Beyond the conventional framework of privileging New and Post New Cinema or prominence of auteurs or single films, this volume is a comprehensive, judicious take on Taiwan cinema that fills gaps in the literature, offers a renewed historiography, and introduces new creative force and voices of Taiwan's moving image culture to produce a leading and accessible work on Taiwan film and culture. Film by film is conceived as the main carrier of moving picture imagery for a majority of viewers across the world. The curation offers an array of formal, historical, genre, sexual, social, and political frames which provide a rich brew of contexts. This surfeit of meanings is carried by individual films one by one which breaks down abstractions into narrative bites and outsized emotions. The Medicine Box Shan-Tung Hsu, 2006
