new born children is an intensely emotional and emotive subject The hidden nature of this crime has made it an area incredibly difficult subject area for historians to approach up until now This work provides the first detailed history of infanticide in mainland Britain from 1600 to the modern era Bibliography of the History of Medicine ,1984 Racisms Francisco Bethencourt,2014-01-19 A groundbreaking history of racism Racisms is the first comprehensive history of racism from the Crusades to the twentieth century Demonstrating that there is not one continuous tradition of racism Francisco Bethencourt shows that racism preceded any theories of race and must be viewed within the prism and context of social hierarchies and local conditions In this richly illustrated book Bethencourt argues that in its various aspects all racism has been triggered by political projects monopolizing specific economic and social resources Racisms focuses on the Western world but opens comparative views on ethnic discrimination and segregation in Asia and Africa Bethencourt looks at different forms of racism and explores instances of enslavement forced migration and ethnic cleansing while analyzing how practices of discrimination and segregation were defended This is a major interdisciplinary work that moves away from ideas of linear or innate racism and recasts our understanding of interethnic relations The Kingfisher History Encyclopedia Editors of Kingfisher,2004-09-09 What was it like to live in the city of Rome in 700 B C Where was the Silk Road China s trading route with the Western world Why did the Native American tribes in North America lose their land at the end of the 1800s Who fought the war on terror These questions and many more are answered in this authoritative up to the minute reference guide The Kingfisher History Encyclopedia is full of information about the people places and events that have shaped our history The book is organized both chronologically and then thematically within each time period in order to allow young readers quick and easy access to specific information while giving them a firm idea of where they are in relation to historical time and how the past relates to life in the modern world Lavish illustrations contemporary photographs and detailed maps accompany the clear fact filled text Book jacket Christianity in Eurafrica Steven Pass,2016-10-01 Christianity in Eurafrica is an impressive book meticulously researched and well written by a professional scholar The first chapter includes some valuable historiographical guidelines for writing and understanding the History of the Church In its first part the book traces the history of the Church in the Middle East and Europe explaining the roots of theological diversity to this day In the second part the author narrates how the Faith moved south took root in African soil and grew independently Many pictures and illustrations serve to further enliven the account Steven Paas taught Theology in Malawi for many years He writes from a deep knowledge of and love for the Lord s Church especially in Africa and Europe This textbook on the history of Christianity in two continents fits with the curricula of institutions of theological training in Africa and the West The content is especially aimed at students who prepare for the ministry and for Christian education The book is however also invaluable for all scholars of the History of Christianity Atlas of World History Patrick Karl O'Brien,Patrick O'Brien,2002 Synthesizing

exceptional cartography and impeccable scholarship this edition traces 12 000 years of history with 450 maps and over 200 000 words of text 200 illustrations The Global Atlantic Christoph Strobel,2015-02-11 The Global Atlantic provides a concise lively overview of the complex and diverse history of the greater Atlantic region from 1400 to 1900 During this period the lands around the Atlantic basin Europe Africa and the Americas became deeply interconnected in networks of trade cultural exchange and geopolitics that reshaped these regions and the world beyond In this accessible and engaging text Christoph Strobel integrates the Atlantic into world history showing that the Atlantic oceanic system was always interlinked with the rest of globe From the Mediterranean origins of slave worked sugar plantations to the Chinese demand for silver from American mines The Global Atlantic discusses key examples of these connections with clarity enabling students to understand how existing ideas and incentives shaped the emerging Global Atlantic and how these Atlantic systems in turn created the world we live in today

Chocolate Surrealism Njoroge M. Njoroge,2016-06-16 In Chocolate Surrealism Njoroge M Njoroge highlights connections among the production performance and reception of popular music at critical historical junctures in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries The author sifts different origins and styles to place socio musical movements into a larger historical framework Calypso reigned during the turbulent interwar period and the ensuing crises of capitalism The Cuban rumba son complex enlivened the postwar era of American empire Jazz exploded in the Bandung period and the rise of decolonization And lastly Nuyorican Salsa coincided with the period of the civil rights movement and the beginnings of black brown power Njoroge illuminates musics of the circum Caribbean as culturally and conceptually integrated within the larger history of the region He pays close attention to the fractures fragmentations and historical particularities that both unite and divide the region s sounds At the same time he engages with a larger discussion of the Atlantic world Njoroge examines the deep interrelations between music movement memory and history in the African diaspora He finds the music both a theoretical anchor and a mode of expression and representation of black identities and political cultures Music and performance offer ways for the author to re theorize the intersections of race nationalism and musical practice and geopolitical connections Further music allows Njoroge a reassessment of the development of the modern world system in the context of local popular responses to the global age The book analyzes different styles times and politics to render a brief history of Black Atlantic sound

A History of Latin America to 1825 ,2011-08-24 The updated and enhanced third edition of A History of Latin America to 1825 presents a comprehensive narrative survey of Latin American history from the region s first human presence until the majority of Iberian colonies in America emerged as sovereign states c 1825 This edition features new content on the history of women gender Africans in the Iberian colonies and pre Columbian peoples Includes more illustrations to aid learning over 50 figures and photographs several accompanied by short essays Concentrates on the colonial period and earlier expanding coverage of the period and incorporating more social and cultural history with the political narrative Part of The Blackwell History of the World Series The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world. It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time. The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change. Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative. The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production.

From Africa to Brazil Walter Hawthorne, 2010-09-13 From Africa to Brazil traces the flows of enslaved Africans from the broad region of Africa called Upper Guinea to Amazonia Brazil. These two regions though separated by an ocean were made one by a slave route. Walter Hawthorne considers why planters in Amazonia wanted African slaves why and how those sent to Amazonia were enslaved and what their Middle Passage experience was like. The book is also concerned with how Africans in diaspora shaped labor regimes determined the nature of their family lives and crafted religious beliefs that were similar to those they had known before enslavement. It presents the only book length examination of African slavery in Amazonia and identifies with precision the locations in Africa from where members of a large diaspora in the Americas hailed. From Africa to Brazil also proposes new directions for scholarship focused on how immigrant groups created new or recreated old cultures.

Atlantic Africa and the Spanish Caribbean, 1570-1640 David Wheat, 2016-03-09 This work resituates the Spanish Caribbean as an extension of the Luso African Atlantic world from the late sixteenth to the mid seventeenth century when the union of the Spanish and Portuguese crowns facilitated a surge in the transatlantic slave trade. After the catastrophic decline of Amerindian populations on the islands two major African provenance zones first Upper Guinea and then Angola contributed forced migrant populations with distinct experiences to the Caribbean. They played a dynamic role in the social formation of early Spanish colonial society in the fortified port cities of Cartagena de Indias Havana Santo Domingo and Panama City and their semirural hinterlands. David Wheat is the first scholar to establish this early phase of the Africanization of the Spanish Caribbean two centuries before the rise of large scale sugar plantations With African migrants and their descendants comprising demographic majorities in core areas of Spanish settlement Luso Africans Afro Iberians Latinized Africans and free people of color acted more as colonists or settlers than as plantation slaves These ethnically mixed and economically diversified societies constituted a region of overlapping Iberian and African worlds while they made possible Spain's colonization of the Caribbean

Down by the Riverside Charles Joyner, 2022-08-15 Charles Joyner takes readers on a journey back in time up the Waccamaw River through the Lowcountry of South Carolina past abandoned rice fields once made productive by the labor of enslaved Africans past rice mills and forest clearings into the antebellum world of All Saints Parish In this community and many others like it enslaved people created a new language a new religion indeed a new culture from African traditions and American circumstances Joyner recovers an entire lost society and way of life from the letters diaries and memoirs of the plantation whites and their guests from quantitative analysis of census and probate records and above all from the folklore and oral history of the enslaved Americans His classic reconstruction of daily life in All Saints Parish is an inspiring testimony to the ingenuity and solidarity of a people This anniversary edition of Joyner's landmark study includes a new introduction in which the author recounts his process of writing the book reflects on its critical and popular reception and surveys the past three decades of scholarship on the history of enslaved people in the United States
