Fantastic Tales By Ji Xiaolan:

Thinking Dead Murali Balaji, 2013-09-26 Zombies are everywhere these days We are consuming zombies as much as they are said to be consuming us in mediated apocalyptic scenarios on popular television shows video game franchises and movies The zombie industry generates billions a year through media texts and other cultural manifestations zombie races and zombie themed parks to name a few Zombies like vampires werewolves witches and wizards have become both big dollars for cultural producers and the subject of audience fascination and fetishization With popular television shows such as AMC's The Walking Dead based on the popular graphic novel and movie franchises such as the ones pioneered by George Romero global fascination with zombies does not show signs of diminishing In The Thinking Dead What the Zombie Apocalypse Means edited by Murali Balaji scholars ask why our culture has become so fascinated by the zombie apocalypse Essays address this question from a range of theoretical perspectives that tie our consumption of zombies to larger narratives of race gender sexuality politics economics and the end of the world Thinking Dead brings together an array of media and cultural studies scholars whose contributions to understanding our obsession with zombies will far outlast the current trends of zombie popularity

Communicating with the Gods Matthias Schumann, Elena Valussi, 2023-10-09 Few religious innovations have shaped Chinese history like the emergence of spirit writing during the Song dynasty From a divinatory technique it evolved into a complex ritual practice used to transmit messages and revelations from the Gods This resulted in the production of countless religious scriptures that now form an essential corpus widely venerated and recited to this day that is still largely untapped by research Using historical and ethnographic approaches this volume for the first time offers a comprehensive overview of the history of spirit writing examining its evolution over a millennium the practices and technologies used and the communities involved

The Girl with No Face M. H. Boroson, 2019-10-22 Winner First Prize in the Colorado Authors League Award Science Fiction and Fantasy Category The adventures of Li lin a Daoist priestess with the unique ability to see the spirit world continue in the thrilling follow up to the critically acclaimed historical urban fantasy The Girl with Ghost Eyes It's the end of the Nineteenth Century San Francisco's cobblestone streets are haunted but Chinatown has an unlikely protector in a young Daoist priestess named Li lin Using only her martial arts training spiritual magic a sword made from peachwood and the walking talking spirit of a human eye Li lin stands alone to defend her immigrant community from supernatural threats But when the body of a young girl is brought to the deadhouse Li lin oversees for a local group of gangsters she faces her most bewildering and potentially dangerous assignment yet The nine year old has died from suffocation specifically by flowers growing out of her nose and mouth Li lin suspects Gong Tau a dirty and primitive form of dark magic But who is behind the spell and why will take her on a perilous journey deep into a dangerous world of ghosts and spirits With hard historical realism and meticulously researched depictions of Chinese monsters and magic that have never been written about in the English language The Girl with No Face draws from the action

packed cinema of Hong Kong to create a compelling and unforgettable tale of historical fantasy and Chinese lore Study of Prehistoric Aesthetic Consciousness of the Chinese Nation Wangheng Chen, 2025-07-29 This book explores how prehistoric aesthetic consciousness of the Chinese nation evolved from animality and barbarism how it was epitomized in prehistoric artifacts and most importantly how this aesthetic consciousness has exerted an ever lasting influence upon the Chinese mind and culture by examining prehistoric archaeological discoveries particularly pottery objects jade ware and rock paintings from prehistoric cultures and by studying ancient Chinese historical and literary documents This is the first academic effort to trace the very beginning of the aesthetic consciousness of the Chinese nation back to prehistoric times Its strength lies in the comprehensive and detailed examination of all the major prehistoric cultures and artifacts as well as in its insights into the relationship between prehistoric consciousness and the Chinese mind and culture This book benefits graduate students and researchers who are interested in Chinese prehistoric culture and Chinese history of aesthetics
