El Capitán Veneno Pedro Antonio de Alarcón,1914 El Capitan Veneno New Zealand,Pedro Antonio De Alarcón,2018-01-31 Excerpt from El Capitan Veneno Captain Venom Poison The chief reason which has caused the translator to publish this little novel is that it seems to him to be one of the most delightful and satisfactory short stories with which he is acquainted It has both humor and pathos and a most charming heroine who has courage decision and womanly pride and at the same time a most engaging gentleness and feminine sympathy The hero a brutally frank half savage but brave man laboring under the delusion that he hates women has some claim to nobility of character The story is an interesting contrast to the present tendency in novels toward studies of discontented women and distressing social conditions Another reason for publishing it is that we in this country now that we are trying to cultivate closer trade relations with Spanish America should know something of Spanish literature both of the old world and the new Such a knowledge would help us to understand the people with whom we have to deal About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

distrustful of lively imaginations insensible to every art except the art of war hostile to beautiful phrases today spoke with the certain emphasis of the best taste in the style of the old time general like Napoleon at the pyramids Talking to the Moors through an interpreter his words were animated by his attitude his gestures his looks He questioned them with energy orated and declaimed with eloquence now he would rail at them now flatter them The Moors read in his face the sentiments that animated him and the degree of truth of shrewdness of calculation or of passion that each phrase held El Capitán veneno
