Far From The Church Bells:

Carols Old and Carols New Charles Lewis Hutchins, 1916 The German Classics of the 19th and 20th Century (Vol. 1-14) Various, 2023-12-12 The German Classics of the 19th and 20th Century Vol 1 14 is an expansive anthology that encompasses a diverse range of seminal works enriching the reader's insight into the evolution of German literature during this transformative period. Spanning prolific genres such as Romanticism, Realism, and Modernism, this collection features the nuanced prose and innovative poetry of notable figures including Goethe, Schiller, Kafka, and Brecht. The anthology's literary style emphasizes intricate language and thematic depth, reflecting the socio-political upheavals and cultural shifts characteristic of the times through which it spans. The compilation is the result of the collaborative efforts of various editors and scholars deeply invested in German literary heritage. Their collective expertise draws from comprehensive analyses of literary movements and historical contexts, providing a multidimensional lens through which readers can appreciate the intricacies of German thought, aesthetics, and societal reflection as they unfold within these texts. The anthology serves as both homage and critical examination of the narratives that resonate with the German-speaking world. This remarkable collection is highly recommended for both scholars and general readers seeking to immerse themselves in the rich tapestry of German literature. With its careful curation and accessible presentation, it invites exploration and appreciation of classic texts that not only shaped their era but continue to resonate with contemporary themes, making these volumes indispensable for anyone passionate about world literature.

Light, 1890 Collected Black Women's Poetry: Volume 2 Joan R. Sherman, 1988-07-28 These four volumes collect the works of eleven poets writing in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Volume 1 presents two collections by Mary E. Tucker Lambert Loew's Bridge A Broadway Idyl, a poet's eye view of lower Manhattan just after the Civil War, and Poems and Infelicia, a dramatic work by the notorious Adah Isaacs Menken. Volumes 2, 3, and 4 contain works by nine other poets, all of which were published between 1895 and 1910, a particularly brutal era for blacks. But surprisingly, only one of these women, Lizelia Moorner, protests the treatment of her race during this period of social upheaval and injustice. The remaining eight poets all conformed to the ethos of most black writers of the time, whitewashing their art while educating and uplifting their people. Their themes are traditional: love, nature, death, Christian idealism, and morality, and family, and are for the most part couched in conventional forms and language. As interesting for the themes that they address as for those that they ignore, these selections offer a unique sampling of poetic voices that until now have gone largely unheard.
