Spitting Image Kara van de Graaf, 2018-03-14 Kara van de Graaf's debut collection heralds the arrival of an essential new voice in contemporary poetry Through poems that balance personal recollection with ekphrasis science and meditation Van de Graaf searches for answers in the fluctuating relationship between the body and the self Taking as its primary theme the exploration of the female body in current culture Spitting Image considers the myriad intersections of the body and gender desire relationships and otherness Van de Graaf interrogates underrepresented elements of the female experience especially the physical rhetorical and aesthetic limitations of fatness in poetry and other arts She then complicates those limitations through her use of innovative forms and imaginative verse implicitly calling for poetry to engage with the female form in fresh ways Throughout Van de Graaf s poems ask In a time where we have more agency to define ourselves than ever before what barriers still remain What do our bodies mean to who we are At turns oblique and direct Van de Graaf s poems strive to create space for themselves not only in the field of contemporary poetry but also in a larger world that has been prone to ignoring or shaming women for their bodies That these poems succeed on both counts is a testament to this remarkable new poet who claims That millimeter of space that means all of us are apart that means we can never really touch anything Yes I want that too The Best Horror of the Year Ellen Datlow,2017-07-11
