Fascism in Film Marcia Landy, 2014-07-14 Through her study of the narrative themes and strategies of Italian commercial sound films of the fascist era Marcia Landy shows that cultural life under fascism was not monopolized by official propaganda Originally published in 1986 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Nonfiction Film Richard Barsam, 1992-11-22 Richard Barsam has given us as comprehensive a study of the origins and development of the nonfiction mode in motion pictures as we are ever likely to have in one volume He draws on all the major written sources and many which are little known and he shares with us many eloquent descriptions of the films themselves giving us a valuable textbook Richard Dyer MacCann superb work Historical Journal of Film Radio and Television The Italian Cinema Book Peter Bondanella, 2019-07-25

THE ITALIAN CINEMA BOOK is an essential guide to the most important historical aesthetic and cultural aspects of Italian cinema from 1895 to the present day With contributions from 39 leading international scholars the book is structured around six chronologically organised sections THE SILENT ERA 1895 22 THE BIRTH OF THE TALKIES AND THE FASCIST ERA 1922 45 POSTWAR CINEMATIC CULTURE 1945 59 THE GOLDEN AGE OF ITALIAN CINEMA 1960 80 AN AGE OF CRISIS TRANSITION AND CONSOLIDATION 1981 TO THE PRESENT NEW DIRECTIONS IN CRITICAL APPROACHES TO ITALIAN CINEMA Acutely aware of the contemporary rethinking of Italian cinema history Peter Bondanella has brought together a diverse range of essays which represent the cutting edge of Italian film theory and criticism This provocative collection will provide the film student scholar or enthusiast with a comprehensive understanding of the major developments in what might be called twentieth century Italy s greatest and most original art form Italian Fascism's Empire Cinema Ruth

Ben-Ghiat, 2015-02-11 Ruth Ben Ghiat provides the first in depth study of feature and documentary films produced under the auspices of Mussolini s government that took as their subjects or settings Italy s African and Balkan colonies These empire films were Italy s entry into an international market for the exotic The films engaged its most experienced and cosmopolitan directors Augusto Genina Mario Camerini as well as new filmmakers Roberto Rossellini who would make their marks in the postwar years Ben Ghiat sees these films as part of the aesthetic development that would lead to neo realism Shot in Libya Somalia and Ethiopia these movies reinforced Fascist racial and labor policies and were largely forgotten after the war Ben Ghiat restores them to Italian and international film history in this gripping account of empire war and the cinema of dictatorship Roberto Rossellini's Rome Open City Sidney Gottlieb, 2004-06-14 Roberto Rossellini s Rome Open City instantly markedly and permanently changed the landscape of film history Made at the end of World War II it has been

credited with initiating a revolution in and reinvention of modern cinema bold claims that are substantiated when its impact on how films are conceptualized made structured theorized circulated and viewed is examined This volume offers a fresh look at the production history of Rome Open City some of its key images and particularly its representation of the city and various types of women its cinematic influences and affinities the complexity of its political dimensions including the film's vision of political struggle and the political uses to which the film was put and the legacy of the film in public consciousness It serves as a well illustrated up to date and accessible introduction to one of the major achievements of filmmaking The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture Tom Brown, Belén Vidal, 2013-12-17 The biographical film or biopic is a staple of film production in all major film industries and yet within film studies its generic aesthetic and cultural significance has remained underexplored The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture fills this gap conceptualizing the biopic with a particular eye toward the life of the genre internationally New theoretical approaches combine with specially commissioned chapters on contemporary biographical film production in India Italy South Korea France Russia Great Britain and the US in order to present a selective but well rounded portrait of the biopic's place in film culture From Marie Antoinette to The Social Network the pieces in this volume critically examine the place of the biopic within ongoing debates about how cinema can and should represent history and real lives Contributors discuss the biopic's grounding in the conventions of the historical film and explore the genre's defining traits as well as its potential for innovation The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture expands the critical boundaries of this evolving versatile genre Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2020-12-08 Italian cinema is now regarded as one of the great cinemas of the world Historically however its fortunes have varied Following a brief moment of glory in the early silent era Italian cinema appeared to descend almost into irrelevance in the early 1920s A strong revival of the industry which gathered pace during the 1930s was abruptly truncated by the advent of World War II The end of the war however initiated a renewal as films such as Roma città aperta Rome Open City Sciusci Shoeshine 1946 and Ladri di biciclette Bicycle Thieves 1948 flagbearers of what soon came to be known as Neorealism attracted unprecedented international acclaim and a reputation that only continued to grow in the following years as Italian films were feted worldwide Ironically they were celebrated nowhere more than in the United States where Italian films consistently garnered the lion's share of the Oscars with Lina Wertmüller becoming the first woman to ever be nominated for the Best Director award This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on major movements directors actors actresses film genres producers industry organizations and key films This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Italian Cinema The Eternal City Peter Bondanella, 2017-11-01 A major new interpretation of the impact of ancient Rome on our culture this study charts the effects of two diametrically opposed views of Roman antiquity the virtuous republic of selfless citizen soldiers and the corrupt empire of power hungry tyrants The power of these images is second only to those derived from Christianity in constructing our modern culture Few modern readers are aware of how indebted we are to the Roman model of our political philosophy art music cinema opera and drama Originally published in 1987 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value New Perspectives in Italian Cultural Studies Graziella Parati, 2012-11-10 Following the more theoretical first installment of New Perspectives in Italian Cultural Studies devoted to Definitions Theory and Accented Practices the second volume of New Perspectives deals with practicing cultural studies by offering articles that are valuable for both scholars of Italian studies and students interested in a cultural studies approach Divided in four sections the articles included offer complex approaches to literature film the visual arts and a particular moment in Italian history with which Italians are still coming to terms fascism The essays cover about two hundred years of Italian cultures dealing with the construction of national myths the role of soccer in contemporary debates the contemporary success of mystery novels and issues of race and crime in fascist Italy Contributors look at film through the lens of fashion history and the particular Italian use of dubbing that continues even today Place and memory are the topics of a number of essays that also allow for an interpretation of Italian culture in Americans imagination This volume contains a multifaceted representation of Italy and invites additional discussion on the complexity of representing cultures Women And Italy Shirley W Vinall, Zygmunt G Baranski, 1991-04-05 Restorations of Empire in Africa Samuel Agbamu, 2024 The first full length study of how Italian colonialism in Africa used the history of Roman imperialism on the continent to legitimise and promote its own imperial endeavours Agbamu looks at a broad range of cultural documents to examine how the discourse of colonialism as the return of Rome to land rightfully Italian was disseminated Medieval film Anke Bernau, Bettina Bildhauer, 2021-06-15 Medieval film explores theoretical questions about the ideological artistic emotional and financial investments inhering in cinematic renditions of the medieval period What does it mean to create and watch a medieval film What is a medieval film and why are they successful This is the first work that attempts to answer these questions drawing for instance on film theory postcolonial theory cultural studies and the growing body of work on medievalism Contributors investigate British German Italian Australian French Swedish and American film exploring topics such translation temporality film noir framing and period film and find the medieval lurking in unexpected corners In addition it provides in depth studies of individual films from different countries including The Birth of a Nation to Nosferatu and Robin Hood Prince of Thieves Medieval Film will be of interest to medievalists working in disciplines including literature history to scholars working on film and in cultural studies It will also be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates and to an informed enthusiast in film or and medieval culture Bibliography On Holocaust Literature Abraham J Edelheit, 2021-11-28 In this second supplement to their

The Renaissance Perfected D. Medina Lasansky, 2004 Mussolini's bold claims upon the monuments and rhetoric of ancient Rome have been the subject of a number of recent books D Medina Lasansky shows us a much less familiar side of the cultural politics of Italian Fascism tracing its wide ranging efforts to adapt the nation's medieval and Renaissance heritage to satisfy the regime's programs of national regeneration Anyone acquainted with the beauties of Tuscany will be surprised to learn that architects planners and administrators working within Fascist programs fabricated much of what today's tourists admire as authentic Public squares town halls palaces gardens and civic rituals including the famed Palio of Siena were all restored to suit a vision of the past shaped by Fascist notions of virile power social order and national achievement in the arts Ultimately Lasansky forces readers to question long standing assumptions about the Renaissance even as she expands the parameters of what constitutes Fascist culture The arguments in The Renaissance Perfected are based in fresh archival evidence and a rich collection of illustrations many reproduced for the first time ranging from photographs and architectural drawings to tourist posters and film stills Lasansky's groundbreaking book will be essential reading for students of medieval Renaissance and twentieth century Italy as well as all those concerned with visual culture architectural preservation heritage studies and tourism studies

Movies for the Masses Denise J. Youngblood, 1992 This book is a pathbreaking study of the unknown Soviet cinema the popular movies which were central to Soviet film production in the 1920s Professor Youngblood discusses acting genres the cinema stars audiences and the influences of foreign films and examines three leading filmmakers Iakov Protazanov Boris Barnet and Fridikh Ermler She also looks at the governmental and industrial circumstances underlying filmmaking practices of the era and provides an invaluable survey of the contemporary debates concerning official policy on entertainment cinema Professor Youngblood demonstrates that the film culture of the 1920s was predominantly and aggressively bourgeois and enjoyed patronage that cut across class lines and political allegiance Thus she argues the extent to which Western and pre revolutionary influences bourgeois directors and middle class tastes dominated the film world is as important as the tradition of revolutionary utopianism in understanding the transformation of Soviet culture in the Stalin revolution
