Confidencial Es una narración de aventuras más tiempos. El dramático relato de un naufragio es una historia de supervivencia en un entorno hostil. La historia del choque entre dos hombres de clase social diferentes y una reflexión sobre cómo contamos las historias y cómo las manipulamos. Y por encima de todo, una lectura apasionante. Mauricio Bach, La Vanguardia. Uno de los mejores libros de no ficción que he leído. The Guardian. David Grann ha creado su propio subgénero de no ficción narrativa, una apasionante mezcla de historia periodística y true crime. CBS News. Glorioso final. Un relato escrito con firmeza implacable, una narración pormenorizada que no se puede dejar. The Washington Post. Te mantendrá en sus garras hasta su impredecible final. Los Angeles Times. David Grann pertenece a un selecto club de escritores aquellos cuyos libros de historia son tan divertidos que casi parecen inventos. Sus construcciones narrativas son tan efectivas, los diálogos tan apropiados, que los lectores hasta ahora hastiados podrán pensar que todo ha sido inventado o retorcido por Grann para aportar un tono novelesco. The Spectator. En manos de David Grann, la historia trasciende su ambientación naval. Grann es un maestro de los relatos emocionantes en lugares remotos. Ha escrito un libro tan sobrecogedor y absorbente que supera a sus libros anteriores. The Economist. Una narración apasionante y que engancha hasta el final. The Irish Times.

Writing-between-Worlds Ottmar Ette, 2016-02-22. This book proposes that there is no better or more complex way to access a community, a society, an era, and its cultures than through literature. For millennia, literature from a wide variety of geocultural areas has gathered knowledge about life, about survival, and about living together without either falling into discursive or disciplinary specializations or functioning as a regulatory mechanism for cultural knowledge. Literature is able to offer its readers knowledge through direct participation in the form of step-by-step intellectual and affective experiences. Through this ability, it can reach and affect audiences across great spatial and temporal distances. Literature, what different times and cultures have been able to understand as such in a broad sense, has always been characterized by its transareal and transcultural origins and effects. It is the product of many logics and it teaches us to think polylogically rather than monologically. Literature is an experiment in living and living in a state of experimentation. About the author: Ottmar Ette has been Chair of Romance Literature at the University of Potsdam, Germany, since 1995. He is Honorary Member of the Modern Language Association of America (MLA), elected in 2014; member of the Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities, elected in 2013; and regular member of the Academia Europaea since 2010.

A las puertas de Numancia África Ruh, 2019-04-01. Cuando tu enemigo puede convertirse en tu hogar. En el año 154 a.C., la joven aristócrata Cassia se ve embarcada en un viaje accidental a Hispania, donde los feroces celtíberos se han rebelado contra el poder de Roma. Su intención es zarpar de vuelta a casa en el primer barco, pero sus planes se truncan cuando se convierte en la prisionera de una tribu de salvajes y debe casarse con su líder, Leukón, para sobrevivir. Atrapada en la ciudad de Numancia, Cassia se siente cautivada por el primitivo y fascinante mundo de los celtíberos y por la nobleza de su esposo, el rey. Y comprende que debe tomar una decisión: permanecer fiel a Roma o entregarse a su nueva vida a pesar de la guerra que amenaza con destruir aquello que ama.
