 The Starday Story The House That Country Music Built is the first book entirely dedicated to one of the most influential music labels of the twentieth century In addition to creating the largest bluegrass catalogue throughout the 1950s and 60s Starday was also known for its legendary rockabilly catalogue an extensive Texas honky tonk outpouring classic gospel and sacred recordings and as a Nashville independent powerhouse studio and label Written with label president and co founder Don Pierce this book traces the label s origins in 1953 through the 1968 Starday King merger Interviews with artists and their families employees and Pierce contribute to the stories behind famous hit songs including Y all Come A Satisfied Mind Why Baby Why Giddy up Go Alabam and many others Gibson s research and interviews also shed new light on the musical careers of George Jones Arlie Duff Willie Nelson Roger Miller the Stanley Brothers Cowboy Copas Red Sovine and countless other Starday artists Conversations with the children of Pappy Daily and Jack Starns provide a unique perspective on the early days of Starday and extensive interviews with Pierce offer an insider glance at the country music industry during its golden era Weathering through the storm of rock and roll and later the Nashville Sound Starday was a home to traditional country musicians and became one of the most successful independent labels in American history Ultimately The Starday Story is the definitive record of a country music label that played an integral role in preserving our nation s musical heritage

Greetings from the Flip Side Rene Gutteridge,Cheryl McKay,2013 After being left at the altar comically creative Hope Landon goes missing is presumed dead and later lands a job with an inspirational greeting card company in New York City or does she      Movie Comedians of the 1950s Wes D. Gehring,2016-11-03 The 1950s were a transitional period for film comedians The artistic suppression of the McCarthy era and the advent of television often resulted in a dumbing down of motion pictures Cartoonist turned director Frank Tashlin contributed a funny but cartoonish effect through his work with comedians like Jerry Lewis and Bob Hope A new vanguard of comedians appeared without stock comic garb or make up fresh faces not easily pigeonholed as merely comedians such as Tony Randall Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis Some traditional comedians like Charlie Chaplin Red Skelton and Danny Kaye continued their shtick though with some evident tweaking This book provides insight into a misunderstood decade of film history with an examination of the personality comedians The talents of Dean Martin and Bob Hope are reappraised and the dumb blonde stereotype as applied to Judy Holliday and Marilyn Monroe is deconstructed      Throwaways Evan Watkins,1993 Unlike public education however consumer culture deploys the resources of what the author calls technoideological coding in which survival no longer designates the fittest but rather obsolete relics from the past those left behind by innovations These relics are throwaways isolated groups of the population who litter the social landscape and require the moral attention of cleanup crews the containing apparatus of police and prisons the financial drain of safety nets and the immense bureaucracies of the state In this coding narratives of social change are class as lifestyle narratives which locate race and gender as surviving relics of a rapidly disappearing past
