Pictorial Narrative in the Nazi Period Deborah Schultz, Edward Timms, 2013-10-31 This book investigates creative responses to the Nazi period in the work of three artists Felix Nussbaum Charlotte Salomon and Arnold Dagbani focusing on their use of pictorial narrative It analyses their contrasting aesthetic strategies and their innovative forms of artistic production In contrast with the autonomous modernist art object their works were explicitly linked with the historical conditions under which they were produced the pressures of persecution and exile Conditions in the slave labour camps and ghettos in the Ukraine which shaped the paintings and drawings of Dagbani are contrasted with the experiences of exile in Belgium and France which inspired Nussbaum and Salomon In defiance of conventional artistic practice they produced word image combinations that can be read as narrative sequences incorporating specific references to political events While there has been a wealth of literary philosophical and historical studies relating to the Holocaust aesthetic debate has developed less extensively This is the first comparative study of three artists who are only belatedly achieving recognition and the recent reception of their work is evaluated By identifying the aesthetic principles and narrative strategies underlying their work the book reassesses their achievement in creating new forms of modernism with an unmistakable political momentum This book was published as a special issue of Word Image

The Work of Forgetting Stephane Symons, 2018-12-14 For over fifty years the concept of memory has played a crucial role in a large number of academic and societal debates The Work of

Forgetting Or How Can We Make the Future Possible draws attention to the limits of the academic field of memory studies It argues that the faculty of memory offers an inadequate response to the challenges of the present The book sets up a dialogue between the philosophies of forgetting that underlie the writings of Friedrich Nietzsche Walter Benjamin and Gilles Deleuze and the philosophies of memory that inform the work of Sigmund Freud Martin Heidegger and Hannah Arendt It builds on the idea that history is inseparable from a type of transience that cannot be counter acted by the preserving work of memory and develops a new understanding of the phenomenon of forgetting in which the passage of time is asserted in thought and thus made productive

How We Know What Isn't So Thomas Gilovich,2008-06-30 Thomas Gilovich offers a wise and readable guide to the fallacy of the obvious in everyday life When can we trust what we believe that teams and players have winning streaks that flattery works or that the more people who agree the more likely they are to be right and when are such beliefs suspect Thomas Gilovich offers a guide to the fallacy of the obvious in everyday life Illustrating his points with examples and supporting them with the latest research findings he documents the cognitive social and motivational processes that distort our thoughts beliefs judgments and decisions In a rapidly changing world the biases and stereotypes that help us process an overload of complex information inevitably distort what we would like to believe is reality Awareness of our propensity to make these systematic errors Gilovich argues is the first step to more effective analysis and action
