The Motional Improvisation of Al Wunder H.R. Elliott, 2021-05-16 The Motional Improvisation of Al Wunder takes readers on a journey through the life history creative genealogies and unique working processes of one of the master teachers of Euro American postmodern movement based improvisational performance who has until now received scant critical attention The book offers a long overdue examination of the significant impact made by an important figure on grassroots movement based improvisational performance in 1960s 1970s America and in Australia from the 1980s onwards It revisits the work of groundbreaking New York choreographer Alwin Nikolais with whom Wunder trained and for whom he later taught in the 1960s covers collaborations with founders of Action Theater Ruth Zaporah and Motivity Aerial Dance Terry Sendgraff as part of the explosion of improvisation in San Francisco in the 1970s and tracks the consolidation of a unique pedagogy that would see hundreds of students learn how to map their performative creativity in Melbourne from the 1980s onwards. It conducts a fascinating investigation into the wellsprings of Wunder's approach to improvised performance as an end in itself, covering teaching innovations such as his use of the Hum Drum, positive feedback, personal power sources and articulators. It includes valuable contributions from a number of ex-students and established Australian artists in dance, music and visual art who share the profound impact Wunder has made on their creative practices. This book will be a valuable resource to movement, dance, improvisation students and teachers at undergraduate and postgraduate level and independent artists drawn to movement improvisation as performance.

Mysteries and Dreams: the French in Oceania Sylvie

Largeaud-Ortega, Lorenz Gonschor, 2025-10-14 Oceania has been the source of mysteries and dreams from the first contact with Europe onwards, both for Indigenous Oceanians and outsiders. Mysteries and Dreams: The French in Oceania is a collection of cross-disciplinary essays that explore the mysteries, allures and questionings raised by Indigenous Oceanians and French people about their mutually different worldviews as well as their dreams, aspirations or disillusionments as they navigate their relationships. With a strong focus on reciprocity, this original project analyzes diverse forms of French association with Oceania and the responses engendered by Indigenous communities, authors and artists as they reshape French narratives. Organized along three lines: history, literature and arts, this innovative lens offers unprecedented examinations of hitherto unexplored Oceanian and French figures involved in Oceania, bringing to the fore Marist missionary Xavier Montrouzier, influential politicians Charles de Varigny and Auguste Marques, playwrights and artists Pierre Gope and Greg Semu, and filmmakers Sima Urale and douard Deluc. It also offers fresh postcolonial approaches to better-known figures such as Paris Commune convicts Louis Michel and Henri Rochefort, prominent authors like Titaua Peu, Selina Tusitala Marsh, Teresia Teaiwa, Vilsoni Hereniko, and douard Glissant, and widely discussed artists like Yuki Kihara. It also critically engages individuals representing the colonial gaze such as Pierre Loti, Allan Hughson and Paul Gauguin. Spanning across Oceania from the Solomon Islands to Rapa Nui, Hawai'i to Aotearoa, New Zealand, Tahiti and Kanaky, New Caledonia, it shows the wide impacts of the French on this vast region. Bridging together Anglophone and Francophone Oceania, this volume is an authoritative and enlightening reference to scholars and students in postcolonial Pacific Island studies, to Indigenous and non-Indigenous Oceanians wishing to discover interactive processes of change in their region's past and present, and more generally to all outsiders who might some day have felt inclined to fall under the spell of an imaginary Oceania.
