The Maker of Opportunities George Gibbs, 2022-08-10 It was two o'clock Mr Mortimer Crabb pushed back the chair from his breakfast tray and languidly took up the morning paper He had a reputation in which he delighted of dwelling in a Castle of Indolence and took particular pains that no act of his should belie it There were persons who smiled at his affectations for he had a studio over a stable in one of the cross streets up town where he dawdled most of his days supine in his easy chair The age was running to athletics so Mr Crabb in public had become the apostle and high priest of flaccidity He raised a supercilious eyebrow at tennis drawled his disparagement of polo and racquets and recoiled at the mere mention of college football But those highest in Crabb s favor knew that there were evenings when he met professional pugilists at this same shrine of stheticism who at liberal compensation matched their skill and heft to his Submariner Alexander Fullerton,2010-12-02 Malta 1942 Lieutenant Mike Nicholson commands Ursa one of the 10th Submarine Flotilla's boats who in their time destroyed more than a million tons of war supplies shipped from Italian ports to Rommel's Afrika Korps in the Western Desert. German Intelligence has recently warned Berlin that unless drastic measures are undertaken the Mediterranean and Middle East will be lost to them. But Ursa is a lucky submarine and Mike is the flotilla's top scorer. He also has problems of a more personal nature. Before leaving England about two years ago he was heavily involved in an affair with the wife of another submariner who's now bringing his own new U class boat Unsung to the flotilla.

Floating Madhouse C Pbp A. Fullerton,2000-11 Economies of Feeling Jillian Porter,2017-06-15 Economies of Feeling offers new explanations for the fantastical plots of mad or blocked ambition that set the nineteenth century Russian prose tradition in motion. Jillian Porter compares the conceptual history of social ambition in post Napoleonic France and post Decembrist Russia and argues that the dissonance between foreign and domestic understandings of this economic passion shaped the literature of Nicholas I's reign 1825-1855. Porter shows how for Pushkin Gogol Dostoevsky and Faddei Bulgarin ambition became a staging ground for experiments with transnational literary exchange. In its encounters with the celebrated Russian cultural value of hospitality and the age-old vice of miserliness ambition appears both timely and anachronistic, suspiciously foreign and disturbingly Russian. It challenges readers to question the equivalence of local and imported words, feelings and forms. Economies of Feeling examines founding texts of nineteenth century Russian prose alongside nonliterary materials from which they drew energy from French clinical diagnoses of ambitious monomania to the various types of currency that proliferated under Nicholas I. It thus contributes fresh and fascinating insights into Russian characters' impulses to attain rank and to squander, counterfeit and hoard. Porter's interdisciplinary approach will appeal to scholars of comparative as well as Russian literature.

Six Days Philip Webb,2011 Cass and her brother Wilbur scavenge in the ruins of a future London seeking an artifact for their Russian masters but the search takes on a new urgency after the arrival of Erin and Peyto, strangers from afar who claim to hold the key to locating the mysterious object.
