The Administrator ,1990      Scholars of Faith Usha Sanyal,2020-06-12 Since the late twentieth century new institutions of Islamic learning for South Asian women and girls have emerged rapidly particularly in urban areas and in the diaspora This book reflects upon the increased access of Muslim girls and women to religious education and the purposes to which they seek to put their learning Scholars of Faith is based on ethnographic fieldwork in two institutions of religious learning the Jami a Nur madrasa in Shahjahanpur North India and Al Huda International an NGO that offers online courses on Islam especially the Qur an In this monograph Sanyal argues that Islamic religious education in the early twenty first century particularly for women is thoroughly modern and that this modernity reflected in both old and new interpretations of religious texts allows young South Asian women to evaluate their place in traditional structures of patriarchal authority in the public and private spheres in novel ways

Introduction to Eritrea Gilad James, PhD, Eritrea is a northeast African country shares its borders with Sudan to the west Ethiopia to the south and Djibouti to the southeast It also has a coastline along the Red Sea The country has a population of over 5 million and its capital is Asmara The official language of Eritrea is Tigrinya but Arabic and English are also widely spoken The country is known for its history of colonization and struggle for independence as well as its diverse ethnic groups and unique culture Eritrea has a developing economy with agriculture and mining being the main sectors Its government is a presidential republic with a single party system Eritrea has a long and complex history with colonization beginning with Italy in the late 1800s The country was later occupied by Britain after World War II and then annexed by Ethiopia in 1962 Eritrea gained its independence in 1993 after a 30 year war for independence from Ethiopia Since then the country has faced various challenges including ongoing border disputes with Ethiopia and criticism for its lack of political freedoms and human rights abuses However the country has also made progress in areas such as healthcare and education Despite economic and political challenges Eritrea remains a resilient and culturally diverse nation

Desirable Belief Margaret D. Kamitsuka, 2024-09-10 Desirable Belief A Theology of Eros is a work of critical and constructive theology informed by the phenomenon of erotic love Within the Christian tradition passion has long been associated with sinful lust incurring shaming and accusations of narcissism Contemporary theologies of eros on the other hand extol sexual desire as God given even sacred This book eschews these two extremes through an examination of the complexities of love and desire as narrated in biblical texts allegorized by church fathers manifested in the lives of mystics analyzed in psychodynamic theory and depicted in poetry literature and Christian art The volume pairs writers on love as different as Augustine and Jane Austen or Angela of Foligno and Simone de Beauvoir Desirable Belief argues that eros is human and as such informs the Chalcedonian claim of Christ as fully God and fully human A christological perspective that takes eros into account in turn affects the doctrine of the bodily ascension of Christ the nature of resurrected bodies in heaven and whether trinitarian impassibility is still a coherent concept

Contemporary Jewish Religious Thought Arthur Allen Cohen, Paul R. Mendes-Flohr, 1988 A collection of 140 essays by renowned figures on the fundamental concepts beliefs and movements in historical and contemporary Jewish thought Charity chosen people death culture family freedom history love immortality myth prayer science tradition and Torah are among the subjects addressed in this handbook of Jewish experience and thought      Religious Books and Serials in Print ,1982      The Alpha Beta Story ,1973      First and Second Chronicles Paul K. Hooker,2001-01-01 Presents the first and second Chronicles as a theological reflection on the story of Israel s faith using the narrative of Samuel and Kings reaffirming Israel s position as the chosen people of God and tracing the role of worship in Israel s history as a nation Original      Healing Insanity Patrick E. Iroegbu,2010-06-01 Healing Insanity A Study of Igbo Medicine in Contemporary Nigeria is an original and in depth study on endogenous medical system in an African society It is craftily written and provides solid insight through case studies and theory into how insanity affects patients and the society Particularly it explores various collective representations and strategies regarding insanity and healing as it examines the healing institutions healers and ritual cults The central question is given the patterns of healing how do the Igbo shape the incidence and symptoms of insanity define its aetiology and provide healers with culture specific resources and skills to address this illness The focus became increasingly centred on bodily semantics and endogenous knowledge systems and practices Dr Patrick Iroegbu s work is a very valuable and rare study and has appeared at a desirable time It is for an African society a comprehensive study of the many ways Igbo people in their practical routinelike attitudes and body centred experiences as well as in their more reflective aetiologic knowledge and healing institutions relate to the phenomenon of insanity or ara in the cultural parlance As the first of its kind reminiscent of and assured by the various remarks of Igbo scholars and leaders at various meetings and discourses the task this work has set out to accomplish is a very brave one The author s account of his fieldwork experiences and adopted techniques illustrates his initiation revealing him as a genuine ethnographer who is a friend of people and at ease with his field With both the far seeing and inspiring analysis of Igbo medicine life and culture accounted for in the work the book stands out for ethnographers teachers students leaders policymakers and the general public This is a book that deserves to be read as it shapes the critical path toward understanding ways of healing insanity in a culture specific context crosscutting perspectives for a relationship between indigenous healing and the biomedical sphere Prof Ren Devisch Africa Research Centre University of Leuven This book is written with a clear purpose for everyone to read to understand and heal insanity and indeed provides a thick piece of cultural philosophy and vernacular of Igbo medicine in hopes of putting cultural wisdom in pursuit of integral health care development Prof Pantaleon Iroegbu Professor of Philosophy Major Seminary Ekpoma January 2006 To read this book as I did is to get the benefit of Dr Patrick Iroegbu s ethnographic insight for an archetypical African healing system in Igboland It offers a fascinating theory of symbolic release that speaks of African symbolic action and knowledge system Dr Paul Komba Esq University of Cambridge      China's Christianity ,2017-04-24 Among the assumptions interrogated in this volume edited by Anthony E Clark is if Christianity should most accurately be identified as Chinese when it displays vestiges of Chinese cultural aesthetics or whether Chinese Christianity is more indigenous when it is allowed to form its own theological framework In other words can theological uniqueness also function as a legitimate Chinese Christian cultural expression in the formation of its own ecclesial identity Also central to what is explored in this book is how missionary influences consciously or unconsciously introduced seeds of independence into the cultural ethos of China's Christian community Chinese girls who pushed the limits of proper behaviour for example added to the larger sense of confidence as China's Christians began to resist the model of Christianity they had inherited from foreign missionaries Contributors are Robert E Carbonneau CP Christie Chui Shan Chow Amanda C R Clark Lydia Gerber Joseph W Ho Joseph Tse hei Lee Audrey Seah Jean Paul Wiest and Xiaoxin Wu
