Flowers From The Volcano:

Flores Del Volcán Claribel Alegría, 1982 These poems are testimonies to the value of a single human memory political in the sense that there is no life apart from our common destiny They are poems of passionate witness and confrontation Responding to those who would state that politics has no place in poetry that expressions of the human spirit in art should be isolated in aesthetics she would add her voice to that of Neruda s we do not wish to please them From back cover reconstruct an Indigenous literary tradition rooted in an Indigenous cosmology a philosophy originally grounded in pre-Columbian sacred conceptions of the cosmos time and place and now expressed in creative writings More specifically she attends to Maya and Zapotec literary and cultural forms by theorizing kab awil as an Indigenous philosophy Tackling the political and literary implications of this work Chac n argues that Indigenous writers use of familiar genres alongside Indigenous language use of oral traditions and new representations of selfhood and nation all create space for expressions of cultural and political autonomy Chac n recognizes that Indigenous writers draw from universal literary strategies but nevertheless argues that this literature is a vital center for reflecting on Indigenous ways of knowing and is a key artistic expression of decolonization
