Flesh and Spirit William Barclay, 1976      Exegetical Essays, 3rd Edition Don Garlington, 2003-10-13 Exegetical Essays is a collection of thirteen biblical studies The purpose of each is to fill a gap in New Testament research or to offer alternate understandings of familiar passages The second edition of these Essays incorporates corrections and updated documentation and presents three new studies The order of the articles follows as closely as possible the canonical biblical text The book commences with a consideration of the biblical theological method followed by an Old Testament essay and then proceeds through the Gospels Paul and Revelation and concludes with review articles of two recent notable books      The Mystery of the Cross and the Narrow Gate Revealed: What the Bible Really Says Michael J Roberts, 2017-09-06 The Mystery of the Cross and the Narrow Gate Revealed is a search to reconcile apparent contradictions in the Bible especially those passages pertaining to salvation Beginning with the premise of the infallibility of the Bible it argues that both the Reformers understanding of the atonement and their doctrine of salvation are invalid since they are contradicted by numerous scriptures In the end the result of this search is a new understanding of both the atonement and salvation and the development of doctrines on these subjects which will enable us to read canonically without seeing contradictions Through faith and reason a sound hermeneutic and careful exegesis The Mystery of the Cross and the Narrow Gate uncovers the internal coherence of scripture with the principal objective of restoring truth and bringing reform to a church that fails to grasp that the Holy Spirit is given to humankind to enable us to become holy and be made fit for the kingdom in heaven refer www.themysteryofthecross.com      Paul's Eschatological Anthropology Sarah Harding, 2016-02-01 In this study Sarah Harding examines Paul's anthropology from the perspective of eschatology concluding that the apostle's view of humans is a function of his belief that the cosmos evolves through distinct aeons in progress toward its telos Although scholars have frequently assumed that Paul's anthropological utterances are arbitrary inconsistent or dependent upon parallel views extant in the first century world Harding shows that these assumptions only arise when Paul's anthropology is considered apart from its eschatological context That context includes the temporal distinction of the old aeon the new aeon and the significant overlap of aeons in which those in Christ dwell as well as a spatial dimension that comprises the cosmos and the powers that dominate it especially sin and the Holy Spirit These eschatological dimensions determine the value Paul attaches to any particular anthropological aspect Harding examines the cosmological power dominant in each aeon and the structures through which in Paul's view these influence human beings examining texts in which Paul discusses nous kardia and soma in each aeon      Shepherd's Notes: Galatians Dana Gould, 1997-08-01 You grew up using the well known black and yellow striped Cliff's Notes to help you grasp everything from great literary works to algebra Unfortunately what Cliff forgot was the greatest literary work in history the complete Holy Bible Enjoy the ease of understanding the Bible like never before book by book Shepherd's notes helps readers learn about the inspired authors of the Bible books and when and where they were first
