The Marine and the Flower Child Dale McInerney, Michael (Mac) McInerney, 2018-06-15 The Marine and the Flower Child By Dale McInerney with Michael Mac McInerney The story of a Marine overseas and his girl back home in New York Their letters encompass a first hand look at the Vietnam War and the love forged during a year apart MAC Everything I ve ever done whether it was a mistake or a great success I ll stand up to all my letters are a part of me I don t care who sees them you can print them in the NY Times if you want and I ll say yup I sure did say that Dale Pretty soon there ll be no room for clothes in the drawer where I keep your letters Ruby said I should make them into a book So I got a loose leaf folder and titled it Letters from Mac July 1968 I ll start another for August The mailman was funny handing me your letter today he said Why don t you marry this guy it would save an awful lot of postage MAC Today has been one of those long days DaNang started to get hit the VC are still rocketing and mortaring the city and surrounding installations When I was on the flight deck I could hear and see the explosions Then we started to take medevacs aboard the ship hospital Dale As long as you are honest with me about what you re doing in Nam I ll rest a lot easier I believe there is basic reason at work in the universe we met at that specific time to make sure both of us knew that we had a reason for staying alive We are going to stay together MAC I must have started six letters without getting past the second line After a year apart I have nothing left to say and everything to say I know for both of us we're tired of missing each other tired of living in the past and the future it takes the life right out of me and having you involved in all of this tears me apart But loving you fills me with more happiness than I ever dreamed possible American Countercultures: An Encyclopedia of Nonconformists, Alternative Lifestyles, and Radical Ideas in U.S. History Gina Misiroglu, 2015-03-26 Counterculture while commonly used to describe youth oriented movements during the 1960s refers to any attempt to challenge or change conventional values and practices or the dominant lifestyles of the day This fascinating three volume set explores these movements in America from colonial times to the present in colorful detail American Countercultures is the first reference work to examine the impact of countercultural movements on American social history It highlights the writings recordings and visual works produced by these movements to educate inspire and incite action in all eras of the nation's history A-Z entries provide a wealth of information on personalities places events concepts beliefs groups and practices The set includes numerous illustrations a topic finder primary source documents a bibliography and a filmography and an index Cross-cultural Visions in African American Modernism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2006 Yoshinobu Hakutani traces the development of African American modernism which initially gathered momentum with Richard Wright's literary manifesto Blueprint for Negro Writing in 1937 Hakutani dissects and discusses the cross cultural influences on the then burgeoning discipline in three stages American dialogues European and African cultural visions and Asian and African American cross cultural visions In writing Black Boy the centerpiece of the Chicago Renaissance Wright was inspired by Theodore Dreiser Because the European and African cultural visions that Wright Ralph Ellison Alice Walker and Toni Morrison acquired were buttressed by the universal humanism that is common to all cultures this ideology is shown to transcend the problems of society Fascinated by Eastern thought and art Wright Walker Sonia Sanchez and James Emanuel wrote highly accomplished poetry and prose Like Ezra Pound Wright was drawn to classic haiku as reflected in the 4 000 haiku he wrote at the end of his life As W B Yeats's symbolism was influenced by his cross cultural visions of noh theatre and Irish folklore so is James Emanuel's jazz haiku energized by his cross cultural rhythms of Japanese poetry and African American music The book demonstrates some of the most visible cultural exchanges in modern and postmodern African American literature Such a study can be extended to other contemporary African American writers whose works also thrive on their cross cultural visions such as Amiri Baraka Ishmael Reed Charles Johnson and haiku poet Lenard Moore The City in African-American Literature Yoshinobu Hakutani, Robert Butler, 1995 More recent African American literature has also been noteworthy for its largely affirmative vision of urban life Amiri Baraka's 1981 essay Black Literature and the Afro American Nation The Urban Voice argues that from the Harlem Renaissance onward African American literature has been urban shaped producing a uniquely black urban consciousness And Toni Morrison although stressing that the American city in general has often induced a sense of alienation in many African
