Curtis now forty five shares his story with fellow travelers on the Auto Train The sixth child of seven born into poor white trash today he was ecstatic The weekend was here at last bringing with it the cool crispness of fall Bobby Lee and his friends a crew of six local boys were off for an overnighter into the Woodland Forest destination the Old Mansion Though most of their young lives had been spent exploring the forest up to now they had failed to find and lay claim to the aged red brick relic This trip was going to be different Bobby felt it Their leader Timmy was thirteen and canny beyond his years he and his band were determined So off they went hiking a well used dusty trail slipping into the woods and out onto the Gravel Pit It made for a perfect stepping off point to any adventure Almost twelve hours later finally they found it Once a beautiful proud edifice it was now sad and abandoned most of it burned down its proud giant white columns reduced to mere rings lined up in front As night fell and the fire was lit their quiet was suddenly violated by the harsh clamor of several mini bikes and the drunken shouts of teenage riders The boys were under attack Witnesses later that night to what they all would realize was a terrible accident Timmy commanded his guys to remain quiet and hidden among the trees Much younger than the invaders with only one gun and a cross bow between them they settled in just out of fire light range It would be a long night
