From Fire To Flood A History Of Theatre In Manitoba:

From Fire to Flood Kevin Longfield, 2001 Theatre as we know it started in Manitoba almost a century and a half ago. During that time it has produced some shining moments, some unforgettable characters and some great stories. How two visionaries Tom Hendry and John Hirsch convinced Manitoba to embrace a theatre centre that became a model for the rest of the world. How Prairie Theatre Exchange inspired Manitobans to create their own theatre. How Nellie McClung used theatre to help women get the vote and how a fire at the first theatre event in Winnipeg almost destroyed the whole town. From Fire to Flood explores how Manitoba theatre got to where it is today and why it didn't go somewhere else. It examines Manitoba theatre from its beginnings, placing theatre in its social and historical context. A key question is how our theatrical past can help us complete the final piece of the puzzle: a unified indigenous theatre that explains us to ourselves and to the rest of the world.

The Canadian Modernists Meet Dean Irvine, 2005-07-12 The Canadian Modernists Meet is a collection of new critical essays on major and rediscovered Canadian writers of the early to mid twentieth century. F. R. Scott's well-known poem The Canadian Authors Meet sets the theme for the volume: a revisiting of English Canada's formative movements in modernist poetry, fiction and drama. As did Scott's poem, Dean Irvine's collection raises questions about modernism and antimodernism, nationalism and antinationalism, gender and class, originality and influence that remain central to contemporary research on early to mid twentieth century English Canadian literature. Published in English.
