From Christ To The World Introductory Readings In Christian Ethics:

From Christ to the World Wayne G. Boulton, Thomas D. Kennedy, Allen Verhey, 1994 Here is a single volume that effectively introduces students to the full breadth of the discipline of Christian ethics Essays deal with both concrete issues and theoretical foundations Relevant biblical readings and a series of case studies accentuate the text Introduction to Christian Ethics Ellen Ott Marshall, 2018-10-30 All Christians read the Bible differently pray differently value their traditions differently and give different weight to individual and corporate judgment These differences are the basis of conflict The question Christian ethics must answer then is What does the good life look like in the context of conflict In this new introductory text Ellen Ott Marshall uses the inevitable reality of difference to center and organize her exploration of the system of Christian morality What can we learn from Jesus creative use of conflict in situations that were especially attuned to questions of power What does the image of God look like when we are trying to recognize the divine image within those with whom we are in conflict How can we better explore and understand the complicated work of reconciliation and justice This innovative approach to Christian ethics will benefit a new generation of students who wish to engage the perennial questions of what constitutes a faithful Christian life and a just society The Matrix of Christian Ethics Patrick Nullens, Ronald T. Michener, 2013-12-06 Patrick Nullens and Ronald T Michener seek to revitalize Christian ethics through an integrative approach to classical ethics Their matrix of consequential principle virtue and value ethics provides an alternative to postmodern situation ethics and brings the framework of biblical wisdom to bear on contemporary ethical questions

Robertson McQuilkin, 1995 A highly readable book which states the need for a clear system of moral values and duties based on solid biblical scholarship and an understanding of today s culture Part One deals with what the Bible says about love law sin and ethics Part Two tells how to apply all these biblical principles to life

Iconoclastic Sex Henry Walter Spaulding III, 2024-03-13 Christian sexual ethics operates from a place of privilege when it does not consider those impacted by its moral prescriptions A large majority of publications on Christian sexual ethics consider choices and images abstracted from lived conditions of the people called to make these decisions As such it leaves out many for whom sex is neither welcome nor a choice As such these same texts present images of sexual subjects that marginalize those that do not fit As the book presents sexuality both Christian and otherwise prioritizes a language of purity that strangles the life of those imaged impure The present book remedies this emphasis through the language of iconoclasm that blasphemes these images and opens theological reflection beyond the boundary of image based approaches Utilizing a qualitative study of survivors of trafficking and those who grew up under evangelical purity teachings Spaulding narrates sexual ethics in light of their testimonies and the theological resources of iconoclasm to articulate a more just and loving sexuality The new emphasis on sexual ethics not only resists the prescriptions that create the conditions of sex trafficking but the creation of new communities capable of solidarity and mutuality with those caught in the web of trafficking

Stumme, 1998-08-01 Here ten Lutheran theologians explore Lutheran emphases themes and approaches to offer their account of Christian ethics as a way of life in today's world Writing in dialogue they raise foundational concerns of biblical and theological sources and norms of Christian freedom and responsibility of call and social witness of justice and formation in prayer Then in a lively Table Talk the participants discuss and debate the tradition's insights and oversights and show how it might illumine today's burning ethical issues such as homosexuality

Pastoral Care & Counselling Gordon Lynch, 2002-09-17 Pastoral Care and Counselling provides an accessible framework for understanding the role of the pastoral care worker and the ethical dimensions of practice In offering spiritual support and in helping others resolve their moral dilemmas pastoral carers need to explore their own vision of humanity and what for them constitutes the good life

Bonhoeffer's New Beginning

Andrew D. DeCort, 2018-09-15 Bonhoeffer's New Beginning investigates the ethics of making new beginnings after devastating moral rupture. The work argues that new beginnings must be made in order to sustain the fundamental convictions that it is good to exist and that life in the world with others should be loved without exclusion. Bonhoeffer's ethics of new beginning is set in conversation with the thought of four moral philosophers: Friedrich Nietzsche, Hannah Arendt, Jonathan Glover, and Jonathan Lear. DeCort argues that Bonhoeffer's ethics of new beginning opens and energizes a more promising world affirming moral vision with radical hope for new beginnings vis-à-vis the perceived absence of God in the face of devastation.

Can You Hear My Pain Now? Michael G. Maness, Kevaghn Mattis, 2022-05-05 Pastoral care and its theology get a gentle boost from some of the best in the business of caring for the soul. When a person hurts, they often look to God. Several pathfinders give new light from their specialties, each one speaking powerfully, uniquely, and artfully from decades of experience. Dr. Amos Yong's article on disability forwards the amazingly helpful term "temporarily able-bodied." Greek Orthodox Dr. Vasileios Thermos and Roman Catholic Dr. Robert Fastiggi enlighten next to the powerful testaments of Professor Godfrey Harold on South Africa and Dr. Samuel Yonas Deressa on Ethiopia. Each weathered author contributes universal insights into the grace of our great God and challenges pastors throughout the Christian world to kindly consider the heart of the afflicted. These finely hewn stones can be used by anyone in the ministry to sharpen their service. Mattis and Maness offer this third collection from Testamentum Imperium with a prayer that these will open new avenues of sensitivity to the hearts and souls of those in travail and aid those who are called by God to serve those in pain.

Rediscovering Faithfulness Kenneth W. M. Wozniak, 2024-07-09 What does faithfulness mean for modern Christians who find themselves immersed in a social and moral context two millennia removed from that of Jesus? As a notion endorsed by Christians universally, irrespective of church tradition, geographic location, economic and political milieu, or spiritual experience, faithfulness is essential to mature Christian living. Yet many in the modern church have lost or perhaps forgotten the true nature of faithfulness and thus have wandered from that which God envisages for believers. Rediscovering what faithfulness entails, however, is altogether possible. Theological ethicist Kenneth W. M. Wozniak takes the reader on a journey of encounter, looking to the earliest Christians and their understanding of fidelity to the way of Jesus as a model for believers today and as the means by which the essence of faithfulness, rooted not in adherence to a performance standard but rather in personal cultivation of the divine character, the Jesus way, not only can be discovered but also embraced and enjoyed by the one who aspires to align with the very being of God.

Performing a Christian Life Thomas D. Kennedy, 2019-11-13 We want to live good lives, but determining what a good life is isn't easy, especially if we want the lives we lead to be ours rather than somebody else's. Tom Kennedy helps us see why it is hard to find our way when it comes to living well and what we can do about that. Finding our way requires knowing who we are, understanding ourselves, and Christians, because of their experience with God, will understand themselves differently than others. In at least some ways, Kennedy explores that understanding and discovers that Christian encounters with God lead to beliefs about God human nature forgiveness values and loving well that have important implications for what we do and feel for how we should live In clear and familiar language and with probing questions he helps us think more carefully and deeply about our identities and what it should look like for us to live well Living Spiritual Praxis Eric J. Kyle,2013-10-24 Christian ministers working in congregations and with nonprofits seek to discern what it is that God has been doing and where it is that the Spirit might be leading them In Living Spiritual Praxis Eric Kyle looks to address the lack of resources on the work and dynamics of Christian spiritual formation that actually develop a specific process for spiritual formation programs Kyle strives to provide a guide for spiritual formation by using the praxis oriented fields of action research and practical theology He explores a process for understanding the nature and dynamics of a situation discerning specific formative interventions assessing various approaches and continually assessing and modifying these understandings and approaches Living Spiritual Praxis will be an invaluable resource for all Christians leaders and laity alike who are challenged by the spiritual formation of church members communities groups and individuals

Would You Lie to Save a Life Michael Glenn Maness,2007-09-12 Would You Lie to Save a Life Love Will Find a Way Home A Theology on the Ethics of Love In 1968 Commander Lloyd Bucher and the USS Pueblo were pirated on the high seas They were held captive for 11 months and Bucher was forced to sign a confession forced to lie to save the lives of his men How does Love impact that decision in a Christian theology Love makes the world go round Without Love little else has value this side of heaven In this dilemma between Love and Truth Love was chosen over Truth but not at the expense of all Truth Between the deontological and teleological elements time itself comes into play in the determination of the absolute rightness of the choice in perfect Love How is as capable as Jesus was and is today The course of Love is a sacred stewardship of time that is the highest exhibition of the Christian s own Imago Dei or image of God granted to us in creation When we are able to follow the Scarlet Thread of obedience perfectly it will lead straight through all of 1 the areas of complexity uniting 2 all of the demands of all of the absolutes and run dead center between 3 all of the ethical fine lines These three areas are detailed specifically

Linking Sexuality and Gender Tracy J. Trothen,2006-01-01 Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women Tracy J Trothen looks at the United Church as a uniquely Canadian institution and explores how it has approached gender and sexuality issues She argues that how the Church deals with these issues influences its ability to name violence against women In examining the Church s early approaches to gender and sexuality Tracy J Trothen discovered that the United Church had tended to see certain structures or roles as sacred and others as demonic For example while sex outside marriage was bad or improper sexual expression within marriage was largely deemed as proper or good no matter what manifestation it took This assumption allowed much violence within families and marriages to go unchallenged Trothen uncovers significant shifts in this approach through the examination of such issues as redemptive homes marriage pornography abortion the ordination of women and family Then analyzing three recent case studies she demonstrates the value of women s voices in challenging dominant world views Finally she suggests how the Church s approach to human sexuality and gender has facilitated or obstructed the move to address violence against women The findings in Linking Sexuality and Gender can be applied to faiths outside the United Church and will be important to anyone interested in church and society sexuality gender or the causal dynamics behind one Canadian institution s response to violence against women Tracy J Trothen is an assistant professor of systematic theology and ethics and director of field education at Queen s Theological College Queen s University Canada She was ordained in the United Church of Canada Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women The God Who Loves and Is Loved Christian D. Kettler,2019-11-12 Can there be a greater folly than writing a book about love But how can we avoid that most basic of all desires and commands Yet we are very poor lovers as our history demonstrates If God is love though can we find help in considering the love of Jesus Christ and the love of Jesus thought of in terms of what T F Torrance called the vicarious humanity of Christ This would mean that we realize our inability and the Son of God s ability to love on our behalf and in our place Such a love mirrors the love of the Son for the Father in the Spirit a love that reflects his eternal triune love Therefore could we have new perspectives on our relationships the love of ourselves of God and the neighbor How essential is love to being human and what kind of love What does it mean to love your enemies What is the relationship between justice and love And what are the fruits of love the evidence of genuine love Christian D Kettler explores these issues in the context of the living reality of the vicarious humanity of Christ

Christian Responses to Terrorism Gordon L. Heath,David Kirwa Tarus,2017-11-01 How should Christians respond to terrorism and terrorists in their midst Terrorism is a global problem and no society on earth faces it alone The mainly Christian society of Kenya has suffered more than most as it attempts to counter the threat of al Shabaab Some pastors have asked for permission to carry guns Many Christians support government military action while others recommend pacifist stances and strive for dialogue and reconciliation with the Muslim community In this book ten Kenyan Christian thinkers and practitioners share their experiences and insights A response section from seven others including a Kenyan Muslim scholar enrich the discussion International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education

Marian de Souza,Gloria Durka,Kathleen Engebretson,Robert Jackson,Andrew McGrady,2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world
