ordinary families and how can we make sense of it now What questions should we be asking about guilt blame and responsibility In order to uncover how people thought about illicit sex illegitimacy and institutions Wills follows the tracks laid down in family stories and anecdotes She interprets the gaps as places where the past was both preserved and disavowed We are all born into families regardless of whether we are allowed to belong to them In Missing Persons Wills asks us to undertake a radical reshaping of our idea of the family We are all part of the historical archive the remembering and forgetting is in us whether we like it or not
