From Historicity To Fictionality The Chinese Poetics Of Narrative:

From Historicity to Fictionality Hsiao-peng Lu, 1994 A comprehensive comparative and cross cultural study of the poetics of the entire Chinese narrative tradition Stories Old and New, 2011-10-15 Stories Old and New is the first complete translation of Feng Menglong's Gujin xiaoshuo also known as Yushi mingyan Illustrious Words to Instruct the World a collection of 40 short stories first published in 1620 in China This is considered the best of Feng's three such collections and was a pivotal work in the development of vernacular fiction The stories are valuable as examples of early fiction and for their detailed depiction of daily life among a broad range of social classes The stories are populated by scholars and courtesans spirits and ghosts Buddhist monks and nuns pirates and emperors and officials both virtuous and corrupt The streets and abodes of late Ming China come alive in Shuhui Yang and Yunqin Yang's smooth and colorful translation of these entertaining tales Stories Old and New has long been popular in China and has been published there in numerous editions Although some of the stories have appeared in English translations in journals and anthologies they have not previously been presented sequentially in thematic pairs as arranged by Feng Menglong This unabridged translation illustrated with a selection of woodcuts from the original Ming dynasty edition and including Feng's interlinear notes and marginal comments as well as all of the verse woven throughout the text allows the modern reader to experience the text as did its first audience nearly four centuries ago For other titles in the collection go to <http://www.washington.edu/uwpress/books/ming.html> China's Cosmopolitan Empire Mark Edward Lewis, 2009-10-30 The Tang dynasty is often called China's golden age Mark Lewis captures a dynamic era in which the empire reached its greatest geographical extent under Chinese rule painting and ceramic arts flourished women played a major role both as rulers and in the economy and China produced its finest lyric poets in Wang Wei Li Bo and Du Fu Reading East Asian Writing Michel Hockx, Ivo Smits, 2014-02-05 This book presents contributions by thirteen scholars of Chinese and Japanese literature whose work is characterised by a strong interest in literary theory They focus in particular on the various new theories that have emerged during the past two decades uprooting traditional forms of understanding literary texts their function their readership and their interpretation Often confined to discussion of a specific country or area these theories have been criticised for their Western bias This collection breaks through these barriers providing an opportunity for scholars of two closely related yet often independently studied cultures to present and compare their views on specific theories of literature to discuss the advantages and shortcomings of those theories and to consider specific difficulties related to the East West dimension Chinese Ecocinema Sheldon H. Lu, Jiayan Mi, 2009-12-01 This anthology is a book length study of China's ecosystem through the lens of cinema Proposing ecocinema as a new critical framework the volume collectively investigates a wide range of urgent topics in today's world Before Fiction Nicholas D. Paige, 2011-08-16 Fiction has become nearly synonymous with literature itself as if Homer and Dante and Pynchon were all engaged in the same basic activity But one difficulty with this view is simply that a literature trafficking in openly invented characters is a quite recent development Novelists before the nineteenth century ceaselessly asserted that their novels were true stories and before that poets routinely took their basic plots and heroes from the past We have grown accustomed to thinking of the history of literature and the novel as a progression from the ideal to the real Yet paradoxically the modern triumph of realism is also the triumph of a literature that has shed all pretense to literalness Before Fiction The Ancien R gime of the Novel offers a new understanding of the early history of the genre in England and France one in which writers were not slowly discovering a type of fictionality we now take for granted but rather following a distinct set of practices and rationales Nicholas D Paige reinterprets Lafayette s La Princesse de Cl ves Rousseau s Julie ou la Nouvelle H lo se Diderot s La Religieuse and other French texts of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries in light of the period s preoccupation with literal truth Paige argues that novels like these occupied a place before fiction a pseudofactual realm that in no way leads to modern realism The book provides an alternate way of looking at a familiar history and in its very idiom and methodology charts a new course for how we should study the novel and think about the evolution of cultural forms

Metacinema in Contemporary Chinese Film

G. Andrew Stuckey,2018-08-17 Depictions within a movie of either filmmaking or film watching are hardly novel but the dramatic expansion of the reach of the metacinematic into contemporary Chinese cinemas is nothing short of remarkable To G Andrew Stuckey the prevalence of metacinematic features forms the basis of a discourse on film arising from the films themselves Such a discourse in turn outlines the boundaries of the possible for film in China as aesthetic or sociopolitical practice Metacinema also draws our attention to the presence of the audience people actively responding to a film In elucidating the affective responses elicited by the metacinematic mode in the viewers Stuckey argues that metacinema reflects ways of being in the world that audiences may take up for themselves The films studied in this book are drawn across the full spectrum of Chinese films made in mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan during the 1990s and 2000s from award winning conceptual art films to popular crowd pleasers blockbusters to low budget productions and documentary style social realist expos projects to studio assembly line investments The recurrence of the metacinematic across this broad range of works is indicative of its relevance to Chinese films today and the analysis of these diverse examples allows us to gauge the cultural social and aesthetic implications of Chinese cinemas as a whole Stuckey surveys a broad swath of contemporary Chinese cinema from popular blockbusters to elite art films around the theme of metacinema yielding new insights into both previously neglected films and those already acknowledged as contemporary classics The result is a fascinating dive into the growing and diversifying cinema culture of China today Jason McGrath University of Minnesota Stuckey's brilliant work Metacinema in Contemporary Chinese Film offers insightful close analyses of films by key directors from the PRC Jiang Wen Lou Ye Jia Zhangke and Li Yu Hong Kong Peter Chan and Taiwan Tsai Ming-liang This clearly written book is essential reading for scholars and students of Chinese cinemas Stuckey's study of genre and metacinema makes it a must read for anyone interested in cinema Michelle Bloom University of California Riverside

Public Secrets, Public Spaces Stephanie Donald, 2000 Public Secrets Public Spaces explores the possibility of symbolic public space in the context of Chinese cinema Focusing especially on women children and the dispossessed Stephanie H Donald looks at the ways public space is constructed and occupied and how it interacts with Opublic secrets O the unstated common sense knowledges of everyday life extraordinary to those who are not initiated into the routines of a particular cultural place and space In traditional societies public secrets are organized through observable ritual in modern societies they are embedded in the cultural discourse of the routine and the everyday As we see in this perceptive book film offers a rich medium for unearthing these secrets

The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang John Christopher Hamm, 2019-08-27 Xiang Kairan who wrote under the pen name the Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang is remembered as the father of modern Chinese martial arts fiction one of the most distinctive forms of twentieth century Chinese culture and the inspiration for China's globally popular martial arts cinema In this book John Christopher Hamm shows how Xiang Kairan's work and career offer a new lens on the transformations of fiction and popular culture in early twentieth century China The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang situates Xiang Kairan's career in the larger contexts of Republican era China's publishing industry literary debates and political and social history At a time when writers associated with the New Culture movement promoted an aggressively modernizing vision of literature Xiang Kairan consciously cultivated his debt to homegrown narrative traditions Through careful readings of Xiang Kairan's work Hamm demonstrates that his writings far from being the formally fossilized and ideologically regressive relics their critics denounced represent a creative engagement with contemporary social and political currents and the demands and possibilities of an emerging cultural marketplace Hamm takes martial arts fiction beyond the confines of genre studies to situate it within a broader reexamination of Chinese literary modernity The first monograph on Xiang Kairan's fiction in any language The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang rewrites the history of early twentieth century Chinese literature from the standpoints of genre fiction and commercial publishing

Yvon Wang, 2021-03-15 Reinventing Licentiousness navigates an overlooked history of representation during the transition from the Qing Empire to the Chinese Republic a time when older hierarchical notions of licentiousness were overlaid by a new pornographic regime Y Yvon Wang draws on previously untapped archives ranging from police archives and surveys to ephemeral texts and pictures to argue that pornography in China represents a unique configuration of power and desire that both reflects and shapes historical processes On the one hand since the late imperial period pornography has democratized pleasure in China and opened up new possibilities of imagining desire On the other ongoing controversies over its definition and control show how the regulatory ideas of premodern cultural politics and the popular products of early modern cultural markets have contoured the globalized world Reinventing Licentiousness emphasizes the material factors particularly at the grassroots level of consumption and trade that governed proper sexual desire and led to ideological shifts around the definition of pornography By linking the past to the present and beyond Wang s social and intellectual history showcases circulated pornographic material as a motor for cultural change The result is an astonishing foray into what historicizing pornography can mean for our understandings of desire legitimacy capitalism and culture
