Sell,Louise M. Burkhart,Elizabeth R. Wright,2012-11-27 European religious drama adapted for an Aztec audience Don Bartolom de Alva was a mestizo who rose within New Spain s ecclesiastical hierarchy when people of indigenous heritage were routinely excluded from the priesthood In 1640 and 1641 he translated several theatrical pieces from Spanish into Nahuatl yet this prodigious accomplishment remained virtually unknown for centuries Nahuatl Theater Volume 3 presents for the first time in English the complete dramatic works of Alva the only known plays from Spain s Golden Age adapted into the lively world of Nahuatl

language theater Alva's translations The Great Theater of the World The Animal Prophet and the Fortunate Patricide The Mother of the Best and a farcical intermezzo represent ambitious attempts to add complex Baroque dramatic pieces by such literary giants as Lope de Vega and Pedro Calderón de la Barca to the repertory of Nahuatl theater otherwise dominated by sober one act religious plays grounded in medieval tradition The Spanish sources and Alva's Nahuatl set on facing pages with their English translations show how Alva Mexicanized the plays by incorporating Nahuatl linguistic conventions and referencing local symbolism and social life In their introductory essays the editors offer contextual and interpretive information that provides an entrée into this rich material As the only known adaptations of these theatrical works into a Native American language these plays stand as fine literature in their own right Todos Santos in Rural Tlaxcala Hugo Gino Nutini, 2014-07-14 The cult of the dead centered on Todos Santos the All Saints Day All Souls Day celebration is one of the most important aspects of Mesoamerican Indian and mestizo religion Focusing on rural Tlaxcala in Mexico Hugo Nutini presents a thorough description and analysis of the cult in its syncretic structural and expressive dimensions and describes its development from the original confrontation of pre Hispanic polytheism and Spanish Catholicism through colonial times until the disintegration of the system of folk religions that is even now occurring The discussion of the expressive component of the cult of the dead is a crucial contribution of the study Professor Nutini shows that symbolism can be an adjunct to expressive studies but not an end in itself In addition he postulates a theory that may serve as a model for studies of the combination and reconciliation of religious beliefs in other contexts Emphasizing folk theology teleology and eschatology rather than the mechanical and administrative components more frequently studied in works on Mesoamerican Indian and mestizo religions he concludes that the local system is monolatrous rather than monotheistic Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Chasing the Sun Richard Cohen, 2011-08-04 The Sun is so powerful so much bigger than us that it is a terrifying subject Yet though we depend on it we take it for granted Amazingly the first book of its kind CHASING THE SUN is a cultural and scientific history of our relationship with the star that gives us life Richard Cohen applying the same mix of wide ranging reference and intimate detail that won outstanding reviews for By the Sword travels from the ancient Greek astronomers to modern day solar scientists from Stonehenge to Antarctica site of the solar eclipse of 2003 when penguins were said to sing Mexico's Aztecs to the Norwegian city of Tromsø where for two months of the year there is no Sun at all He introduces us to the crucial sunspot cycle in modern economics the religious dances of Indian tribesmen the histories of sundials and calendars the plight of migrating birds the latest theories of global warming and

Galileo recording his discoveries in code for fear of persecution And throughout there is the rich Sun literature from the writings of Homer through Dante and Nietzsche to Keats Shelley and beyond Blindingly impressive and hugely readable this is a tour de force of narrative non fiction
