Farm Household Income Issues And Policy Responses:

Farm Household Income Issues and Policy Responses OECD,2003-01-16 The first part of this report provides an overview of the income situation of farm households and the influence of agricultural and of tax and social security policies on them The second part investigates more specifically how efficient some of the most commonly used policy interventions are Proceedings of the OECD/PACIOLI Workshop on Information Needs for the Analysis of Farm Household Income Issues Agricultural Economics Research Institute,OECD,2005-01-18 This report contains the proceedings of the workshop on Information Needs for the Analysis of Farm Household Income Issues Global Food Security Challenges for the Food and Agricultural System OECD,2013-06-19 This study is concerned with how changes to the world s food and agriculture system can contribute to improvements in global food security Are Superweeds an Outgrowth of USDA Biotech Policy? United States. Congress. House. Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. Subcommittee on Domestic Policy,2011 Research Handbook on EU Agriculture Law Joseph A. McMahon,Michael N. Cardwell,2015-11-27 Following the conclusion of the latest round of reforms to the Common Agricultural Policy CAP in 2013 the Research Handbook on EU Agriculture Law provides an up to date discussion of these reforms and the changing landscape in which the CAP now operates Adopting an interdisciplinary approach and with international contributors from across Europe and the United States the Handbook commences with analyses of the legal instruments which implement the reformed CAP before moving on to consider questions of land use the role of agriculture within the wider food chain and the international dimension In these contexts particular issues identified include the environmental impact of past present and future farming practices the ability of the food chain to accommodate consumer preferences and scientific innovation and the hurdles to be cleared before international consensus can be reached on a whole range of agricultural imperatives As well as providing a state of the art point of reference for academics this comprehensive book will be of great interest to students scholars and policymakers dealing with these new challenges faced by agriculture in the EU Agricultural Policies for Poverty Reduction OECD,2012-03-02 This volume sets out a strategy for raising rural incomes which emphasises the creation of diversified rural economies with opportunities within and outside agriculture Taxation and Social Security in Agriculture OECD,2005-11-16 This study catalogues the treatment of farmers within the tax and social security systems of a large number of OECD countries Food Security, Agricultural Policies and Economic Growth Niek Koning,2017-04-21 Using a political economic approach supplemented with insights from human ecology this volume analyzes the long term dynamics of food security and economic growth The book begins by discussing the nature of preindustrial food crises and the changes that have occurred since the 19th century with the ascent of technical science and the fossil fuel revolution It explains how these changes improved living standards but that the realization of this improvement was usually dependent on government support for smallholder modernization The author sets out how the evolution of food security in different regions has been influenced by farm policy choices and how these choices were shaped by local societal characteristics international relations and changing configurations in metropolitan countries Separate chapters are devoted to the interaction of this evolution with debates on food security and economic growth and with international economic policies The final chapters highlight the new challenges for global food security that will arise as traditional sources of biomass production and the more easily extractable reserves of fossil biomass become depleted or can no longer be used Overall the book emphasizes the inadequacy of current explanations with regard to these challenges It explores what is needed to ensure a sustainable future and calls for a rethinking of these issues a necessary reflection in today s unstable global political situation OECD

Economic Surveys: European Union 2021 OECD,2021-09-10 The COVID 19 pandemic plunged the EU into its worst ever recession and risks increasing inequalities notably between regions Thanks to a bold and innovative policy response including a common instrument to finance national recovery plans Next Generation EU growth is rebounding but ambitious reforms will be essential to heal the scars of the pandemic and succeed in the green and digital transitions Agricultural and Rural Development Policies in the Baltic Countries OECD,2003-09-24 This conference proceedings examines problems of low incomes and high unemployment in rural areas of the Baltic countries It compares the situation of the Baltic States with that in Western Europe examines developments in Baltic labour markets and looks at strategies for development

OECD Review of Agricultural Policies: China 2005 OECD,2005-11-14 This book presents a comprehensive overview and assessment of China s agricultural policies combined with OECD estimates of the level of support provided to the Chinese farm sector Low Income Farm Households James P. Frawley,2000 This study was commissioned to review farm income support policy with a view to targeting resources at low income farm households It sets out to analyze trends in farm household income in particular the nature and extent of low income farm households It also aims to assess the factors underlying the emergence of the low income farm households and the effectiveness of farm income and general welfare policies in countering the lack of viability of the sector In addition it aims to outline possible reforms which would target public resources towards low income farm households in light of Agenda 2000 the National Anti Poverty Strategy the Rural Development White Paper and other relevant policy initiatives Trade and Structural Adjustment Embracing

Globalisation OECD,2005-09-21 Trade and Structural Adjustment Embracing Globalisation identifies the requirements for successful reallocation of labour and capital to more efficient uses in response to the emergence of new sources of competition technological change and shifting consumer preferences OECD Economic Surveys: Sweden 2004

OECD,2004-03-19 This 2004 edition of OECD s periodic review of Sweden s economy includes special features on living standards and the welfare state competition and economic performance harnessing resources more effectively public finances and sustainable development Detox Development Richard Damania,Esteban Balseca,Charlotte de

Fontaubert,Joshua Gill,Jun Rentschler,Jason Russ,Esha Zaveri,2023-06-15 Clean air land and oceans are critical for human health and nutrition and underpin much of the world's economy. Yet they suffer from degradation, poor management and overuse due to government subsidies. Detox Development Repurposing Environmentally Harmful Subsidies examines the impact of subsidies on these foundational natural assets. Explicit and implicit subsidies estimated to exceed US $7 trillion per year not only promote inefficiencies but also cause much environmental harm. Poor air quality is responsible for approximately 1 in 5 deaths globally. And as the new analyses in this report show, a significant number of these deaths can be attributed to fossil fuel subsidies. Agriculture is the largest user of land worldwide, feeding the world and employing 1 billion people, including 78 percent of the world's poor. But it is subsidized in ways that promote inefficiency, inequity and unsustainability. Subsidies are shown to drive the deterioration of water quality and increase water scarcity by incentivizing overextraction. In addition, they are responsible for 14 percent of annual deforestation, incentivizing the production of crops that are cultivated near forests. These subsidies are also implicated in the spread of zoonotic and vector-borne diseases, especially malaria. Finally, oceans support the world's fisheries and supply about 3 billion people with almost 20 percent of their protein intake from animals. Yet they are in a collective state of crisis, with more than 34 percent of fisheries overfished, exacerbated by open access regimes and capacity-increasing subsidies. Although the literature on subsidies is large, this report fills significant knowledge gaps using new data and methods. In doing so, it enhances understanding of the scale and impact of subsidies and offers solutions to reform or repurpose them in efficient and equitable ways. The aim is to enhance understanding of the magnitude, consequences and drivers of policy successes and failures in order to render reforms more achievable. Monthly Labor Review, 2004. Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects, current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews. Agricultural Trade Liberalization and the Least Developed Countries Niek Koning, Per Pinstrup-Andersen, 2007-05-07. Developing countries as a group stand to gain very substantially from trade reform in agricultural commodities. Agricultural Trade Liberalization and the Least Developed Countries is the first book to address important questions relating to this subject. The authors are world-renowned experts on international trade and development and they address a very important and timely issue. The EU Budget: The UK Rebate and the CAP - Phasing them both out? Jorge Núñez Ferrer, 2007. The CEPS Task Force on the EU budget began its deliberations shortly after the December 2005 Council Decision embracing all aspects of the budget and culminating after more than a year of preparation in this report. This report offers a structure for evaluating the EU's expenditures and future reform options based on a set of guiding principles drawn from the EU Treaties and precepts of good governance. It goes on to identify the misallocation of resources as a central cause of the net balance disputes that plague the system and undermine its fairness. To ensure that the EU is able to act in areas of real value, the report concludes that improvements in the rationale for the expenditures and an increase in the quality of interventions must occur in tandem with an elimination of distortions in the resources mechanism. Economics and Policies of an Enlarged Europe Carlo Altomonte, Mario Nava, 2006-01-01

Increasingly policies and laws commonly agreed within the EU shape the political and economic scenarios of nation states in Europe. However, the same European context is radically changing essentially due to three major recent developments: the adoption of the Euro, EU enlargement to the east, and the implementation of the Lisbon Strategy of structural reforms for growth and competitiveness. The book presents a thorough economic analysis of these three events and of their implications for both existing and potential EU policies and objectives. Carlo Altomonte and Mario Nava have written a very rigorous text in an accessible and jargon-free style ensuring easy acquisition of invaluable insights into the European economic set-up and the possible evolution of EU policies, including an update on the reform of the Growth and Stability Pact and of the 2007-13 Financial Perspectives. The accessibility of economic concepts combined with the methodological rigour of this up-to-date text will be of great interest to both policy makers and students.

Jack Goody between Social Anthropology and World History

Chris Hann, Han F. Vermeulen, A giant of British social anthropology. Jack Goody (1919-2015) laboured for sixty years to transcend the view that anthropology was the study of other cultures. He wanted to move it in the direction of a more sociological, postcolonial, comparative social science. The most important precondition for this science was the freeing of world history from centuries of Eurocentric bias. From his base in Cambridge, Goody's influence and inspiration spread out internationally. In Germany, as a long-term adviser to the Max Planck Society, he played a key role in the establishment of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle Saale in 1999. This volume presents twelve Goody Lectures delivered in Halle between 2011 and 2022, together with an unpublished lecture given in 2004 by Goody himself and biographical and bibliographical essays by the editors.
