Transportation & Technology in Iran, 1800-1940: : Chapar, Carts, Carriages, Automobiles, Bicycles, Motor Cycles, Lodgings, Sewing Machines, Typewriters & Pianos Willem Floor, 2023-08-21 Only 100 years ago the main means of transportation in Iran was by quadruped Transportation All these processes are detailed in the book Like cars bicycles and motorcycles also were increasingly used as of the 1920s thus increasing choice in people's mobility More road traffic also implied that travelers needed places to spend the night and eat The change from caravanserais to guest houses and hotels is discussed in part 3 These changes in transportation methods did not come alone for other modern tools of change such as the sewing machine and the typewriter also made their appearance and had a major impact on people's availability and use of time Finally the piano made its entry onto the Iranian musical scene and although not perfectly in tune with the traditional Iranian musical system it is now as much part of music making in Iran as the tar and santur part 4 of the book All these changes and new technologies did not happen overnight or without problems and slow adoption initially was limited to the upper class. However, with falling prices and changing needs and policies, these new technologies eventually reached a larger public, and the idea that they once were exotic and out of reach is now inconceivable to Iranians. The studies in this book provide a new vantage point and understanding of the transfer of modern technology for scholars of the social, economic, and cultural history of the Middle East.

En las últimas décadas del siglo XIX las grandes tiendas lideran un significativo cambio en las estrategias de venta del comercio de Santiago, el que se va modernizando al ritmo de las profundas transformaciones que experimenta la sociedad de la época. Los comerciantes emplean profusamente la publicidad y organizan variados eventos con el fin de atraer público hasta sus establecimientos. Contemporary Indonesian Fashion Alessandra Lopez y Royo, 2019-10-31. Indonesian fashion has undergone a period of rapid growth over the last three decades. This book explores how, through years of social, political, and cultural upheaval, the country's fashion has moved away from colonial fashion and national dress to claim its own distinct identity as contemporary fashion in a global world. With specific reference to women's wear, Contemporary Indonesian Fashion explores the diversity and complexity of the country's sartorial offerings which weave together local textile traditions like batik and ikat making with contemporary narratives. The book questions concepts of tradition and modernity in the developing world, taking stock of the elite consumption of luxury brands and the large scale manufacturing of fast fashion and introduces us to the rise of new trends such as busana muslim or modest wear, creating a portrait of a vibrant and growing national and increasingly international industry. Exploring clothing in shopping malls, on the catwalk, in magazines and online, the book examines how Indonesian fashion is made, presented and consumed, combining research in Indonesia with analysis and personal reflection. Contemporary Indonesian Fashion ultimately questions the deeply entrenched eurocentrism of global fashion, simultaneously interrogating current homogenizing beauty and body image discourses posited as universal by pointing to absences, silences and erasures as reflected by contemporary Indonesian fashion. Hence the looking glass of the title aptly illustrated the book offers a new perspective on a rapidly developing new fashion capital Jakarta.

Victorian Fashion Accessories Ariel Beaujot, 2013-08-15. In Victorian England, women's accessories were always much more than incidental finishing touches to their elaborate dress. Accessories helped women to fashion their identities. Victorian Fashion Accessories explores how women's use of gloves, parasols, fans and vanity sets revealed their class, gender and colonial aspirations. The colour and fit of a pair of gloves could help a middle class woman indicate her class aspirations. The sun filtering through a rose colored parasol would provide a woman of a certain age with the glow of youth. The use of a fan was a socially acceptable means of attracting interest and flirting. Even the choice of vanity set on a woman's bedroom dresser reflected her complicity with colonial expansion. By paying attention to the particular details of women's accessories, we discover the beliefs embedded in these artefacts and enhance our understanding of the culture at large. Beaujot's engaging prose illuminates the complex identities of the women who used accessories in the Victorian culture that created and consumed them. Victorian Fashion Accessories is essential reading for students and scholars of history, gender studies, cultural studies, material culture and fashion studies, as well as anyone interested in the history of dress.

Fashion and Beauty in the Time of Asia S. Heijin Lee, Christina H. Moon, Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu, 2019-06-03. How transnational modernity is taking shape in and in relation to Asia. Fashion and Beauty in the Time of Asia considers the role of bodily aesthetics in the shaping of Asian modernities and the formation of the so-called Asian Century. S. Heijin Lee, Christina H. Moon and Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu train our eyes on sites as far flung, varied and intimate as Guangzhou and Los Angeles, Saigon and Seoul, New York and Toronto. They map the transregional connections, ever evolving aspirations and sensibilities and new worlds and life paths forged through engagements with fashion and beauty. Contributors consider American influence on plastic surgery in Korea, Vietnamese debates about the fashionable and the costs and commitments demanded of those who make and wear fast fashion, from Chinese garment workers to Nepalese nail technicians in New York who are mandated to dress fashionably. In doing so, this interdisciplinary anthology moves beyond common characterizations of Asians and the Asian diaspora as simply abject.
