It is also a new departure from traditional literary histories as it is not a philological tedious classification of centuries authors genres and books published in Basque. This book addresses the historical conflict and violence that define Basque history and culture and so it defines Basque literary history as that of at least two literatures one expressed by Basque subaltern oppressed classes in their language euskara which mainly constitutes an oral tradition and the other written by Basque elites in Spanish Latin French etc. The book emphasizes that this double literature remains at the core of the Basque Country's history and culture to our days. Even today Basque literature in euskara Basque language plays a symbolic role to represent a Basque Country where the majority speaks and writes in other state languages. Euskara used by a minority remains subordinate. In this respect this book is a departure from previous Basque literary histories it redefines Spanish and French literatures advances a new theory of what a minority literature is and pays attention to texts disciplines and practices that traditional histories neglect political discourse anthropology tourism economics. This history also represents a review of most literary historical discourses new historicism postcolonial theory multiculturalism subaltern studies and presents a new methodological and theoretical proposal. Finally this history allows to revisit under a new light political and historical movements such as nationalism feminism modernity and globalization. As a result different authors such as Sabino Arana Judah Halevi Maddalen Lujambio Axular Hugo Unamuno Itxaro Borda or Oteiza are brought together.
