From Embargo to Ostpolitik Angela E. Stent, 2003-10-30 Examines the development of Soviet West German relations from both the Russian and German sides Britain, Germany and the Cold War R. Gerald Hughes, 2007-06-11 This well researched book details the ambiguity in British policy towards Europe in the Cold War as it sought to pursue détente with the Soviet Union whilst upholding its commitments to its NATO allies From the early 1950s Britain pursued a dual policy of strengthening the West whilst seeking détente with the Soviet Union British statesmen realized that only through compromise with Moscow over the German question could the elusive East West be achieved Against this the West German hard line towards the East endorsed by the United States was seen by the British as perpetuating tension between the two blocs This cast British policy onto an insoluble dilemma as it was caught between its alliance obligations to the West German state and its search for compromise with the Soviet bloc Charting Britain's attempts to reconcile this contradiction this book argues that Britain successfully adapted to the new realities and made hitherto unknown contributions towards détente in the early 1960s whilst drawing towards Western Europe and applying for membership of the EEC in 1961 Drawing on unpublished US and UK archives Britain Germany and the Cold War casts new light on the Cold War the history of détente and the evolution of European integration This book will appeal to students of Cold War history British foreign policy German politics and international history Politics in Western Europe: Second Edition, Helsinki 1975 and the Transformation of Europe Oliver Bange, Gottfried Niedhart, 2008-07-01 It was in Europe that the Cold War reached a decisive turning point in the 1960s leading to the era of détente The Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe CSCE with its Final Act in Helsinki in August 1975 led to a rapprochement between East and West in the fields of security economy and culture This volume offers a pilot study in what the authors perceive as the key issues within this process an understanding over the German problem balancing the recognition of the post war territorial status quo against a formula for the eventuality of a peaceful change of frontiers and the Western strategy of transformation through a multiplication of contacts between the two blocs Both of these arguments emerged from the findings of an international research project on Détente and CSCE in Europe 1966 1975 funded by the Volkswagen Stiftung and headed by the two editors International Cooperation on Nonproliferation Export Controls Gary K. Bertsch, Richard T. Cupitt, Steven Elliott-Gower, 1994 Can export controls further nonproliferation goals in the new world order Making the Alliance Work Gregory Treverton, 1985-06-18 Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service, 1982 Khrushchev's Double Bind James G. Richter, 1994 How do world leaders manage the competing priorities of maintaining support at home and credibility in the international arena In Khrushchev's Double Bind James Richter explores this conflict by examining the case of Soviet leader Nikita Khrushchev Richter argues that in order to hold power and pursue his political agenda at home Khrushchev needed to maintain his standing as an effective world leader His successes especially in winning concessions from the United States contributed to his power base and ability to grant favors and effect change in the Soviet Union Likewise the more support he gained from Soviet colleagues the better he could influence international affairs and increase the U S S R s prestige Richter explores ways in which certain images of the international environment became entrenched in the U S S R s domestic institutions furnished the backdrop for international actions meant to gain domestic support and provided the standards by which the success or failure of competing strategies would be judged The first book to make use of recent disclosures in the Russian archives Khrushchev s Double Bind offers new perspectives on the interaction of international events and domestic bargaining in Soviet foreign policymaking during the 1950s and early 1960s Richter presents a very important reinterpretation of Khrushchev s 1958 Berlin ultimatum Khrushchev s purpose was to show Politburo conservatives that the correlation of forces had shifted sufficiently in the favor of socialism to allow international successes simultaneously with unilateral defense cuts Richter marshalls impressive evidence in support of this interpretation The work is systematic persuasive and larded with new information from archives memoirs and other new sources Jack Snyder Columbia University Politics in Western Europe Gerald Allen Dorfman, Peter Duignan, 1991 The close of the twentieth century has brought changes to Europe of such magnitude that some predict the return of the Age of Europe In this timely update of Politics in Western Europe editors Gerald A Dorfman and Peter J Duignan and numerous distinguished contributors examine the events leading to the tumultuous changes and the impact these changes will have on the peoples of Western Europe This new edition includes a fresh study of the history of European efforts to defend and unite twelve independent nations into one common market from 1946 to 1992 Another essay examines the partitioning and reunification of Germany and how German unification will affect the rest of Europe and the United States In addition the authors analyze how the fall of the Iron Curtain and the demise of communism may affect the countries of Western Europe This comprehensive work features new chapters on Ireland and Greece updated chapters on Great Britain France Belgium the Netherlands Spain Portugal Italy and Austria in addition to chapters on the Nordic countries and Switzerland Politics in Western Europe offers valuable insights for students journalists diplomats and the international business community A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences, 1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin Public Affairs Information Service, 1982 From Embargo to Ostpolitik.
