FAO, the First 40 Years Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1985-01-01      FAO FAO.,Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1985      UN Contributions to Development Thinking and Practice Richard Jolly,2004 The authors argue that the UN Charter is infused with the human values human concerns that are at the centre of the UN s thinking on economic human development today They show how the UN s approach to development has evolved to include a broad range of social issues from poverty reduction to equality      FAO Policies and Actions, Stockholm

1972-Rio 1992 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1992      Shorelines Ajantha Subramanian,2009-04-28 After a clerical sanction prohibited them from fishing for a week a group of Catholic fishers from a village on India s southwestern coast took their church to court They called on the state to recognize them as custodians of the local sea protect their right to regulate trawling and reject the church s intermediary role In Shorelines Ajantha Subramanian argues that their struggle requires a rethinking of Indian democracy citizenship and environmentalism Rather than see these fishers as non moderns inhabiting a bounded cultural world or as moderns wholly captured by the logic of state power she illustrates how they constitute themselves as political subjects In particular she shows how they produced new geographies of regionalism common property alternative technology and fisher citizenship that underpinned claims to rights thus using space as an instrument of justice Moving beyond the romantic myth of self contained natural resource dependent populations this work reveals the charged political maneuvers that bound subalterns and sovereigns in South Asia In rich historical and ethnographic detail Shorelines illuminates postcolonial rights politics as the product of particular histories of caste religion and development allowing us to see how democracy is always provincial      FAO ,1985

Fisheries Development Series ,1986      Planting Trees in the Developing World Steven R. Brechin,1997 Over the past several decades international and national agencies and organizations have become increasingly aware of the problems of deforestation and desertification in the developing world Consequently they have mobilized interest and resources to combat these threats to sustainable economic development through a new activity the organized planting of trees for people Reforestation has proven to be difficult however because most arable land is already in use for agriculture and because uncertainties exist over land and tree tenure With forestry institutions weak and ineffective in many developing countries international organizations have assumed the leadership role in promoting this crucial task In Planting Trees in the Developing World Steven R Brechin draws upon organizational sociology to explain why three international organizations the World Bank the Forestry Department of the Food and Agriculture Organization and CARE USA performed so differently while promoting rural development forestry projects in Africa Asia and Latin America Focusing on the period from the mid 1970s to the early 1990s Brechin argues that the unique organizational nature of each agency shaped by internal characteristics as well as external pressures influenced its ability to promote certain kinds of development programs      The Indian Journal
