Far To The Edge:

Village on the Edge Michael French Smith, 2002-06-30 Kragur village lies on the rugged north shore of Kairiru a steep volcanic island just off the north coast of Papua New Guinea In 1998 the village looked much as it had some twenty two years earlier when author Michael French Smith first visited But he soon found that changing circumstances were shaking things up Village on the Edge weaves together the story of Kragur villagers struggle to find their own path toward the future with the story of Papua New Guinea s travails in the post independence era Smith writes of his own experiences as well living and working in Papua New Guinea and trying to understand the complexities of an unfamiliar way of life To tell all these stories he delves into ghosts magic myths ancestors bookkeeping tourism the World Bank the Holy Spirits and the meaning of progress and development Village on the Edge draws on the insights of cultural anthropology but is written for anyone interested in Papua New Guinea

The Far Edges of the Fourth Genre Sean Prentiss, Joe Wilkins, 2014-03-01 Though creative nonfiction has been around since Montaigne St Augustine and Seneca we ve only just begun to ask how this genre works why it functions the way it does and where its borders reside But for each question we ask another five or ten questions roil to the surface And each of these questions it seems requires a more convoluted series of answers What s more the questions students of creative nonfiction are drawn to during class discussions the ones they argue the longest and loudest are the same ideas debated by their professors in the hallways and at the corner bar In this collection sixteen essential contemporary creative nonfiction writers reflect on whatever far dark edge of the genre they find themselves most drawn to The result is this fascinating anthology that wonders at the historical and contemporary borderlands between fiction and nonfiction the illusion of time on the page the mythology of memory poetry process and the use of received forms the impact of technology on our writerly lives immersive research and the power of witness a chronology and collage and what we write and why we write Contributors Nancer Ballard H Lee Barnes Kim Barnes Mary Clearman Blew Joy Castro Robin Hemley Judith Kitchen Brenda Miller Ander Monson Dinty W Moore Sean Prentiss Lia Purpura Erik Reece Jonathan Rovner Bob Shacochis and Joe Wilkins
