Bulletin Modern Greek Studies Association,1996 Journal of Mediterranean Studies ,1992 National Geographic Traveler Greece Mike Gerrard,2014 Combining in depth information with high quality maps and photographs this guide describes major cultural architectural and historical sites and includes commissioned walks and drives An extensive travel planner details practicalities including where to find the best tavernas and the finest gold jewellery Memories of Asia Minor in Contemporary Greek Culture Kristina Gedgaudaitė,2021-11-18 The Greco Turkish War 1919 1922 in Asia Minor and the Population Exchange that followed led to the forced displacement of more than 1 5 million people who became entangled in the nation building processes of both Greece and Turkey This book examines the memories that shaped Asia Minor refugee identity focusing on the ways in which these memories continue to reverberate in contemporary Greek culture It explores how memories of Asia Minor frame wider social debates foster affective alliances inform different notions of belonging and provide a toolkit for addressing contemporary concerns Taking the reader across a wide range of cultural works history textbooks comics theatre documentary and fiction films news footage and photography the book shows how these works have become means for individuals and communities to contribute to the process of history making While keeping its focus on present day Greece Memories of Asia Minor joins wider global debates over contested pasts legacies of war and refugeehood Athena Magazine ,1991 Sea of Literatures Angela Fabris,Albert Göschl,Steffen Schneider,2023-12-18 Mediterranean studies flourish in literary and cultural studies but concepts of the Mediterranean and the theories and methods they use are very disparate This is because the Mediterranean is not a simple geographical or historical unity but a multiplicity a network of highly interconnected elements each of which is different and individual Talking about Mediterranean literature raises the question of whether the connectivity of Mediterranean literature can or should be limited in some way by constructing an inside and an outside of the Mediterranean What kind of connectivity and fragmentation do literary texts produce how do they build and interrupt references to the real to fictional forms of representation to history but also to other texts and discourses how do they create and deny communication and how do they engage with and reflect literary and non literary concepts of the Mediterranean These and other questions are considered and discussed in the over twenty contributions gathered in this volume Greece in Print ,2000 The Rough Guide to Greece Marc Dubin,John Fisher,Nick Edwards,Geoff Garvey,2008-05-01 Make the most of your time with The Rough Guide to Greece the ultimate handbook to the Greek mainland and islands right down to the tiniest one village outcrops including an overview of all of Greece s highlights from Mount Pilio s lush countryside and Prespa s beautiful lakes to the fish market in Thessaloniki and the famous oracle site in Delphi There are sections on Greek cuisine Wild Greece and Orthodox Festivals hundreds of reviews of all the best places to eat drink and sleep for all budgets plus practical tips on a wide range of activities from bird watching and windsurfing to hiking and cycling The guide also takes a detailed look at the country s history culture mythology and wildlife and comes complete with maps and plans for every region The Poetics of the Margins Rossella Riccobono, 2011 This volume contains a selection of the proceedings of a conference on European problems of identity titled Europe and its Others which was held in St Andrews in July 2007 It looks at some of the histories and stories that connect the European margins to an imagined or imaginary centre of this complex continent as seen mostly from within and with self reflective insights from literary socio historical and cinematic perspectives By following the marginal route created by the essays the volume juxtaposes as in a mosaic a range of artistic discourses produced in many European languages Each of these discourses highlights a different perception of belonging or not belonging to Europe and each of these discourses brings to the fore in its respective society a fresh perspective on new European territories seen not as the other but rather as contiguous tiles in a mosaic of idiosyncrasies Lying one next to the other these territories engage in dialogue poetically harmoniously or dissonantly in an attempt to create through their juxtaposition an enigmatic poetic discourse of the margins The Cicadas Vangelīs Raptopoulos, 1996 They're the gang that can't shoot straight tough guy wannabes straight out of a Greek subtitled version of Thieves Like Us downmarket motorcycle punks no Hell's angels these dead end kids from the urban depths with foulmouthed girlfriends and parents as remote as prosperity Innocents with attitude Stamati the bumbling ringleader his faithful side kick Takouli and Foti a self styled strong silent type who falls for a horny journalist form a threesome with no past no future and a present as insouciant and short lived as a cicada Armed with little more than an empty shotgun and plenty of bravado the three blow their big chance a hold up at a district tax office Their Technicolor dream comes unraveled on a furious motorcycle ride north in a comic brawl on a deserted beach and in the final ignominy of capture under the flashing lights of a provincial disco Life suggests The Cicadas is as tough nasty and indifferent as a B thriller Vangelis Raptopoulos characters sketched with sure handed empathy with a knife edged ear for the hard humor of the street throb with the fervid intensity of cicadas buzzing in the noonday heat Nothing in their voice intimated how soon they will die The Making of the Greek Genocide Erik Sjöberg, 2016-11-23 During and after World War I over one million Ottoman Greeks were expelled from Turkey a watershed moment in Greek history that resulted in hundreds of thousands of deaths And while few dispute the expulsion's tragic scope it remains the subject of fierce controversy as activists have fought for international recognition of an atrocity they consider comparable to the Armenian genocide This book provides a much needed analysis of the Greek genocide as cultural trauma Neither taking the genocide narrative for granted nor dismissing it outright Erik Sjöberg instead recounts how it emerged as a meaningful but contested collective memory with both nationalist and cosmopolitan dimensions Literature's Refuge William Stroebe, 2025-03-18 Stories silenced or sequestered by a century of mass displacement between Europe and the Middle East recovered and retold at last In 1923 the Greco Turkish Population Exchange uprooted and swapped nearly two million Christians and Muslims pacifying the so called Near East through ethnic partition and refugeehood This imposition of borders not only uprooted peoples from their place in the world it also displaced many of their stories from a place in world literature In Literature's Refuge William Stroebe recovers and weaves together work by fugitive writers oral storytellers readers copyists editors and translators dispersed by this massive unmixing of populations and the broader border logic that it set in motion Stroebe argues that two complementary forces emerged as a template for the Eastern Mediterranean's cultural landscape the modern border which reshuffled people through a system of filters and checkpoints and modern philology which similarly reshuffled their words and works Philologists and publishers defined modern literature by picking apart extracting reformatting or dispossessing refugee and diasporic texts across a racialized borderscape a gray zone of semi inclusion and semi exclusion semimobility and immobility Stroebe reaches into the chinks and crannies of this borderscape to reconstitute the rich textual geography between Greek Orthodoxy and Sunni Islam between Greek script Arabic script and Latin script literary traditions at the edges of Europe and the Middle East Doing so he offers a new methodological toolkit for rewriting the modern borderscapes of world literature Fodor's Greece ,2004
