Fasti Ovid,1931 Ovid, Fasti 1 Steven Green,2017-07-31 This commentary provides a detailed analysis of the first book of Ovid s Fasti a complex poem which takes as its central framework the Roman calendar in the late Augustan early Tiberian period and purports to deal with its religious festivals and their origins Book 1 covers the month of January and has proven to be particularly challenging to readers in light of the apparent revision reworking of the text undertaken by the poet whilst in exile This commentary the most extensive yet on any single book of the poem locates the text of Book 1 firmly in its literary historical and socio political contexts and seeks both to incorporate and build on the recent scholarship on the poem In light of the special nature of Book 1 the commentary is prefaced by two introductory sections the second of which tackles head on the problems and dynamics of post exilic reworking of the text
