Fascinating Folly Dr Hocken His Fellow:

The Fascinating Folly Eric Hall McCormick, 1961 Contes étranges du Canada, 1959 Absurd Ambition E. H. McCormick, 2013-11-01 Eric McCormick was from about 1940 until his death in 1995 one of New Zealand's most distinguished writers and scholars. He pioneered the appreciation and study of the painter Francis Hodgkins and he wrote several biographies. The autobiographical fragments collected here have been edited to make a coherent volume tracing his origins in Taihape to school and university in Wellington to schoolteaching in Nelson to Cambridge and through his wartime experiences and role as editor of Centennial Publications. It includes his shrewd observations of social behaviour recorded with a dry wit.

Colonial Constructs Leonard Bell, 2013-11-01 How did the European settler perceive Mōri? What images of Mōri society and culture did European artists create for their distant audiences? What preconceptions and aesthetic models lay behind early European depictions of Mōri? These are some of the questions explored by art historian Leonard Bell in this major study of the relationship between the visual representation of Mōri and the ideology of colonialism. He explores the complex and unbalanced cultural interchange between Europeans and Mōri in nineteenth century New Zealand in addition to showing how the great range and variety of pictures often revealed more about the artists and their society and its attitudes than they did about Mōri themselves. This lively and readable book is well illustrated with examples of the artists' work and will be an important contribution to the understanding of colonial New Zealand and the role played by the artist in expressing and creating cultural patterns.

Rethinking Australia's Art History Susan Lowish, 2018-05-30 This book aims to redefine Australia's earliest art history by chronicling for the first time the birth of the category Aboriginal art, tracing the term's use through published literature in the late eighteenth, nineteenth, and early twentieth centuries. Susan Lowish reveals how the idea of Aboriginal art developed in the European imagination, manifested in early literature, and became a distinct classification with its own criteria and form. Part of the larger story of Aboriginal-European engagement, this book provides a new vision for an Australian art history reconciled with its colonial origins and in recognition of what came before the contemporary phenomena of Aboriginal art.
