Flooding And Environmental Challenges For Venice And Its Lagoon:

Flooding and Environmental Challenges for Venice and Its Lagoon C. A. Fletcher, T. Spencer, 2005-07-14 A technical volume exploring the prospects for decreasing the level of flooding in and around Venice Handbook of Regenerative Landscape Design Robert L. France, 2007-10-18 What if environmentally damaged landscapes could not only be remediated from an ecological standpoint but also designed to replenish an entire community as well as the nature surrounding it The Handbook of Regenerative Landscape Design incorporates ecology engineering sociology and design elements into a new paradigm for environmental r Venice in Environmental Peril? Dominic Standish, 2012 Venice is perceived to be in peril due to rising sea levels tourism and modern development This book is based on interviews with Venetian environmentalists about Venice's environmental risks especially regarding the city's anticipated mobile dams It offers a ten point pro Hydrometeorology Kevin Sene, 2009-12-12 This book describes recent developments in hydrometeorological forecasting techniques for a range of timescales from short term to seasonal and longer terms It conveniently brings together both meteorological and hydrological aspects in a single volume Coastal Environments and Global Change Gerd Masselink, Roland Gehrels, 2014-04-23 The coastal zone is one of the most dynamic environments on our planet and is much affected by global change especially sea level rise Coastal environments harbour valuable ecosystems but they are also hugely important from a societal point of view This book which draws on the expertise of 21 leading international coastal scientists represents an up to date account of coastal environments and past present and future impacts of global change The first chapter of the book outlines key principles that underpin coastal systems and their behaviour This is followed by a discussion of key processes including sea level change sedimentation storms waves and tides that drive coastal change The main part of the book consists of a discussion of the main coastal environments beaches dunes barriers salt marshes tidal flats estuaries coral reefs deltas rocky and glaciated coasts and coastal groundwater and how these are affected by global change The final chapter highlights strategies for coping with coastal change Readership final year undergraduate and postgraduate level students on coastal courses in a wide range subjects including geography environmental management geology oceanography and coastal civil engineering The book will also be a valuable resource for researchers and applied scientists dealing with coastal environments Additional resources for this book can be found at www.wiley.com/go/masselink/coastal The Role of Ecosystems in Disaster Risk Reduction Fabrice G. Renaud, Karen Sudmeier-Rieux, Marisol Estrella, 2013 The uptake of ecosystem based approaches for disaster risk reduction DRR is slow however despite some success stories There are multiple reasons for this reluctance ecosystem management is rarely considered as part of the portfolio of DRR solutions because the environmental and disaster management communities typically work independently from each other its contribution to DRR is highly undervalued compared to engineered solutions and therefore not given appropriate budget allocations and there are poor interactions between policymakers and researchers leading to unclear and sometimes contradictory scientific information on the role of ecosystems for DRR The aim of this book is to provide an overview of knowledge and practice in this multidisciplinary field of ecosystems management and DRR The contributors professionals from the science and disaster management communities around the world represent state of the art knowledge practices and perspectives on the topic

Mobilities, Tourism and Travel Behavior Leszek Butowski, 2018-01-17 The notion of mobilities when looked at from a practical point of view turns out to cover different kinds of human activity It is not surprising then that when approached from an academic perspective it reveals enormous potential for interdisciplinary research which has proven extremely attractive to many scholars from different continents disciplines and schools of academic inquiry The scholars in this volume focus on the specific aspects of mobilities namely tourism and travel behavior but approach them from a plethora of positions Such a myriad of perspectives is bound to be challenging in methodological terms but it seems there is a growing agreement as to the worthiness of this interdisciplinary research By means of combining various approaches researchers obtain access to a fascinating and increasingly ubiquitous phenomenon of contemporary human mobility

Large-Scale Simulation Dan Chen, Lizhe Wang, Jingying Chen, 2012-05-29 Large Scale Simulation Models Algorithms and Applications gives you firsthand insight on the latest advances in large scale simulation techniques Most of the research results are drawn from the authors papers in top tier peer reviewed scientific conference proceedings and journals The first part of the book presents the fundamentals of large scale simulation including high level architecture and runtime infrastructure The second part covers middleware and software architecture for large scale simulations such as decoupled federate architecture fault tolerant mechanisms grid enabled simulation and federation communities In the third part the authors explore mechanisms such as simulation cloning methods and algorithms that support quick evaluation of alternative scenarios The final part describes how distributed computing technologies and many core architecture are used to study social phenomena Reflecting the latest research in the field this book guides you in using and further researching advanced models and algorithms for large scale distributed simulation These simulation tools will help you gain insight into large scale systems across many disciplines

Norms in Technology Marc J de Vries, Sven Ove Hansson, Anthonie W.M. Meijers, 2012-11-30 This book is a distinctive fusion of philosophy and technology delineating the normative landscape that informs today's technologies and tomorrow's inventions The authors examine what we deem to be the internal norms that govern our ever expanding technical universe Recognizing that developments in technology and engineering literally create our human future transforming existing knowledge into tomorrow's tools and infrastructure they chart the normative criteria we use to evaluate novel technological artifacts how for example do we judge a good from a bad expert system or nuclear power plant As well as these functional norms and the norms that guide technological knowledge and reasoning the book examines commonly agreed benchmarks in safety and risk reduction which play a pivotal role in engineering practice Informed by the core insight that in technology and engineering factual knowledge relating for example to the properties of materials or the load bearing characteristics of differing construction designs is not enough this analysis follows the often unseen foundations upon which technologies rest the norms that guide the creative forces shaping the technical landscape to come The book a comprehensive survey of these emerging topics in the philosophy of technology clarifies the role these norms epistemological functional and risk assessing play in technological innovation and the consequences they have for our understanding of technological knowledge Aesthetics of Universal Knowledge Simon Schaffer, John Tresch, Pasquale Gagliardi, 2017-05-15 Born out of a major international dialogue held at the Fondazione Giorgio Cini in Venice Italy this collection of essays presents innovative and provocative arguments about the claims of universal knowledge schemes and the different aesthetic and material forms in which such claims have been made and executed Contributors take a close look at everything from religious pilgrimages museums and maps of the world to search engines and automated GPS Current obsessions in information technology communications theory and digital culture often concern the value and possibility of a grand accumulation of universally accessible forms of knowledge total libraries open data bases ubiquitous computing and smart technologies These obsessions have important social and philosophical origins and they raise profound questions about the very nature of knowledge and its organization This volume s contributors draw on the histories of maps and of encyclopedias worldviews and visionary collections to make sense of the crucial relation between the way the world is known and how it might be displayed and transformed The Climate of the Mediterranean Region P. Lionello, 2012-04-19 The Mediterranean region contains a diverse and interesting climate ranging from areas with permanent glaciers to areas of subtropical semiarid regions The region is potentially sensitive to climate change and its progress has environmental social and economic implications within and beyond the region Produced by the Mediterranean Climate Variability and Predictability Research Networking Project this book reviews the evolution of the Mediterranean climate over the past two millennia with projections further into the twenty first century as well as examining in detail various aspects of the Mediterranean region s climate including evolution atmospheric variables and oceanic and land elements Integrated with this the book also considers the social and economic problems or vulnerabilities associated with the region Written and reviewed by multiple researchers to ensure a high level of information presented clearly Mediterranean Climate Variables will be an invaluable source of information for geologists oceanographers and anyone interested in learning more about the Mediterranean climate Written by leading experts in the field Presents clear compelling and concise evidence Includes the latest thinking in Mediterranean climate research Handbook of Waterfront Cities and Urbanism Mohammed Rahman, 2022-07-29 Handbook of Waterfront Cities and Urbanism is the first resource to address cities transformations of their coastlines and riverbanks and the resulting effects on environment culture and identity in a genuinely global context Spanning cities from Gda sk to Georgetown this reference for design development and planning explores the transition of waterfronts from industrial and port zones to crowd drawing urban spectacles within the frameworks of urban development economics ecology governance globalization preservation and sustainability A collection of contextual studies local perspectives project reviews and analyses of evolution and emerging trends provides critical insight into the phenomenon of waterfront development and urbanism in cities from the East to the West Features Explores the transformation of waterfronts from industrial hubs to urban playgrounds through the lenses of preservation governance economics ecology and more Presents chapter length case studies drawn from cities in China Bangladesh Turkey the United States Malaysia the European Union Egypt and other countries Includes contributions from an interdisciplinary team of international scholars and professionals a much needed corrective to the historical exclusion of researchers and issues from the Global South An ideal reference for graduate students scholars and professionals in urban planning architecture geography and history the Handbook of Waterfront Cities and Urbanism deserves to be on the shelf of urban authorities and any internationally minded academic or practitioner in real estate development water management preservation or tourism

Planet Earth 2011 Elias Carayannis, 2011-10-03 The failure of the UN climate change summit in Copenhagen in December 2009 to effectively reach a global agreement on emission reduction targets led many within the developing world to view this as a reversal of the Kyoto Protocol and an attempt by the developed nations to shirk out of their responsibility for climate change The issue of global warming has been at the top of the political agenda for a number of years and has become even more pressing with the rapid industrialization taking place in China and India This book looks at the effects of climate change throughout different regions of the world and discusses to what extent cleantech and environmental initiatives such as the destruction of fluorinated greenhouse gases biofuels and the role of plant breeding and biotechnology The book concludes with an insight into the socio religious impact that global warming has citing Christianity and Islam

The Physical Geography of the Mediterranean Jamie C. Woodward, 2009-05-07 This volume explores the climates landscapes ecosystems and hazards that comprise the Mediterranean world It traces the development of the Mediterranean landscape over very long timescales and examines modern processes and key environmental issues in a wide range of settings The Mediterranean is the only region on Earth where three continents meet and this interaction has produced a very distinctive Physical Geography This book examines the landscapes and processes at the margins of these continents and the distinctive marine environment between them Catastrophic earthquakes explosive volcanic eruptions and devastating storms and floods are intimately bound up within the history and mythology of the Mediterranean world This is a key region for the study of natural hazards because it offers unrivalled access to long records of hazard occurrence and impact through documentary archaeological and geological archives The Mediterranean is also a biodiversity hotspot it has been a meeting place for plants animals and humans from three continents throughout much of its history The Quaternary records of these interactions are more varied and better preserved than in any other part of the world These records have provided important new insights into the tempo of climate landscape and ecosystem change in the Mediterranean region and beyond The region is unique because of the very early and widespread impact of humans in landscape and ecosystem change and the richness of the archaeological and geological archives that chronicle this impact This book examines this history and these interactions and places current environmental issues in long term context Contributors Ramadan Husain Abu Zied Harriet Allen Jacques Blondel Maria Carmen Llasat James Casford Marc Castellnou Andrew Goudie Andrew Harding Angela Hayes Tom Holt Babette Hoogakker Philip Hughes Jos Lelieveld John Lewin Francisco Lloret Francisco Lopez Bermudez Mark Macklin Jean Margat Anne Mather Francis M.
