Encyclopedia of American Popular Fiction Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2015-04-22 Provides information on American authors and their works who have been ignored by most literary guides Memoirs of two young married women. A start in life. Vendetta. Study of a woman. The message Honoré de Balzac, 1900 Memoirs of Two Young Married Women Honoré de Balzac, 1894 Mothers and Daughters Ann F. Caron, 2011-04-01 In this positive and illuminating book Ann Caron explores the spirit durability and complexity of the mother daughter bond during a time of mutual searching Daughters hitting their stride after college are setting new standards for themselves and questioning their goals and expectations Mothers themselves going through major life changes are also looking for new ways to express themselves Drawing from her many interviews with women from both groups Caron discusses their joys ambitions frustrations and hopes regarding sex marriage spirituality and careers What clearly emerges is that despite their different generational influences their dreams of finding themselves through connections to others and especially to each other are the same American Book Publishing Record ,2007 Letter to My Mother: Words of love and perspectives on growing up from sons and daughters Felix Cheong, 2021-05-15 Many songs and stories have been written about how important mothers are to their children But what story would you tell if you put pen to paper Perhaps things you had learned from her that made you who you are today Perhaps express your gratitude for the sacrifices she had made for you Or perhaps matters left unresolved that have since become a thorn in your relationship Insightful and heart wrenching packed with poignant anecdotes These letters testify to the nurturing love that mothers have for their children In this collection of mini essays edited by award winning author Felix Cheong sons and daughters write letters to their mother about their relationships and articulate what has often not been expressed The Nine Phases of Marriage Susan Shapiro Barash, 2012-09-18 From the author of Toxic Friends a groundbreaking look at how to understand your marriage and create a more satisfying relationship Every marriage goes through nine phases It is only by understanding the course our marriages run that we can truly begin to craft the perfect relationship In The Nine Phases of Marriage Susan Shapiro Barash breaks down and analyzes these phases which are Phase One Passion and Longing Phase Two Conforming The Perfect Wife Phase Three Real Life Child Centricity Phase Four Tension One Bed Two Dreams Phase Five Distance Two Beds Two Rooms Phase Six Fracturing Midlife Divorce Phase Seven Second Chances Remarriage and Renegotiating Phase Eight Balance Concessions Phase Nine Successful Coupling With this essential knowledge spouses can successfully navigate the natural pitfalls and perils of their marriages and embark on a true partnership The Survey ,1926 Mothers in Public and Political Life Simone Bohn, 2017-08-01 Even though in most nations women are at least almost half of the population in very few countries do they occupy a similar space in the formal institutions of political power They are said to lack a key element for a successful career in public life time From this perspective no one is worse off than women who are mothers From another perspective however motherhood is thought to help politicize women as this life changing experience makes them aware of the limitations of some specific public policies such as child care parental leave gendered labor practices etc as well as more conscious of the centrality of more encompassing public policies such as education health care and social assistance This book explores the challenges obstacles opportunities and experiences of mothers who take part in political and or public life New Books on Women and Feminism ,1999

Letters Between Mothers and Daughters Barbara Caine,2018-02-02 There are now many studies of family letters in Europe but most of them focus on marital letters and letters between parents especially mothers and their sons Little attention has been paid to the letters to and from daughters This volume seeks to begin filling that gap by exploring the continuities and changes evident in the letters written between mothers and daughters over several centuries Some of these changes reflect the history of letters and the ways that they were written and delivered especially the move from the use of scribes and couriers in the medieval and early modern period which made both the writing and reading of letters a public affair to the use of pens and the situation in which letters were able to be written in private and read only by the person to whom they were addressed But the letters also reveal the changing nature of the mother and daughter relationship as the formal and more distant ties evident in the early period in which dynastic and other matters were often more important to a mother than her daughter s personal happiness were replaced by closer and more intimate ties and a concern with particular personalities and individual needs This book was originally published as a special issue of Women s History Review
