The Hope of Liberation in World Religions Miguel A. De La Torre, 2008 Liberation theology emphasizes the Christian mission to bring justice to the poor and oppressed As a part of Christian theology liberation theology has been most frequently associated with the Catholic Church in Latin America This groundbreaking work seeks to identify how the theological concepts of liberation theology might be manifested within other world faith traditions This is thus the first book that attempts to find a common ground for liberation theology across religions All of the contributors are scholars who share the religion or belief system they describe Throughout they endeavor to articulate liberationist concepts from the perspective of those who have been marginalized

Hope for the Oppressor Patrick Oden, 2019-07-26 The liberating work of God calls the oppressed out of oppression and the oppressor out of oppressing The challenge in seeking a thorough liberation of oppressors is to help them understand their need for freedom and how to seek this freedom in their own contexts Patrick Oden provides a holistic biblical historical and theological analysis that diagnoses the underlying motivations and inclinations that lead to oppression Part one addresses the context of oppression in which most participants in oppression do not actively seek to harm others but are caught up in systems that tend toward the diminishment of others Part two examines the biblical and early Christian response to oppression discovering a thread that avoids condemning participation in society generally while also cautioning the people of God about being co opted by society Part three discusses how oppressors can withdraw from oppression through a constructive analysis of four contemporary theologians Wolhart Pannenberg J rgen Moltmann Sarah Coakley and Jean Vanier each of whom contributes to a widening vision of liberated and liberating life in which the once oppressed and former oppressor can find peace together in community

Giving Account of Faith and Hope in Africa John Samuel Pobee, 2017-07-10 What is African theology What are its distinctive traits and characteristics modes of investigation and style of expression Can African theology reach wider and run deeper than simple propositional articulation What concerns and special circumstances have shaped its outlook What unique burdens or hurdles imposed by the past must African theology surmount What challenges and opportunities lie before it What are African theology s prospects As a field of Christian engagement is it condemned to be only an appendage to theology imported from the West and the North Or does it have a distinctive contribution to make and gifts to share not just within the continent of Africa but also with the Christian world at large These questions exercise the mind and soul of the African church A worthy capstone to a lifetime of service as a theologian educator and ecumenical leader this volume offers John Samuel Pobee s considered and mature reflections on issues he raised nearly forty years ago when he published Toward an African Theology The Motif of Hope in African American Preaching during Slavery and the Post-Civil War Era Wayne E. Croft Sr.,2017-10-16 The Motif of Hope in African American Preaching during Slavery and the Post Civil War Era There s a Bright Side Somewhere explores the use of the motif of hope within African American preaching during slavery 1803 1865 and the post Civil War era 1865 1896 It discusses the presentation of the motif of hope in African American preaching from an historical perspective and how this motif changed while in some instances remained the same with the changing of its historical context Furthermore this discussion illuminates a reality that hope has been a theme of importance throughout the history of African American preaching The Future of Creation Jürgen Moltmann,2007-02-01 In these essays written during the fertile years between Theology of Hope and The Church in the Power of the Spirit world renowned theologian Jürgen Moltmann demonstrates the remarkable depth and rhetorical power so characteristic of his major works Here collected in one volume are brief vital articulations of Moltmann s thought on such topics as eschatology transcendence hope creation the theology of the cross the Trinity development the practice of liberation justification and biomedical progress Performance, Identity, and the Neo-Political Subject Fintan Walsh,Matthew Causey,2013-04-17 This book stages a timely discussion about the centrality of identity politics to theatre and performance studies It acknowledges the important close relationship between the discourses and practices historically while maintaining that theatre and performance can enlighten ways of being with others that are not limited by conventional identitarian languages The essays engage contemporary theatre and performance practices that pose challenging questions about identity as well as subjectivity relationality and the politics of aesthetics responding to neo liberal constructions and exploitations of identity by seeking to discern describe or imagine a new political subject Chapters by leading international scholars look to visual arts practice digital culture music public events experimental theatre and performance to investigate questions about representation metaphysics and politics The collections seeks to foreground shared universalist connections that unite rather than divide visiting metaphysical questions of being and becoming and the possibilities of producing alternate realities and relationalities The book asks what is at stake in thinking about a subject a time a place and a performing arts practice that would come after identity and explores how theatre and performance pose and interrogate these questions Eschatology and Hope Anthony Kelly ,2006 Love that Produces Hope Kevin F. Burke,Robert Anthony Lassalle-Klein,2006 Father Ignacio Ellacuria SJ president of the University of Central America leading Latin American philosopher and liberation theologian was assassinated with five Jesuit companions and two women on November 16 1989 Love That Produces Hope bring together leading authorities on key aspects of Ellacuria's thought His biography and writings embody late twentieth century transformations and tensions that reshaped the life of the Catholic Church among the crucified peoples of Central America Towards a Society that Serves Its People John J. Hassett, Hugh Lacey, 1991 This collection presents a representative sample of the writings of three of the six Jesuits who were slain in El Salvador on November 16 1989 Although little known in the United States these men were significant scholars who possessed an original conception of the university They affirmed in difficult circumstances the pursuit and teaching of truth as a collaborative collegial process that transcends international boundaries Hope in the Holler Anna Elaine Brown Crawford, 2002-01-01 For more than three hundred years black women have embodied a theology of hope which has enabled them to overcome a history of abuse and violence While a theology of hope has been widely discussed in twentieth century theology it was born in slavery long before Jurgen Moltmann introduced it to America in 1967 Even womanist notions of hope have not explored the theological character of hope in abused black women's narratives A Elaine Brown Crawford argues that hope is the theological construct that moves black women beyond endurance and survival to transformation of their personal and communal realities This book identifies and analyzes the theological vision of hope voiced within the narratives of enslaved emancipated and contemporary black women and brings that vision into discussion with contemporary womanist theologies Hope, Form, and Future in the Work of James Joyce David P. Rando, 2021-11-18 Hope and future are not the terms with which James Joyce has usually been read but this book paints a picture of Joyce's fiction in which hope and future assume the primary colours Rando explores how Joyce's texts as early as Dubliners and A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man delineate a complex hope that is oriented toward the future with restlessness dissatisfaction and invention He examines how Joyce envisions alternatives to the prevailing conventions of hope throughout his works and in Ulysses and Finnegans Wake develops formal techniques of spatializing hope to contemplate it from all sides Casting fresh light on the ways in which hope animates key aspects of Joyce's approach to literary content and form Rando moves beyond the limitations of negative critique and literary historicism to present a Joyce who thinks agilely about the future politics and possibility A CALL TO ACTION: Practically Reversing the Trends of Mass Incarceration Dr. Herron Keyon Gaston, 2019-02-28 A Call to Action By Dr Herron Keyon Gaston A Call to Action Practically Reversing the Trends of Mass Incarceration explores and establishes a blueprint for United Methodist Churches based on the current Mission Plan for Restorative Justice Ministries MPRJM This Mission Plan could be used internally or externally within the United Methodist Church and beyond to begin to deal with the issues associated with the large numbers of persons leaving the prison system and reentering communities where the connectional system of the United Methodist Churches is established and where other church denominations are in general to assist retuning prisoners with reentry and restorative justice programs and ministries A Call to Action is for the United Methodist Church to use its historical work in this area along with its unique reformatory connectional system The United Methodist Church is poised to lead in this area because of its creed structure and connectional emphasis on mission work outreach and methodical steadfastness to deliver and foster justice and the restorative process among former prisoners The Summerfield United Methodist Church Prison Reentry Model in Bridgeport Connecticut was identified as one of the unique prison reentry and restorative justice type programs to further explore this initiative Using the Summerfield model as a starting point for this project Gaston invited parishioners to participate in focus group sessions in May 2017 A group of twenty five parishioners of varying socioeconomic backgrounds volunteered to participate The main discussion centered on the current prison fellowship ministry and whether members believed that they were making a difference in their own community This book has implications for the ministerial practice for dealing with those who have transgressed and how the United Methodist Church must use its spiritual and connectional resources to reform redeem and restore formerly incarcerated individuals back to God and to humanity

Hope for the Earth Ernst M. Conradie, 2005-05-18 Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology ecological theology cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life life amidst death and destruction life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated Part F
