From Gladstone To Lloyd George:

From Gladstone to Lloyd George Alexander Mackintosh,1921 From Gladstone to Lloyd George Alexander Mackintosh,1921 From Gladstone to Lloyd George Alexander Mackintosh,2016-09-04 Excerpt from From Gladstone to Lloyd George Parliament in Peace and War The Englishman on whose words the world waited sat still and silent and aloof from what was occurring around him during the opening proceedings of the House scanning his notes or with eyes looking far off absorbed in thought He had no dramatic pose Seeing the national duty he was there to declare it with a full sense of responsibility No one had more plainly told what was meant by a European war No one could have more earnestly or sincerely laboured to preserve peace Yet now he saw that British interests and the obligation of honour in our friendship with France as well as in our treaty obligations to Belgium might require us to take up arms His speech determined the decision of Parliament The least pretentious Sir Edward Grey was the most persuasive of speakers In unadorned frank words he so framed his indictment that it went home to reason and conscience The feeling of the House was displayed unmistakably Cheers bold and defiant in some quarters and in others austere and solemn revealed its practical unanimity And the loudest cheers were for honour About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Age of Alignment Chris Cook,1975-06-18 Grattan's Home rule, Gladstone's, and Asquith's. (All-for-Ireland league pamph.). William O'Brien,1913 The Impact of Labour 1920-1924 Maurice Cowling,2005-02-17 This book is primarily an account of the initiatives of politicians and their reactions to one another Liberalism and War Andrew J. Williams,2024-12-27 In this book leading scholar Andrew J Williams examines contemporary liberal thinking on the ending of wars and puts it into its historical context Using a vast range of archival material he examines the main strategies used by liberal states to consolidate their gains in the aftermath of war and prevent conflict re occurring Considering historical wars from the nineteenth century to the withdrawal from Afghanistan in 2021 and the war in Ukraine since 2022 Williams explores the continuities and changes within western liberalism in response to war and the encouragement of peace These include in recent times the emergence of neoliberalism a growing revulsion against humanitarian intervention and the evolution of legal attempts to control illiberal regimes He shows how liberalism and the articulation of international norms and institutions sprang out of historical traditions linked to colonialism but also out of a desire to promote liberty and justice He examines the attitudes and practices that have distorted liberalism s essentially emancipatory nature into one that has encouraged hubris in foreign policy and an increasingly divisive set of economic political and social policies He suggests that a new liberal impulse to encourage the spread of democracy and international justice is possible one that returns to a more realistic approach to intervention in international conflicts The book will appeal to scholars and students of war conflict and political theory interested in the historical perceptions at the heart of many of the mistakes made by liberalism in the ending of wars It will also give hope to those who still believe that liberalism can be the organising feature of a just and equitable world order The Liberal Mind 1914-29 Michael Bentley,2007-07-12 This study is an exercise in the history of political perception and opinion It broke new ground in considering the decline of Liberalism through the eyes of Liberals themselves By concentrating on what Liberal politicians said to one another and to their audience public and private a picture is built up of the frame of mind in which those responsible for guiding Liberalism faced a worsening world after 1914 The coming of the First World War was a critical element in forming that frame of mind and the frame of mind was itself critical in deciding the fate of Liberalism in the post war years What emerges from this study is the paradox that the Liberal mind was the greatest single obstacle in the way of a Liberal revival Liberal Government and Politics, 1905-15 I. Packer,2006-04-27 This book is an innovative appraisal of Edwardian Liberalism and the 1905-15 Liberal governments Making extensive use of new archival research the volume identifies the major concerns of Liberals in the first two decades of the twentieth century and explores how policy making was related to conflicting definitions of Liberal ideology Blackwood's Magazine ,1908 Book Review Digest ,1927
