can be life affirming for all persons She claims that the Christian idea of sin that tragic flaw at the core of human experience provides one of the best tools for understanding the evils of sexism patriarchy and traditional sin talk itself She likewise provides a new rhetoric of sin talk one that accounts for the diverse experiences of the human family not simply those of powerful men

Irish and African American Cinema Maria Pramaggiore, 2012-02-01 Focusing on two film traditions not normally studied together Maria Pramaggiore examines more than two dozen Irish and African American films including Do the Right Thing In the Name of the Father The Crying Game Boyz n the Hood The Snapper and He Got Game arguing that these films foreground practices of character identification that complicate essentialist notions of national and racial identity The porous sense of self associated with moments of identification in these films offers a cinematic counterpart to W E B Du Bois's potent concept of double consciousness an epistemological standpoint derived from experiences of colonization racialization and cultural disruption Characters in these films Pramaggiore suggests reject the national paradigm of insider and outsider in favor of diasporic both and notions of self thereby endorsing the postmodern concept of identity as performance

Dance & Community Congress on Research in Dance. Conference, 2005 Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering, 2005 Feminism, Postfeminism and Legal Theory Dorota Gozdecka, Anne Macduff, 2018-12-19 There is much debate about postfeminism what it is and its role in feminist politics Whilst postfeminism has become increasingly influential in the study of literature popular culture and philosophy it has so far received comparatively little attention in law This book aims to remedy this situation The book brings together feminist legal scholars working in different contexts to examine the idea of postfeminism and assess its contemporary relevance It explores a range of questions including the following Does postfeminism describe an age that follows modernism an age where identity politics has realised its goals and feminism is no longer needed Or does postfeminism describe the feminism of a postmodernist age where identity can mean anything at all Or differently again does the term capture a new feminism that discredits feminism and attempts to reshape its political consciousness And what might the answers to these questions mean for law and legal theory and a feminist politics of law reform

Simone de Beauvoir -- A Humanist Thinker, 2015-07-14 This collection of humanist readings of Simone de Beauvoir's work is a novel contribution to contemporary research on Beauvoir and a defense of the importance of the humanities It demonstrates the significance and value of humanistic research through the work of Beauvoir and argues that the reception and influence of her works demonstrate the transformative potential of humanistic research Organized around three topics each chapter ascertains Beauvoir's relation to the humanities and the humanist tradition The first group focuses on Beauvoir's interdisciplinary methodology and critical thinking the second on her ethics of freedom and the construction of values The last section explores how Beauvoir uses literature as a laboratory for developing her ideas on human interaction The chapters can be studied as independent essays or read together as a whole Simone de Beauvoir A Humanist Thinker reveals new and previously unexplored dimensions of Beauvoir's work by exposing her as a significant and inspiring humanist thinker This volume attests that Beauvoir's works continue to offer conceptual tools and insights enabling readers to critically analyze their own situation In today's world where religious fanaticism and totalitarian ideologies are gaining ground humanist values and humanistic research are more important than ever Homosexuality in Contemporary Indian Literature : Issues and Challenges Dipak Giri,2019-01-01 Since there is rarity and non availability of book compiling the works of contemporary Indian writers on the theme of homosexuality the book Homosexuality in Contemporary Indian Literature Issues and Challenges is prepared in such a way as to meet this paucity Authors are hopeful that the book with its diversity of topics will instill knowledge into the critical minds and explore many unexplored areas of gender and sexuality Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 The Surrealists Jemima Montagu,2002 A collective adventure begun by a group of intellectuals in the early 1920s Surrealism became one of the most influential art movements of the 20th century This volume explores the lives work of the artists writers at the heart of the movement The Flight of the Whisper King Bradley P. Beaulieu,2020-05-11 Mala is a street thief with a knack for manipulating shadow When the city's garrison is left empty after a terrible battle the leader of Mala's gang decides to steal from it Larger gangs might steer clear fearing retribution from the Silver Spears but Mala's crew is young and foolhardy and the potential score is simply too big to pass up After using her talents to steal into the garrison Mala stumbles across Shohreh an injured woman wearing a blood red battle dress Shohreh is a Kestrel one of the elite swordswomen who serve the twelve kings of Sharakhai Knowing Shohreh will be killed the moment the others learn of her Mala helps her to escape through a secret door and into the city's catacombs Near death Shohreh is healed by the Crone a near mythical figure in Sharakhai and the leader of the Kestrels After revealing a plot to kill Zeheb the Whisper King the Crone commands Shohreh to save him and to kill Mala for having learned the location of their underground lair What follows is a deadly game that threatens not only the Whisper King but Mala and everyone she knows Captive Bodies Gwendolyn Audrey Foster,1999-01-01 Examines the film industry's fascination with bondage and captivity Ascent of the Mountain, Flight of the Dove Michael Novak,2011-12-31 The essence of Ascent of the Mountain Flight of the Dove remains intact its vision of religious studies as sustained reflection on our lifelong voyage to discover who we are The story we choose for ourselves the story we live can sacralize or secularize our lives and our world by the way in which we choose to relate to it With this awareness of the story dimension of life Ascent of the Mountain Flight of the Dove opens us to awe reverence and wonder at the risks and possibilities of human freedom This book is even more important than it was thirty years ago We need religion to strike deeply into the self away from public glare Unless Americans become more sophisticated about the language of the self inner life will shrivel In addition our people will continue to be vulnerable to fundamentalist movements Such movements take over too many innocents They promise and sometimes deliver a touching happiness But they do so by closing the spirit in a powerful and dangerous way Families and schools do not provide a large and critical vocabulary by which to express the inner longings of the spirit The souls of many are parched and they gladly accept water any water from those who offer it The liberation of the religious spirit from trivial closed and simplistic systems of thought can only be achieved through the development of a critical language exercises and disciplines that open rather than close the mind that lead to higher viewpoints breakthroughs and new syntheses in a constant enlargement of spirit Novak's book leads us to that place

Places of Silence, Journeys of Freedom Eugenia C. DeLamotte, 2016-11-11 Alice Walker has described the Barbadian American novelist Paule Marshall as unequalled in intelligence vision craft by anyone of her generation to put her contributions to our literature modestly Such praise has echoed through reviews and analyses of Marshall's work since the 1959 publication of Brown Girl Brownstones a novel followed by The Chosen Place the Timeless People 1969 Praisesong for the Widow 1984 and Daughters 1991 Places of Silence Journeys of Freedom is the first study of Paule Marshall's work to focus explicitly on her contribution to feminism It is also the first to identify one of her original contributions to narrative art a technique of superimposition or double exposure through which her books have explored topics now at the heart of feminist debate Centered around the subject of voice and silence these issues include the interrelation between women's power and powerlessness the interpenetration of the political and economic world with the world of the psyche and the mechanisms through which oppressions on the basis of race class and gender operate as mutually shaping forces
