Monitoring Digital Inclusion in the Nordic-Baltic region Nordic Council of Ministers Secretariat, 2022-02-08 Available online <https://pub.norden.org/nord2022/007> This study focuses on how we can bridge the digital gaps that digitalisation brings about. It has to be top of mind to leave no one behind by thinking inclusiveness in to every part of the digital transformation of our societies. Through cooperation, knowledge gathering, monitoring and policy actions on digital inclusion, it is possible to drive a sustainable and inclusive digital transformation forward. The study provides a knowledge based foundation for potential common Nordic Baltic actions on digital inclusion. It is structured by four thematic areas: Defining digital inclusion, Monitoring digital inclusion, Snapshot of digital inclusion and Nordic Baltic added value. The study is performed by the consortium Digital Europe and funded by the Nordic Council of Ministers MR DIGITAL.

The Oxford Handbook of Popular Music in the Nordic Countries Fabian Holt, Antti-Ville Kärjä, 2017-07-03 Popular music has come to play a significant role in the political and cultural history of the Nordic countries. Research on the region's culture has largely followed national narratives created by political and economic institutions, even as cultural life in the region, which spans a large area of northern Europe and the North Atlantic, displays more complex geographies and evolving global dynamics. As the first of its kind, The Oxford Handbook of Popular Music in the Nordic Countries offers a series of exemplary studies of music in these transnational dynamics in the specific context of the region's cultures and natural environments, written by the foremost experts in the field. Chapters highlight and challenge music's place in exotic images of the North and in transnational environmentalism, tourism, racism and media industries. The Handbook illustrates how transnational dynamics evolve and shape musical life and the institutional spheres of policy, education and research.

National Symbols at the Olympic Games Jörg Krieger, 2025-02-17 This provocative book makes the case for the complete removal of national symbolism in the Olympic Games. Focusing on the case of national flags at the Olympic Games, it explores the history of national symbols at the Olympics and asks what this issue can tell us about the politicisation of sport in the twenty-first century. Drawing on multi-disciplinary research from history, political science and sociology and exploring the link between historical processes and the experiences of individuals, the book attempts to deconstruct the global sport system and its traditions. It argues that the history of flags is essentially the history of nationalism itself, impacted by power interests and by exploring the lesser-known Olympic histories of athletes such as American boxer Oscar De La Hoya or those from the Faroe Islands, the book explores the complex links between national symbolism and international sport. It concludes with a controversial set of proposals for breaking those links, including a new tradition that would symbolically lock up national flags as part of the opening ceremony of Olympic Games. Thought provoking and concise, this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the politics, sociology, history or governance of sport or in nationalism, international organisations or the history of protest.

The Faroe Islands Jonathan Wylie, 2014-07-15 Stranded in a stormy corner of the North Atlantic, midway between Norway and Iceland, the Faroe Islands are part of the unknown Western Europe, a region of recent economic development and subnational peoples facing uncertain futures This book tells the remarkable story of the Faroes cultural survival since their Viking settlement in the early ninth century At first an unruly little republic the islands soon became tributary to Norway dwindled into a Danish Norwegian mercantilist fiefdom and in 1816 were made a Danish province Today however they are an internally self governing Danish dependency with a prosperous export fishery and a rich intellectual life carried out in the local language Faroese Jonathan Wylie an anthropologist who has done extensive field work in the Faroes creates here a vivid picture of everyday life and affairs of state over the centuries using sources ranging from folkloric texts to parliamentary minutes and from census data to travelers tales He argues that the Faroes long economic stagnation preserved an archaic way of life that was seriously threatened by their economic renaissance in the nineteenth century especially as this was accompanied by a closer political incorporation into Denmark The Faroese accommodated increasingly profound social change by selectively restating their literary and historical heritage Their success depended on domesticating a Danish ideology glorifying folkish ways and so claiming a nationality separate from Denmark s The book concludes by comparing the Faroes nationality without nationhood to the contrasting situations of their closest neighbors Iceland and Shetland The Faroe Islands is an important contribution to Scandinavian as well as regional and ethnic studies and to the growing literature combining the insights and techniques of anthropology and history Engagingly written and richly illustrated it will also appeal to scholars in other fields and to anyone intrigued by the lands and peoples of the North

Lessons From The Arctic Emily Tsui,Thomas S Axworthy,Sara French,2020-08-06 Lessons from the Arctic The Role of Regional Government in International Affairs is a collection of articles written by twenty six leading and emerging scholars from across the circumpolar region Each author assesses and explores the processes of regional governance in the Arctic from an interdisciplinary perspective The topics include Indigenous internationalism paradiplomacy federalism global institution building and more Recognition of vocational education and training in the Nordic countries Nordic Council of Ministers Secretariat,2023-05-22 Available online <https://pub.norden.org/temanord2023/516> Nordic qualifications of vocational education and training are in many ways quite similar but at the same time there are certain differences This report gives a description and comparison of the Nordic qualifications of vocational education and training at secondary and post secondary school level EQF level 3-5 The report also describes and compares the Nordic recognition schemes regarding qualifications of vocational education and training and gives recommendations on future Nordic collaboration Islam in the Nordic and Baltic Countries Göran Larsson,2009-05-07 Although Muslims are now an important presence in Europe little is known about the Muslim communities that exist in the Nordic and Baltic regions of Europe This is the first comprehensive and detailed study of the history context and development of Islamic institutions and Muslim groups in Sweden Norway Denmark and Finland and includes chapters on Islam in Estonia Latvia Lithuania Iceland and the Faroe Islands With contributions by academics with long experience of the Muslim communities in question based on original research this volume presents new and important perspectives within a comparative and regional framework Islam in Nordic and Baltic Countries will be an important reference work for students of European history and Islamology and will be valuable to all researchers and scholars interested in the development of Islam and Muslim communities at the strategic heart of Northern Europe

Migration, Adult Language Learning and Multilingualism Anna-Elisabeth Holm, 2023-11-23 This book extends lines of inquiry at the nexus of migration adult language learning and multilingualism illuminating the lived experiences of migrants in the Faroe Islands and critical new insights into sociolinguistics from the periphery Building on recent epistemological shifts in research on minoritised languages this volume integrates threads from scholarship on migration studies new speakers and critical sociolinguistics in examining blue collar workplaces in the Faroe Islands In bringing greater attention to these contexts Holm showcases how these sites when analysed via an ethnographic lens reflect both the changing sociolinguistic landscape at the periphery in light of globalisation and adult language learners commitment to language learning as a form of personal and social investment In shedding light on the specific case of Faroese the volume critically reflects on the specific challenges involved in acquiring a small language in a bilingual context and on those impacting the sustainability of minoritised languages including the increasing use of English and the opportunities for stakeholders in language policy and planning to promote greater social inclusion for adult migrants This volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in critical sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology language education migration studies and applied linguistics
