From Beyond The Pale Art And Artists At The Edge Of Consensus:

From Ireland Coming Colum Hourihane, 2001 Lying at Europe's remote western edge Ireland long has been seen as having an artistic heritage that owes little to influences beyond its borders This publication the first to focus on Irish art from the eighth century AD to the end of the sixteenth century challenges the idea that the best known Irish monuments of that period the high crosses the Book of Kells the Tara Brooch the round towers reflect isolated insular traditions Seventeen essays examine the iconography history and structure of these familiar works as well as a number of previously unpublished pieces and demonstrate that they do have a place in the main currents of European art While this book reveals unexpected links between Ireland Late Antique Italy the Byzantine Empire and the Anglo Saxons its center is always the artistic culture of Ireland itself It includes new research on the Sheela na gigs often thought to be merely erotic sculptures on the larger cultural meanings of the Tuam Market Cross and its nineteenth century re erection and on late medieval Irish stone crosses and metalwork The emphasis on later monuments makes this one of the first volumes to deal with Irish art after the Norman invasion The contributors are Cormac Bourke Mildred Budny Tessa Garton Peter Harbison Jane Hawkes Colum Hourihane Catherine E Karkov Heather King Susanne McNab Ragnall Floinn Emmanuelle Pirotte Roger Stalley Kees Veelturf Dorothy Hoogland Verkerk Niamh Whitfield Maggie McEnchroe Williams and Susan Youngs From Beyond the Pale Irish Museum of Modern Art (Kilmainham, Dublin, Ireland), 1994 Postcolonising the Medieval Image Eva of research allowing readers to commune with these icons and feel the power they emanate Exploring comparable figures such as Baubo Medusa the Neolithic Frog Goddess and vulva depictions in cave art she reveals the female sacred display to be a universal archetype the most enduring image of creativity throughout history and illustrates how cultures from Africa and Ecuador to India and Australia possess similar images depicting goddesses parting their thighs to reveal sacred powers Explaining the role of the Sheela na gig in restoring the Divine Feminine the author shows the Sheela to be an icon that makes visible the cycles of birth death and renewal all humans experience and a necessary antidote to centuries of suppression of the primal power of women of nature and of the imagination The Shape of Ancient Thought Thomas McEvelley, 2012-02-07 Spanning thirty years of intensive research this book proves what many scholars could not explain that today's Western world must be considered the product of both Greek and Indian thought Western and Eastern philosophies Thomas McEvelley explores how trade imperialism and migration currents allowed cultural philosophies to intermingle freely throughout India Egypt Greece and the ancient Near East This groundbreaking reference will stir relentless debate among philosophers art historians and students Postcolonialism: Crit Concepts V2 Diana Brydon, 2023-01-06 First published in 2004 This is Volume II of Postcolonialism part of a series of critical concepts in literary and cultural studies This edition includes part four National Third World and Postcolonial Identities part five covering Colonial Discourse Analysis Goddesses in World Culture Patricia Monaghan, 2010-12-01 This collection of accessible essays relates the stories of individual goddesses from around the world exploring their roles in the cultures from which they came their histories and status today and the controversies surrounding them Goddesses in World Culture brings readers the fascinating stories of close to 100 of the world's goddesses ranging from the immediately recognizable to the obscure These figures many of whom derive from ancient cultures and civilizations serve as points of departure for examining questions that go well beyond the role of women in religion and spirituality to include social organization environmental awareness historical developments and psychological archetypes Each volume of this groundbreaking set is composed of 20-25 previously unpublished articles written by expert contributors from diverse disciplines Volume one covers Asia and Africa volume two covers the Eastern Mediterranean and Europe and volume three covers Australia and the Americas Goddesses from cultures often overlooked in texts on religion such as those of the Australian Aborigines Korea Nepal and the Caribbean are included here In addition the work offers new translations of ancient texts introduces little known folklore and suggests new approaches to contemporary religious practices When Time Began to Rant and Rage James Christen Steward, 1998 Places figurative Irish art within the context of the international emergence of modern art Abstracts College Art Association of America.
