Lost Plantations of the South Marc R. Matrana, 2014-07-18 The great majority of the South's plantation homes have been destroyed over time and many have long been forgotten In Lost Plantations of the South Marc R Matrana weaves together photographs diaries and letters architectural renderings and other rare documents to tell the story of sixty of these vanquished estates and the people who once called them home From plantations that were destroyed by natural disaster such as Alabama s Forks of Cypress to those that were intentionally demolished such as Seven Oaks in Louisiana and Mount Brilliant in Kentucky Matrana resurrects these lost mansions Including plantations throughout the South as well as border states Matrana carefully tracks the histories of each from the earliest days of construction to the often contentious struggles to preserve these irreplaceable historic treasures Lost Plantations of the South explores the root causes of demise and provides understanding and insight on how lessons learned in these sad losses can help prevent future preservation crises Capturing the voices of masters and mistresses alongside those of slaves and featuring more than one hundred elegant archival illustrations this book explores the powerful and complex histories of these cardinal homes across the South

Master Register of Bicentennial Projects, February 1976 American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1976 Colleen Moore Jeff Codori,2012-03-13

Colleen Moore 1899 1988 was one of the most popular and beloved stars of the American silent screen Remembered primarily as a comedienne in such films as Ella Cinders 1926 and Orchids and Ermine 1927 Moore s career was also filled with dramatic roles that often reflected societal trends A trailblazing performer her legacy was somewhat overshadowed by the female stars that followed her notably Louise Brooks and Clara Bow An in depth examination of Moore s early life and film career the book reveals the ways in which her family and the times in which she lived influenced the roles she chose Included are forewords written by film historian Joseph Yranski a friend of the actress and by Moore s stepdaughter Judith Hargrave Coleman Amateur Movie Making Martha J. McNamara,Karan Sheldon,2017-06-20 A compelling regional and historical study that transforms our understanding of film history Amateur Movie Making demonstrates how amateur films and home movies stand as testaments to the creative lives of ordinary people enriching our experience of art and the everyday Here we encounter the lyrical and visually expressive qualities of films produced in New England between 1915 and 1960 and held in the collections of Northeast Historic Film a moving image repository and study center that was established to collect preserve and interpret the audiovisual record of northern New England Contributors from diverse backgrounds examine the visual aesthetics of these films while placing them in their social political and historical contexts Each discussion is enhanced by technical notes and the analyses are also juxtaposed with personal reflections by artists who have close connections to particular amateur filmmakers These reflections reanimate the original private contexts of the home movies before they were recast as objects of study and artifacts of public history Official Master Register of
