

The background of the book cover is a painting. It depicts a man and a woman in a small boat, possibly on a river or lake. The man is on the left, looking towards the right. The woman is on the right, leaning her head against the man. They are surrounded by a dense shower of falling leaves, which are rendered in various shades of brown and gold. The overall mood is romantic and melancholic.

Farewell My Only One A Novel:

Farewell, My Only One Antoine Audouard, 2004-07-20 A novel that brings to life one of the great romances of all time Evokes in gritty and poetic detail the streets of twelfth century Paris The New York Times Book Review In the early twelfth century William reaches Paris full of hope and without a penny There on the same day he meets the two people who will dominate his life young Heloise with whom he immediately falls in love and Abelard the world renowned philosopher Through the eyes of William we follow every turn in the greatest love story of the Middle Ages We witness in harrowing and lush descriptions the scandal of the famous theologian falling for his educated and charming student their flight and secret marriage the barbaric revenge of the girl's uncle their years of separation the writing of the famous letters and finally the demise of a broken Abelard whose books have been burned a man who finds his ultimate solace in the thought of the woman who has never ceased to love him Antoine Audouard brings literary grace to a story that is palpably infused with sensuality conflict and intellectual ferment Farewell My Only One is intelligent and bawdy philosophical and romantic a universal story of star crossed lovers This is an elegantly written novel refreshing in its bawdy portrayal of religious figures and intellectually stimulating in its rigorous treatment of the theological discourse of the time Publishers Weekly [Born to be a Lady. The Story of Joseph in Spanish Golden Age Drama Michael D. McGaha, 1998

This book includes critical studies and English translations of six different dramatic versions of the biblical story of Joseph and his brothers written during the century and a half from about 1535 to 1685 that is from the earliest attempts at full length drama to the end of the classical period which is usually dated around the year of Calderon de la Barca's death in 1681 Three of the plays are full length dramas while the rest belong to the peculiarly Spanish genre of one act religious plays known as autos sacramentales Comparison of these six variations on a theme enhances our understanding of the gradual evolution of both the auto and the comedia full length genres during the Golden Age In addition to the biblical story Spanish playwrights drew upon a rich tradition of retellings of the Joseph story written during the Middle Ages by Muslim Jewish and Christian Spaniards Each of these ethnic and religious groups developed new interpretations of the story dictated by the historical circumstances of a particular time and place yet each was influenced by the versions created by the others Ultimately this grudging collaboration produced a uniquely multicultural version of the story
